The Existential Actor Jeff Zinn, 2017-12-12 This is a book for the thinking actor and the finest actors I've known are just that The best actors bring it all together body heart spirit and mind This book is for the actor who thinks about craft and influence who thinks about the relationship of performance to living who thinks about doing and what that doing means Acting is a metaphor and it's a mirror and so a theory of acting if true shows us to ourselves Jeff Zinn knows this He knows it as an actor director teacher and thinker His theory of everything is simple and revelatory from the foreword by Todd London

Performing the Nonhuman Conrad Alexandrowicz, 2024-09-02 This book radically reimagines theatre performance pedagogy and dramaturgy in response to the accelerating climate crisis This text is founded upon the principle that the theatre is the most anthropocentric of all the arts the means of its representation the human figure is identical with its conventional object the human narrative broadly considered In order to respond ethically to the climate crisis it must expand its range to include performing as in response to the nonhuman Conrad Alexandrowicz concisely explores theoretical approaches to the other than human found in the work of among others Jane Bennett Timothy Morton Rosi Braidotti and Cary Wolfe The implications of this move are far reaching and commence with displacing realism from its traditional position of dominance The practices of 20th century physical theatre visionaries such as Tadeusz Kantor Jacques Lecoq and Jerzy Grotowski are revisited and reconsidered for their applicability to forms of theatre that might serve the needs of establishing storytelling deriving from nonhuman phenomena This logically leads to the matter of responding appropriately to Indigenous ways of knowing and being The work finds guidance in Indigenous pre scientific ways of knowing and being such as those articulated by Robin Wall Kimmerer Braiding Sweetgrass 2013 In contemplating our kinship with vegetative life the work finds inspiration in the latest research into the ways tree communities communicate collaborate and share resources including the work of Suzanne Simard Finding the Mother Tree 2021 It next imagines transformations in how theatre is situated delivered and received and considers the ways in which the performer spectator binary may have to be reconfigured with particular reference to Grotowski's experiments in participatory theatre. It poses an even more provocative question: is such theorized performance work pointing in the direction of some reimagined version of ritual and ceremony that may find antecedents in pre-Christian European belief and practice? Finally, it locates such eco-theatre in the realm of healing climate anxiety, depression and grief on the part of instructors, students and artists. This will require us to consider and activate the healing power of the art form. Perhaps the core purpose of all the arts will shift to support the need to generate solace in times of fear, anger and uncertainty. This book is intended for instructors, both scholars and performance pedagogues in theatre and performance studies as well as graduate and undergraduate students in these areas. Dramatics, 2005 American Theatre, 2007
