The Upper Room Jesus Parting Promises For Troubled Hearts:

The Upper Room John MacArthur, 2014-10 In a borrowed or rented banqueting room atop some shop or large family dwelling in Jerusalem the drama unfolded The events and teaching recorded in John 13 16 commonly known as the Upper Room Discourse reveal some of the most poignant and powerful promises for believers in all of Scripture Jesus and His disciples were standing on the precipice of the darkest night in the history of the world The Lord of glory was about to be betrayed and murdered The disciples would be scattered and the boldest of them would deny even knowing Him The Lord knew full well that He Himself would soon undergo an unimaginable deluge of woe He would be spit on and mocked by evil men He would bear the sins of the world He would be cursed with the wrath of God for others sins He would feel as if His Father had utterly abandoned Him Any other man in that situation would have been in such a state of uncontrollable agitation that He would never have been able to focus His attention on the needs of others but Jesus was different He wanted His followers to know the peace of the One who has overcome the world During those final hours before Jesus betrayal He gave His disciples and consequently all believers throughout history His parting promises His last will and testament It is the inheritance of every believer in Christ In The Upper Room pastor John MacArthur takes us back to that night and the glorious hope we have in Christ This is vintage MacArthur an exposition of the text that resonates with devotion to the Lord and love for God's people calling us to know and love the One who loved us to the end
