The War Hotel Psychological Dynamics In Violent Conflict:

The War Hotel Arlene Audergon, 2004-12-10 Human Nature is the fuel of violent conflict The War Hotel looks at how we get aroused and how we get silenced into violent conflict We are pulled apart in the name of justice and loyalty Past trauma is triggered into a replay Out of love and longing to step beyond the ordinary world we sacrifice ourselves and others Dehumanizing the enemy disinformation torture stirring fear in order to crack down these terror tactics too are based in psychology The manipulation of psychological dynamics to create violent conflict is distressing But if our emotions and behaviour are the fuel then our awareness can impact world events There is something truly hopeful here Awareness makes a difference Examples draw particularly from the author's work in the Balkans Other examples include Nazi Germany Rwanda the Israeli Palestinian conflict Communism and its fall in Europe South Africa the treatment of Native Americans and African Americans in the USA Vietnam and the war on terror Understanding Conflict and Conflict Analysis Ho-Won Jeong, 2008-04-08 effectively fills a long standing void and will no doubt be hailed as a much needed new addition to the literature This text very much exemplifies the strength of Ho Won Jeong as a theorist and one of the more prolific writers in the larger peace and conflict studies field the final three chapters on De escalation Dynamics which includes a brief section on third party intervention on Conciliation Strategies and especially the one on Ending Conflict which provides a range of outcomes beyond the usual focus on third party intervention read mediation epitomizes the value of this new text Journal of Peace Research an awesome tour d horizon of modern war violence and confrontation within and between nations Illustrating via just about every conflict in every corner of the world the author invokes an endless array of insights and interpretations ranging from the micro to the macro beautifully written in a seamless sequence of closely linked and discursive essays Professor J David Singer University of Michigan Ho Won Jeong has written an illuminating analysis of the dynamics of conflict He lays out the tools we have to analyze conflict in a literate and comprehensive way A valuable book for anyone interested in a more comprehensive understanding of conflict its sources and its deescalation and termination Janice Gross Stein Belzberg Professor of Conflict Management Director Munk Centre for International Studies University of Toronto Jeong has successfully combined behavioral and structural analysis of the dynamics of social conflict This volume covers the multiple dimensions escalation entrapment de escalation termination and resolution both of violent and non violent confrontation between adversaries as well as the utility and limitations of external intervention For students of the social sciences it should serve as an excellent introduction to the complex realities of social conflict Milton Esman John S Knight Professor of International Studies Emeritus Cornell University By examining the dynamic forces which shape and re shape major conflicts this timely book provides students with the knowledge base needed to successfully study conflict sources processes and transformations Broad in focus it addresses the multiple social political and psychological features central to understanding conflict situations and behaviour A range of both recent and historical examples including the Arab Israeli conflict the War on Terrorism the Cold War and the civil wars in Sudan former Yugoslavia and Sri Lanka are discussed illustrating the application of concepts and theories essential to the analysis of inter group inter state and intra state conflict and conflict resolution in a wider context Understanding Conflict and Conflict Analysis is key reading for students of international relations peace and conflict studies conflict resolution international security and international law The Theory of War and Peace Oleg Bazaluk, 2017-03-07 This book explores the ontology of war and peace Using the results of empirical and theoretical research in the field of geophilosophy as well as neuroscience psychology social philosophy and military history it defines axiomatics of the theory of war and peace formulates its consequences tests the theory on the geophilosophy of Europe and offers a new theoretical basis for the definition of the European Security Strategy The text proves that war and peace are ways to achieve a regulatory compromise between manifestations of the active principle which was initially laid in the foundation of the human mentality and the influence of the external environment through natural selection Innovations in Peace and Security in Africa Joseph Adero Ngala, Rachel Julian, Jonathan Henriques, 2023-08-28 This edited volume harnesses African expertise to examine the local and global dimensions of peace It is an outcome of a workshop in Nairobi Kenya that convened African academics and practitioners with diverse specialisations The authors contributions foreground local voices across a broad scope of inquiry including rural community structures health trauma sexual violence peacekeeping and cybersecurity African knowledge is essential to understanding peace on the continent the complexities of conflict and insecurity the lived experiences of individuals and communities and their responses to such phenomena This analytical approach underpins the book creating fertile ground to identify and develop innovations that hold the promise for sustainable African solutions The Politics Of Psychotherapy: New Perspectives Totton, Nick, 2006-03-01 This unique collection by leading authors explores the links between therapy and the political world and their contribution to each other Topics covered include Psychotherapy in the political sphere including the roots of conflict social trauma and ecopsychology Political dimensions of psychotherapy practice such as discrimination power sexuality and postcolonial issues Psychotherapy the state and institutions including the law and ethics and psychotherapy in healthcare Working at the interface examples of therapy in political action from Croatia the USA the UK and Israel Palestine How to place political issues in therapy is highly controversial for example whether political themes should be interpreted psychologically in the consulting room or respected as valid in their own right similar issues arise for the role of therapeutic insights in political reality This book provides a map through these complex and demanding areas for therapists and counsellors in training as well as for experienced practitioners or other interested readers Contributors Lane Arye Arlene Audergon Emanuel Berman Sandra Bloom Jocelyn Chaplin Petruska Clarkson Chess Denman Dawn Freshwater Kate Gentile John Lees Renos Papadopoulos Hilary Prentice Mary Jayne Rust Judy Ryde Andrew Samuels Nick Totton Being a Therapist in a Time of Climate Breakdown Judith Anderson, Tree Staunton, Jenny O'Gorman, Caroline Hickman, 2024-04-08 This book introduces readers to the known psychological aspects of climate change as a pressing global concern and explores how they are relevant to current and future clinical practice Arguing that it is vital for ecological concerns to enter the therapy room this book calls for change from regulatory bodies training institutes and individual practitioners The book includes original thinking and research by practitioners from a range of perspectives including psychodynamic eco systemic and integrative It considers how our different modalities and ways of working need to be adapted to be applicable to the ecological crises It includes Voices from people who are not practitioners about their experience including how they see the role of therapy Chapters deal with topics from climate science including the emotional and mental health impacts of climate breakdown professional ethics and wider systemic understandings of current therapeutic approaches Also discussed are the practice based implications of becoming a climate aware therapist eco psychosocial approaches and the inextricable links between the climate crises and racism colonialism and social injustice Being a Therapist in a Time of Climate Breakdown will enable therapists and mental health professionals across a range of modalities to engage with their own thoughts and feelings about climate breakdown and consider how it both changes and reinforces aspects of their therapeutic work Armenophobia in

Azerbaijan Anzhela Elibegova, Armine Adibekian, 2021-06-28 The idea of this book came after the presentation of Azeri hild project which represented a systematized compilation of works by Azerbaijani authors intended for children audiences along with a series of examples of works created by children themselves which gave a clear demonstration of the gap between the real situation in the Azerbaijani society about anything relating to Armenia and the declared tolerance for diversity of cultures and religions Naturally enough we tend to label this hatred as armenophobia often without full awareness of the pivotal role it plays in shaping the ethnic identity of Azerbaijanis such hatred channeled against all that pertains to Armenia stands as the nemesis of their psychological model and fuels the juxtaposition of us vs them which is fraught with repercussions for Azerbaijanis themselves The large archive compiled by the authors of this book a serves as a thesaurus for an analysis of ongoing processes in the Azerbaijani society and b allows building a temporal perspective on three levels by covering the past history current situation and expected ramifications of the armenophobic policy pursued at the state level in Azerbaijan

Peacebuilding in Traumatized Societies Barry Hart, 2008-02-26 This work examines trauma identity security education and development as issues of critical importance to peacebuilding and social reconstruction after large scale violence This violence takes the form of war mass killings and genocide as well as structural violence that has humiliated and impoverished millions of people across the globe Transitional justice leadership religion and the arts are other crucial issues that are included in this analysis of violence and its transformation The book explores how each issue can be independently addressed for transformational purposes but argues for their active interdependence in order to more effectively help individuals communities and societies emerge from violence and begin the rebuilding process Peacebuilding for Traumatized Societies examines these issues in theoretical and practical terms through case studies and descriptions of training and problem solving procedures in Rwanda the Balkans Colombia and the Philippines Z Magazine ,2005

Relationship at the Centre Godfrey T. Barrett-Lennard,2005 This book offers a new perspective on the working and potential healing of relations between persons and between peoples relevant to our desperate times Humans are born into relationships and personal selves emerge through experiences of relationship which broaden and evolve through life Inquiry into diversity and relations within the self opens the way to other primary spheres interpersonal and family relations community process as relationship the nature and far reaching phenomena of loneliness and alienation and organizational and big system relations One chapter maps the wide spectrum of inter connected human systems and another presents a view of helping theory and practice development extended through this spectrum Over the whole range the processes healing and development of relationship are in central focus In a final review of the span of critical need and challenge the book confronts alternatives and proposes steps toward recovery The Psychologist ,2005 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2005 Social Transformation and Conflicts in Southeast Asia Southeast Asian Conflict Studies Network.
