The Way Of Salvation The Role Of Christian Obedience In Justification:

The Way of Salvation Paul A. Rainbow, 2012-12-01 Martin Luther invented the Reformation slogan sola fide by faith alone which Philipp Melanchthon and John Calvin brandished and defended Most Protestants since their time have swallowed it whole But is evangelical obedience the good works that follow faith and are produced by grace excluded from the basis for justification or otherwise Asserting that there is no more serious question bearing upon the destiny of human beings than how sinners can be justified before a Holy God Paul Rainbow examines current and traditional treatments of faith works and justification marshals a biblical case majoring on the New Testament teaching of Paul and James and offers a series of systematic historical and pastoral reflections

Four Views on the Role of Works at the Final Judgment Robert N. Wilkin, Thomas R. Schreiner, James D. G. Dunn, Michael P. Barber, 2013-07-09 Through a discussion of Biblical texts this book presents four perspectives on the role of works at the final judgment The final judgment is the last and final act before God dwells with his people forever Scripture makes that clear but what function do our actions play in the final assessment of our souls especially those of professing Christians The contributors each state their case for one of four prominent views on the effect of works at the end of time Robert N Wilkin Works will determine rewards but not salvation Thomas R Schreiner Works will provide evidence that one actually has been saved James D G Dunn Works will provide the criterion by which Christ will determine eternal destiny of his people Michael P Barber Works will merit eternal life This book allows each contributor to not only present the case for his view but also to critique and respond to the critiques of the other contributors allowing you to compare their beliefs in an open forum setting to see where they overlap and where they differ The Counterpoints series presents a comparison and critique of scholarly views on topics important to Christians that are both fair minded and respectful of the biblical text Each volume is a one stop reference that allows readers to evaluate the different positions on a specific issue and form their own educated opinion

Sinners, Works of Law, and Transgression in Gal 2:14b-21 Nicolai Techow, 2024-01-30 In this study of the flow of thought in Paul's speech to Cephas Gal 2 14b 21 Nicolai Techow explains the passage as a linear and unified argument centered on God's judgment of people in the cross of Christ as integral to justification He argues for a primarily moral religious meaning of sinfulness and works of law

Reforming the Christian Faith Mark W. Karlberg, 2017-10-12 Central to the mission of the church with each passing generation is the elucidation of the gospel of Christ which is the heart of the Christian message Witness to God's saving word in Scripture comes in response to discussions and debates arising over the course of church history Our study highlights some of the unity and disunity found within the Reformed tradition Reformation and modern Beginning with the subject of the development of doctrine over the course of church history we take up the foundational issue of biblical hermeneutics the question of how we are to interpret the Bible The year 2017 marks the Protestant Church's 500th anniversary October 31 We consider secondly Protestantism's two leading theological principles the formal the doctrine of Scripture and the material the doctrine of justification by faith alone In the final section we critique departures from the teaching of historic federalism found within contemporary Reformed orthodoxy which strikes at the very heart of what it means to be Reformed in theology Crucial in this long standing and ongoing dispute is the interpretation of the Mosaic Covenant as in some sense a republication of the original Covenant of Works with Adam at creation Covenant and justification are the focal doctrines under study

Recovering the Evangelical Sacrament Anthony R. Cross,2012-12-06 The subject of baptism continues to be of considerable interest though it frequently appears within broader studies of sacraments liturgy worship and ecumenical studies and within confessional bounds credobaptist or paedobaptist yet it is rarely discussed by Evangelicals This book however is neither an apologetic for credobaptism nor paedobaptism rather Cross believes that as practiced today both forms are a departure from New Testament baptism which he maintains was an integral part of becoming a Christian and part of the proclaimed gospel He argues that the one baptism of Ephesians 4 5 is conversion baptism and that the baptism referred to in the various New Testament strata refers to this one baptism of Spirit and water The study sets out the case for this interpretation and contends that in key passages baptism is an example of synecdoche The case is then made for a sacramental interpretation of baptism from a thoroughgoing Evangelical perspective Cross concludes with reflections on the necessity of baptismal reform and the relevance of a return to conversion baptism for the contemporary church in a post Christian post Christendom mission setting 40 Questions about Christians and Biblical Law Thomas R.

Schreiner,2010-10-08 This volume by Dr Thomas R Schreiner on the interplaybetween Christianity and biblical law is an excellent addition to the 40Questions Answers series Schreiner not only coherently answers the toughquestions that flow from a discussion about the Old Testament Levitical Law but also writes clearly and engagingly for the student The pastor student and layperson can easily understand Schreiner s biblical theology of the Law Back to Faith , The New Perspective on Paul James D.G. Dunn,2008 The New Perspective on Paul By author James D G Dunn published on January 2008 by James D G Dunn 2008 Federalism and the Westminster Tradition Mark W. Karlberg,2006-10-15 More than any other theological tradition Reformed federalism has recognized the importance of the biblical teaching on the covenants in its system of doctrine This tradition came to mature confessional status in the writing of the Westminster Confession of Faith and Catechisms The place of the Westminster tradition within the stream of Christian history and theology is remarkable indeed Westminster not only gained recognition as the epitome of Calvinist teaching at the close of the Protestant Reformation the middle of the seventeenth century it also earned the reputation for precision and comprehensiveness in doctrinal formulation It became the measure by which biblical interpreters defended their systems of doctrine either in agreement or disagreement with the theology of the Westminster divines These writings are the climax of three decades of research and study and they appear as the third in the series of collections published by Wipf and Stock beginning with Covenant Theology in Reformed Perspective followed by Gospel Grace The Modern day Controversy The critical teaching in dispute in each of these studies is the classic Protestant antithesis between the Law and the Gospel what serves as the basis for the Reformed doctrine of the twofold covenants the Covenant of Works and the Covenant of Grace Protestant Reformed Orthodoxy now stands at the crossroads the plight of Westminster Seminary East and West is merely illustrative of the depth and the intensity of the contemporary theological dispute one impacting the future of Protestant evangelicalism as a whole The battle is between historic Reformed Protestantism and modern day revisionism of a radical sort The rapid rise of postmodernism or nonfoundationalism is indicative of the rapidly changing mood and posture in evangelical biblical scholarship at the opening of this third millennium of Christian interpretation Without question the modern church continues to loose her biblical moorings Forsaking the basic theological convictions of the Protestant Reformation it has attempted to subject the Word of God to vigorous academic i e scientific investigation the return of rationalism In doing so it has abandoned the Scripture principle which recognizes the uniquely authoritative and inerrant character of the Word of God Lost in the shuffle is the uncompromising proclamation of the one true Gospel the Gospel of justification by grace through faith alone Lost also is the doctrine of the perspicuity of Scripture Nothing less than a new Reformation in our day will halt travel down the road leading to destruction From the Preface

Engaging Westminster Calvinism Mark W.

Karlberg, 2013-04-26 This collection of writings contains articles and book reviews that are not readily accessible to most readers Many of them are written for a wider audience of informed lay students of Scripture as well as seminarians They have been brought together here in a fresh way with other new writings As a result this study is somewhat unique drawing upon the author's career in theology and church music Over the course of four decades of scholarly research and writing Mark Karlberg has also been engaged in the music ministry of the church serving as organist and choir director Chief influences in his study and practice of music in the church have been Robert Elmore and Gerre Hancock leading organists choral masters and composers of our generation In the course of their stellar careers Elmore and Hancock have served in different ecclesiastical settings Moravian Presbyterian Southern Baptist and Anglican What they both share in common is their exceptional skill in the art of improvisation Part of their accompaniment was off the written musical score resulting in service playing that was creative and engaging In the spirit of their artistic expression we offer this collection of writings bearing as its theme the great Song of Redemption composed by the singing Christ Heb 2:12

Judgment According to Works in Romans Kevin W. McFadden, 2013-10-01 Kevin W. McFadden shows that Paul wrote the letter to remind Roman Christians of his gospel because of his vocation as apostle to the Gentiles The letter simultaneously demonstrates the guilt of the world and calls Paul's audience to live out the implications of the gospel The theme of judgment thus appears in two distinct ways Paul opposes justification by works of law but simultaneously affirms as did most of the early Christian movement McFadden argues a final judgment according to works These are not contradictory observations but belong together in a cohesive understanding of Paul's theology and of his purpose in the letter

A Theology of Paul and His Letters Douglas J. Moo, 2021-10-26 A landmark study of the apostle's writings by one of the world's leading Pauline scholars Winner of the 2022 ECPA Christian Book Award for Bible Reference Works This highly anticipated volume gives pastors scholars and all serious students of the New Testament exactly what they need for in-depth study and engagement with one of Christian history's most formative thinkers and writers A Theology of Paul and His Letters is a landmark study of the apostle's writings by one of the world's leading Pauline scholars Douglas J. Moo Fifteen years in the making this groundbreaking work is organized into three major sections Part 1 provides an overview of the issues involved in doing biblical theology in general and a Pauline theology in particular Here Moo also sets out the methodological issues formative influences and conceptual categories of Paul's thought Part 2 moves on to Paul's New Testament writings where Moo describes each Pauline letter with particular relevance to its theology Part 3 offers a masterful synthesis of Paul's theology under the overarching theme of the gift of the new realm in Christ Engaging insightful and wise this substantive evangelical treatment of Paul's theology offers extensive engagement with the latest Pauline scholarship without sacrificing its readability This volume brings insights from over thirty years of experience studying teaching and writing about Paul into one comprehensive guide that will serve readers as a go-to resource for decades to come

ABOUT THE SERIES The Biblical Theology of the New Testament BTNT series provides upper college and seminary level textbooks for students of New

Testament theology interpretation and exegesis Pastors and discerning theology readers alike will also benefit from this series Written at the highest level of academic excellence by recognized experts in the field the BTNT series not only offers a comprehensive exploration of the theology of every book of the New Testament including introductory issues and major themes but also shows how each book relates to the broad picture of New Testament Theology For Whom Did Christ Die? Jarvis J Williams,2014-07-08 A careful and exegetical reading and examination of the Pauline passages that suggests particular atonement together with a thorough engagement with contemporary scholars on the subject In For Whom Did Christ Die Williams argues that according to Paul Jesus died exclusively for the elect to achieve their salvation The book attempts to show that particular atonement is not simply an abstract theological doctrine imposed on the text by theologians and void of a biblical or exegetical foundation but that this doctrine is biblical is Pauline and that particular atonement can be detected in Pauline theology by means of a careful exegetical analysis of the relevant Pauline texts and of the relevant texts in the Old Testament and Second Temple Judaism Both Judge and Justifier James B. Prothro,2018-04-13 Paul often says that God justifies people in Christ but what does that mean God does The language appears legal but many other interpretations have been suggested Beginning from the use of this language in Judaism and early Christianity James B Prothro investigates biblical legal conflicts and the terminology of justification in Paul s letters to determine what it means for Paul to say that God as judge is the justifier of those who trust in Christ A Beginner's Guide to New Testament Studies Nijay K. Gupta,2020-03-17 This accessible and balanced introduction helps readers sort out key views on the most important debated issues in New Testament studies Well known New Testament scholar Nijay Gupta fairly presents the spectrum of viewpoints on thirteen topics and offers reflections on why scholars disagree on these matters Written to be accessible to students and readers without advanced training in New Testament studies this book will serve as an excellent supplementary text for New Testament introduction courses Christian Theology Millard J. Erickson,2013-08-15 Leading evangelical scholar Millard Erickson offers a new edition of his bestselling textbook now substantially updated and revised throughout This edition takes into account feedback from professors and students and reflects current theological conversations with added material on the atonement justification and divine foreknowledge Erickson s comprehensive introduction is biblical contemporary moderate and fair to various positions and it applies doctrine to Christian life and ministry Baptist Sacramentalism 2 Anthony R. Cross,Philip E. Thompson,2009-04-01 This second collection of essays exploring various dimensions of sacramental theology from a Baptist perspective includes biblical historical and theological studies from scholars from around the world Subjects covered are sacraments and sacramentality sacrament and sacrifice in Hebrews the sacrament of fearful intimacy the church as sacrament baptism and the Lord s supper for post Christendom Baptists Pauline baptism and Roman Insulae open communion for the contemporary church penance sacred space recovering a biblical understanding of baptismal regeneration the Lord s supper and the spirituality of C H Spurgeon Southern Baptist eucharistic sacramentalism and soul competency re thinking ex opere operato sacramentalism the sacramentality of the word in Gregory of Nyssa and searching for a common theology of baptism between Baptists and the Churches of Christ This volume does not speak the final word on the subject but is a step along the way toward the recovery and reconstruction of a robust sacramentalism in a Baptist modality Perspectives on Paul Scot McKnight, B. J. Oropeza, 2020-10-27 This five views work brings together an all star lineup of Pauline scholars to offer a constructive interdenominational up to date conversation on key issues of Pauline theology The editors begin with an informative recent history of biblical tradition related to the perspectives on Paul John M G Barclay A Andrew Das James D G Dunn Brant Pitre and Magnus Zetterholm then discuss how to interpret Paul s writings and theology especially the apostle s view of salvation The book concludes with an assessment of the perspectives from a pastoral point of view by Dennis Edwards
