Tristes Tropiques Penguin Classics:

Tristes Tropiques Claude Levi-Strauss, 2012-01-31 A magical masterpiece Robert Ardrey A chronicle of the author's search for a civilization reduced to its most basic expression

Tristes-Tropiques Claude Lévi-Strauss, 1984 Violent States and Creative States (2 Volume Set) John Adlam, Tilman Kluttig, Bandy Lee, 2018-05-03 This is a provocative collection

exploring the different types of violence and how they relate to one another examined through the integration of several disciplines including forensic psychotherapy psychiatry sociology psychosocial studies and political science By examining the violent states of mind behind specific forms of violence and the social and societal contexts in which an individual act of human violence takes place the contributors reveal the dynamic forces and reasoning behind specific forms of violence including structural violence and conceptualise the societal structures themselves as violent states Other research often stops short at examining the causes and risk factors for violence without considering the opposite states that may not only mitigate but allow for a different unfolding of individual and societal evolution As a potential antidote to violence the authors prescribe an understanding of these creative states with their psychological origins and their importance in human behaviour and meaning seeking Making a call to move beyond merely mitigating violence to the opposite direction of fostering creative potential this book is foundational in its capacity to cultivate social consciousness and effect positive change in areas of governance policy making and collective responsibility This two volume set includes Volume 1 Structural Violence and Creative Structures ISBN 9781785925641 Volume 2 Human Violence and Creative Humanity ISBN 9781785925658

Architecture Martin van der Linden, 2021-03-12 The question of what architecture is answered in this book with one sentence Architecture is space created for human activities The basic need to find food and water places these activities within a larger spatial field Humans have learned and found ways to adjust to the various contextual difficulties that they faced as they roamed the earth Thus rather than adapting humans have always tried to change the context to their activities Humanity has looked at the context not merely as a limitation but rather as a spatial situation filled with opportunities that allows through intellectual interaction to change these limitations Thus humanity has created within the world their own contextual bubble that firmly stands against the larger context it is set in The key notion of the book is that architecture is space carved out of and against the context and that this process is deterministic

Claude Lévi-Strauss Christopher Johnson,2003-02-27 L vi Strauss is one of the major intellectual figures of the twentieth century His theory of structuralism has been influential not only in anthropology but across the entire field of the humanities and social sciences This book looks at the formative period of his career from the 1940s to the early 1960s where he attempts to define both his own place in anthropology and the place of anthropology in the wider context of the human sciences in France Through a close reading of key texts Christopher Johnson provides an introduction to key aspects of L vi Strauss thought at the same time posing more general questions concerning the construction of theory and the different modes of conceptualization that inform theory Johnson looks at the ideological and autobiographical dimensions of L vi Strauss work and demonstrates how the impact of structuralism as an intellectual movement has clearly been greater than the sum of its theoretical parts Tristes Tropiques Claude Lévi-Strauss,1984 Mountain Magic : Celtic Shamanism in the Austrian Alps Christian Brunner,2015-08-08 Christian F Brunner author of several books on shamanism in the Alps has practiced ancient healing methods for over twenty years He is also a Druid in the Order of Bards Ovates and Druids contributing regularly to the Order s monthly magazine Touchstone The author invites you to take a stroll with him through his beloved Alps where myths and folk customs still sing of the people who lived there in antiquity the Celts Walk with the author along the narrow ridge between history and otherworld which we encounter behind many a jagged rock in a deep forest or dark cave We will meet giants there mystical ladies and the Kasermandl and all have fascinating stories to tell Learn what the Alpine people of old thought about Vervain and how ancient magical spells connected folks on continent with their brethren on the British Isles And finally you can go with Christian Brunner on a shamanic journey to Mutter Perchtl and thus participate in the remembrance of the Great Goddess Selections from Peter Martyr Pietro Martire d' Anghiera,1998 The first decade or volume of Peter Martyr s reports on the New World published in 1511 as De Orbe Novo was in fact the first European history of America For twenty years after Columbus s voyages of discovery Martyr s letters in various versions served as Europe s primary printed source for the Caribbean and the emerging continent of South America Martyr a wise observer and great storyteller is one of the major informants on the voyages of Columbus His work also includes the whole of

C.F. Evans :[essays] Christopher Francis Evans, 1977 Two substantial series of lectures hitherto unpublished on The Passion of Christ and The Christian Past Present and Future make up the bulk of this collection. There are also studies on Parable and Dogma, Christology and Theology and hermeneutics. Classic Educational Ideas from Sumeria to America Bernard Mehl, 1972. Hans Scharoun Peter Blundell Jones, Peter Blundell-Jones, Hans Scharoun, 1995. Hans Scharoun 1893-1972 first achieved international recognition in 1927 with his controversial house for the Stuttgart Weissenhofsiedlung. His experiments with free planning and dynamic interior space continued in his native Germany through the difficult wartime years from which he emerged with renewed energy and a consolidated architectural philosophy. As an important exponent of Organic Architecture, Scharoun developed a radical new kind of architectural space and his disdain for imposed form and emphasis on open-minded discovery have proved increasingly influential among a younger generation of architects. Peter Blundell Jones's exhaustive study provides a comprehensive overview of Scharoun's life and work and explores his theoretical stance in relation to contemporaries such as Hugo Haring, Mies van der Rohe and Le Corbusier. Generously illustrated throughout with plans and drawings and specially commissioned photographs by Dennis Gilbert, this book presents a timely re-evaluation of Scharoun's unique contribution to architectural theory and design. Atisbos, 1975. Paragraph, 2004. Select Papers, 1995. Lévi-Strauss Today Robert Deliége, 2004-09-04. This book provides a concise overview of the monumental work of the greatest and most prolific thinkers of the 20th century. Claude Lévi-Strauss has had a profound and lasting impact on the course of contemporary anthropology. □□□□ □□□□□□□□. □□□, 1995
