The Whole Truth A Case Of Murder On The Appalachian Trail:

The Whole Truth H. L. Pohlman, 1999 On May 13 1988 Stephen Roy Carr a so called mountain man living in Michaux State Forest in southcentral Pennsylvania shot two female hikers while they were making love at a campsite near the Appalachian Trail Rebecca Wight died at the scene Claudia Brenner despite five bullet wounds survived to testify against her attacker In this book H L Pohlman reconstructs the dramatic story of this murder case and traces its disposition through the criminal justice system Drawing on interviews with participants as well as court records he closely examines competing interpretations of the evidence Was the attack a hate crime A sex crime A class crime At the same time he shows how a broad range of substantive and procedural issues from the rights of the accused to evaluation of potential mitigating circumstances can influence the assessment of culpability in homicide cases Much of Pohlman s analysis centers around two fundamental and related questions To what extent did the adversarial system facilitate or hinder the discovery of the whole truth in the Carr case And was justice served Pohlman concludes by revisiting the ongoing debate over the nature of the American criminal justice system and the legitimacy of its ultimate sanction the death penalty Case of a Lifetime Abbe Smith, 2008-07-22 A recent study estimates that thousands of innocent people are wrongfully imprisoned each year in the United States Some are exonerated through DNA evidence but many more languish in prison because their convictions were based on faulty eyewitness accounts and no DNA is available Prominent criminal lawyer and law professor Abbe Smith weaves together real life cases to show what it is like to champion the rights of the accused Smith describes the moral and ethical dilemmas of representing the guilty and the weighty burden of fighting for the innocent including the victorious story of how she helped free a woman wrongly imprisoned for nearly three decades For fans of Law and Order and investigative news programs like 20/20 Case of a Lifetime is a chilling look at what really determines a person s innocence The (Mis)Representation of Queer Lives in True Crime Abbie E. Goldberg, Danielle C. Slakoff, Carrie L. Buist, 2023-08-25 This book examines the representation and misrepresentation of queer people in true crime addressing their status as both victims and perpetrators in actual crime as well as how the media portrays them The chapters apply an intersectional perspective in examining criminal cases involving LGBTQ people as well as the true crime media content surrounding the cases The book illuminates how sexual orientation gender race and other social locations impact the treatment of queer people in the criminal legal system and the mass media Each chapter describes one or more high profile criminal cases involving queer people e g the murders of Brandon Teena and Kitty Genovese serial killer Aileen Wuornos the Pulse nightclub mass shooting The authors examine how the cases are portrayed in the media via news films podcasts documentaries books social media and more Each chapter discusses not only what is visible or emphasized by the media but also what is invisible in the accounting or societal focus surrounding the case Lesser known but similar cases are used in the book to call attention to how race gender sexuality sexual orientation social class and or other features influence the dominant narrative surrounding these cases Each chapter addresses teachable moments from each case and its coverage leaving readers with several considerations to take with them into the future The book also provides media resources and supplemental materials so that curious readers including scholars students content creators and advocates can examine the cases and media content further The book will appeal to scholars and students of criminology psychology sociology law media studies sexuality studies and cultural studies and people with an interest in true crime Queer America Vicki L. looking into the case she discovers conflicting evidence mismatched timelines and details that just don't add up With unprecedented access to crucial crime scene forensics and key witnesses and with a growing sense of both mission and obsession she begins to uncover the truth An innocent man Miles is convinced had been under suspicion for decades while the true culprit was still unknown serial killer if only authorities would have taken a closer look sooner Intimate page turning and brilliantly reported Trained is a love story and a call to justice and a searching and urgent plea to make wilderness a safe space for women destined to become a true crime classic

Is Killing Wrong? Mark Cooney, 2009-10-07 Thou shalt not kill is arguably the most basic moral and legal principle in any society Yet while some killers are pilloried and punished others are absolved and acquitted and still others are lauded and lionized Why The traditional answer is that how killers are treated depends on the nature of their killing whether it was aggressive or defensive intentional or accidental But those factors cannot explain the enormous variation in legal officials and citizens responses to real life homicides Cooney argues that a radically new style of thought pure sociology can Conceived by the sociologist Donald Black pure sociology makes no reference to psychology to any single person's intent or even to individuals as such Instead pure sociology explains behavior in terms of its social geometry its location and direction in a multidimensional social space Is Killing Wrong provides the most comprehensive assessment of pure sociology yet attempted Drawing on data from well over one hundred societies including the modern day United States it represents the most thorough account yet of case level social control or the response to conduct defined as wrong In doing so it demonstrates that the law and morality of homicide are neither universal nor relative but geometrical as predicted by Black's theory
