The Word Before The Powers An Ethic Of Preaching:

The Word Before the Powers Charles L. Campbell, 2002-01-01 In this examination of the ethical significance of preaching Charles Campbell provides both fresh insights into the relationship between preaching and ethics and a challenging moral vision for the contemporary church Moving beyond a narrow focus on moral decision making or social issues sermons Campbell argues that a particular ethic nonviolent resistance is inherent in the practice of preaching and shapes the moral life of the church In the face of the powers the fundamental ethical task of preaching involves building up the church as a community of resistance Employing three dimensions of character ethics vision practices and virtues Campbell demonstrates the concrete ways in which preachers may undertake this task Scripture and Social Justice

Stephen P. Ahearne-Kroll, Harold W. Attridge, Corrine Carvalho, Adela Yarbro Collins, John J. Collins, John R. Donahue, John Endres, Gina Hens-Piazza, Anthea E. Portier-Young, Julia D. E. Prinz, Gregory E. Sterling, 2018-08-10 The essays gathered here provide a panoramic view of current thinking on biblical texts that play important roles in contemporary struggles for social justice either as inspiration or impediment Here from the hands of an ecumenical array of leading biblical scholars are fresh and compelling resources for thinking biblically about what justice is and what it demands Individual essays treat key debates themes and texts locating each within its historical and cultural settings while also linking them to the most pressing justice concerns of the twenty first century The volume aims to challenge academic and ecclesiastical complacency and highlight key avenues for future scholarship and action Ways of the Word Sally A. Brown, Luke A. Powery, 2016-05-19

Preaching and the discipline of preaching is at a crossroads The changing realities of church and theological education the diversity of our classrooms and our increasingly complex community contexts leave us in search of tools to help train a rising generation of preachers for a future whose contours are far from clear The questions are immense How to support preachers in contexts that are diverse religiously culturally and ethnically both inside and outside the church How to help students take varied contexts seriously as they are formed as leaders In Ways of the Word a dynamic team of master preachers brings much needed help Different in race gender age and tradition both Sally A Brown and Luke A Powery speak with one voice their belief that preaching is Spirit empowered event an embodied vocalized actively received here and now witness to the ongoing work of God in the world They aspire to help students and preachers alike to reflect on a journey of learning by doing They aim to help preachers to become more attuned to the Spirit more adept in preaching s component skills and more self aware about all that is at stake in proclaiming the redemptive work of God in specific contexts 1 Corinthians Charles Campbell, 2018-01-17 This latest commentary in the Belief series looks at Paul s theological wrestling with the divisions facing the early church in Corinth These divisions arose for many reasons among them the practices of the community baptism the Lord s Supper preaching and the exercise of spiritual gifts The contemporary church in North America is likewise dealing with divisions of various sorts Who can preach Who can celebrate Communion Who can marry whom With this commentary Charles L Campbell helps preachers understand how to better respond to those questions in their own settings www.congregationalresources.org Richard Bass,2004-12-30 An ever increasing number of resources compete for the attention of congregational leaders With a seemingly endless number of choices finding the best resource on a particular topic for a specific congregation is an often daunting challenge www.congregationalresources.org is an invaluable companion to the groundbreaking online version of Alban Institute's and Indianapolis Center for Congregations jointly researched and produced Congregational Resource Guide launched in 2001 and accessed by thousands of seekers each week The book conveniently and cogently puts the rich array of important resources into context by examining in depth the key books organizations Web sites and people that will help leaders gain an understanding of important issues facing their congregations The book features ten overviews of important topics by widely recognized experts in their fields including Amy Sherman on Community Ministry Tom Fischer on Congregational Health Lee Ramsey on Preaching Paul Chaffee on Leadership John Janka on Evaluation and Jean Trumbauer on Lay Ministry Each essay is accompanied by an annotated list of selected resources for researching further information Helpful guides for using these valuable resources to promote and encourage congregational understanding and transformation are also included Narrative Reading, Narrative

Preaching Joel B. Green,Michael Pasquarello,2003-12 How can preachers best make use of scholarly works as they bring the Word to their congregations This uniquely practical work has the answer Elenchus of Biblica ,2003 The Scandal of the Gospel Charles L. Campbell,2021-10-26 Through its shocking incongruities and transgressive forms this grotesque offers an intriguing lens for exploring the scandal of the gospel and the challenges of Christian preaching Drawing on diverse sources from Swedish crime fiction and contemporary poetry to James Cone Harriet Beecher Stowe and Pussy Riot this book will examine the theological homiletical and social implications of a grotesque gospel for contemporary preachers The book focuses on three aspects of preaching and the grotesque 1 the ways in which a grotesque gospel unsettles the preacher and challenges the false patterns that often shape Christian preaching 2 the importance and challenges of resisting the weaponized grotesque which dehumanizes people and furthers the power of dominant groups 3 the incarnate Word as the carnivalesque grotesque body of Jesus which calls the church to become the porous and inclusive body of Christ The Scandal of the Gospel is the written adaptation of Yale Divinity School's Beecher Lectures given by Charles Campbell in 2018 The last chapter Preaching and the Environmental Grotesque is a new addition Living In-Between Andre Resner,2015-11-04 The community of faith finds itself located precariously between Jesus first and second comings between the promise and fulfillment between what God has begun in the gospel and what God has yet to complete It thus finds itself proclaiming a gospel of life love hope and faith in a world more characterized by death hate despair and fear The gospel insists that Jesus death has shut the door on the age of violence and death even as his resurrection has opened the door on the Age of Shalom and life But in this tensive in between time those conflicting ages overlap and the church struggles against powers and experiences that mock its message Drawing on resources from the New Testament's vision of the apocalyptic gospel Andre Resner urges the church and its preachers to engage in the linguistic practices of lament and proclamation as well as the embodied practices of justice making and justice keeping as counter testimony to those powers that have been served notice in Jesus life death and resurrection that their end is near The reflections offered here model the kind of honest speech and risk of life to which the gospel calls its adherents
