Multicultural Cities Mohammad Abdul Qadeer,2016-01-01 In Multicultural Cities Mohammad Abdul Qadeer offers a tour of three of North America s premier multicultural metropolises Toronto New York and Los Angeles Transcultural Cities Jeffrey Hou,2013-02-11 Transcultural Cities uses a framework of transcultural placemaking cross disciplinary inquiry and transnational focus to examine a collection of case studies around the world presented by a multidisciplinary group of scholars and activists in architecture urban planning urban studies art environmental psychology geography political science and social work The book addresses the intercultural exchanges as well as the cultural transformation that takes place in urban spaces In doing so it views cultures not in isolation from each other in today's diverse urban environments but as mutually influenced constituted and transformed In cities and regions around the globe migrations of people have continued to shape the makeup and making of neighborhoods districts and communities For instance in North America new immigrants have revitalized many of the decaying urban landscapes creating renewed cultural ambiance and economic networks that transcend borders In Richmond BC Canada an Asian night market has become a major cultural event that draws visitors throughout the region and across the US and Canadian border Across the Pacific foreign domestic workers in Hong Kong transform the deserted office district in Central on weekends into a carnivalesque site While contributing to the multicultural vibes in cities migration and movements have also resulted in tensions competition and clashes of cultures between different ethnic communities old timers newcomers employees and employers individuals and institutions In Transcultural Cities Jeffrey Hou and a cross disciplinary team of authors argue for a more critical and open approach that sees today's cities urban places and placemaking as vehicles for cross cultural understanding

The Ethnically Diverse City Frank Eckardt, John Eade, 2011-01-01

Multimedia Explorations in Urban Policy and Planning Leonie Sandercock, Giovanni Attili, 2010-04-10 The book is a collection of essays exploring the potential of multimedia to enrich and transform the planning field By multimedia the authors refer to a broad range of new information and communication technologies from film and video to digital ethnography and the internet which are opening up new possibilities in planning practices processes pedagogy and research The authors document the ways in which these ICTs can expand the language of planning and the creativity of planners can evoke the lived experience the spirit memories desires of our 21st century mongrel cities by engaging with stories and storytelling and can democratise planning practices The text is epistemologically radical in presenting an argument for the importance of multiple languages ways of knowing in the planning field and making the connection between this epistemology and the almost infinite potential of Multimedia to provide varied tools to accomplish this transformation displacing the supremacy of the rational linear and hierarchical with more open playful and imaginative approaches Each of the authors brings practical experience with different forms of Multimedia use and reflects on the different potentialities offered by Multimedia for critical intervention in urban and regional issues and the power dynamics embedded in such interventions

Cities and the Politics of Difference Michael Burayidi, 2015-11-26 Demographic change and a growing sensitivity to the diversity of urban communities have increasingly led planners to recognize the necessity of planning for diversity Edited by Michael A Burayidi Cities and the Politics of Difference offers a guide for making diversity a cornerstone of planning practice The essays in this collection cover the practical and theoretical issues that surround this transformation discussing ways of planning for inclusive and multicultural cities enhancing the cultural competence of planners and expanding the boundaries of planning for multiculturalism to include dimensions of diversity other than ethnicity and religion including sexual and gender minorities and Indigenous communities The advice of the contributors on how planners should integrate considerations of diversity in all its forms and guises into practice and theory will be valuable to scholars and practitioners at all levels of government

The Profession of City Planning Lloyd Rodwin, 2017-09-29 In thirty four provocative and insightful chapters the nation's leading planners present a definitive assessment of fifty years of city planning and establish a benchmark for the profession for the next fifty years The book appraises what planners do and how well they do it how and why their current activities differ from past practices and how much and in what ways planners have or have not enhanced the quality of urban life and contributed to the intellectual capital of the field How have the goals values and practices of planners changed What do planners say about their roles and the problems they confront What is the relevance of their skills from design capabilities and environmental savvy to intermediate and long term perspectives and the pragmatics of implementation The contributors seeking to answer these questions include Anthony Downs Nathan Glazer Philip B Herr Judith E Innes Terry S Szold Lawrence J Vale and Sam Bass Warner Jr The Profession of City Planning contrasts with the main changes in the US over the second half of the twentieth century in city planning Sector images of the practice and effects of planning on housing transportation and the environment as well as the development of economic tools are also discussed

Sustainable Intercultural Urbanism at the Service of the African City of Tomorrow Esoh Elamé, 2022-06-03 Most African cities are human settlements that lack the systems needed for effective land use planning In fact the disorganization that prevails has become so complex that the concept of urbanism itself has been called into question This book highlights the need to restore urban planning in African cities through sustainable development and interculturality Furthermore it addresses the balance of power between urban planning and sustainable development and explores the historical and postcolonial aspects of urban planning in African cities A case study focusing on the development of sustainable cities and neighborhoods in the M Zab Valley is also included as well as topics such as urban greening climatic threats and the problem of state agro industrial land transactions which compete with sustainable urban planning Sustainable Intercultural Urbanism at the Service of the African City of Tomorrow is a valuable reference for researchers and practitioners interested in urban issues in African cities These cities in particular sub Saharan cities have long been excluded from any discourse on sustainable cities and urban planning this book places the focus on these cities and acknowledges their varied urban realities The intention is to spark a new debate on sustainable urban planning in African cities based on intercultural sustainable urbanism which is key to thinking about and building ecological intercultural compact intelligent and postcolonial cities

Routledge Handbook of Peacebuilding Roger Mac Ginty,2013-02-15 This new Routledge Handbook offers a comprehensive state of the art overview of the meanings and uses of the term peacebuilding and presents cutting edge debates on the practices conducted in the name of peacebuilding The term peacebuilding has had remarkable staying power Other terms such as conflict resolution have waned in popularity while the acceptance and use of the term peacebuilding has grown to the extent that it is the hegemonic and over arching term for many forms of mediation reconciliation and strategies to induce peace Despite this however it is rarely defined and often used to mean different things to different audiences Routledge Handbook of Peacebuilding aims to be a one stop comprehensive resource on the literature and practices of contemporary peacebuilding The book is organised into six key sections Section 1 Reading peacebuilding Section 2 Approaches and cross cutting themes Section 3 Disciplinary approaches to peacebuilding Section 4 Violence and security Section 5 Everyday living and peacebuilding Section 6 The infrastructure of peacebuilding This new Handbook will be essential reading for students of peacebuilding mediation and post conflict reconstruction and of great interest to students of statebuilding intervention civil wars conflict resolution war and conflict studies and IR in general

The Intercultural City

Giovanna Marconi,Elena Ostanel,2016-03-31 The resulting cultural differences can often create problems and conflict In Europe alone the sheer scale of migration is forcing the issue to the top of the political agenda The Intercultural City brings together scholars from a range of disciplines including urban studies geography planning sociology political science and spatial design to explore both the failings of existing policies to manage diversity and to examine how one might begin to create ways to remove obstacles and enhance the integration of migrants and minorities Combining fresh theoretical insights with studies from cities in Europe North America Asia and Africa The Intercultural City offers a timely and important contribution to the challenge of managing diversity in the city of the twenty first century A Research Agenda for Sustainable Cities and Communities Kes McCormick,James Evans,Yuliya Voytenko Palgan,Niki Frantzeskaki,2023-08-14 Global in its outlook this Research Agenda systematically reviews and critiques existing research on sustainable cities calling for greater engagement with a diversity of perspectives It interrogates foundational assumptions in the field and offers reframed perspectives on sustainability Chapters also explore diverse approaches actors and domains locating emerging dynamics and new directions for practitioners Rebuilding Sustainable Communities in Iraq Adenrele Awotona,2009-05-27 The scene in Iraq is most troubling and further failure therein especially failure in sustainable reconstruction will compound the tragedy and bring grievous harm to too many in Iraq the United States the Middle East and the Western world Yet the current efforts at reconstruction cannot succeed as we seem to be making many of the same mistakes that were made post invasion Simply put a national occupying power cannot reconstruct a massive societal vacuum by working only top down Reconstruction is not the simple reversal of destruction Sustainability requires serious localized reconstitution of localized community infrastructure Accordingly in order to explore how Iraqi communities could be rebuilt in a manner that promotes social justice economic and political sustainability and the full participation of all stakeholders the Center for Rebuilding Sustainable Communities after Disasters at the University of Massachusetts at Boston USA hosted a four day international conference of Iraqi and international scholars and practitioners in July 2007 This volume collects some of the papers that were presented at the conference Amongst the topics that the contributing authors have explored are the following the role of organizations and institutions in defining strategies for sustainable rebuilding of community rebuilding the Iraqi Oil Industry and successful project strategies in Iraq s Kurdistan region The book concludes with a presentation of a number of international perspectives and their lessons for Iraq These studies spring from Afghanistan the United States of America and Africa Encountering the City Jonathan Darling,Helen F. Wilson,2016-07-15 Encountering the City provides a new and sustained engagement with the concept of encounter Drawing on cutting edge theoretical work classic writings on the city and rich empirical examples this volume demonstrates why encounters are significant to urban studies politically philosophically and analytically Bringing together a range of interests from urban multiculture systems of economic regulation security and suspicion to more than human geographies soundscapes and spiritual experience Encountering the

City argues for a more nuanced understanding of how the concept of encounter is used This interdisciplinary collection thus provides an insight into how scholars writing on and in the city mobilise theorise and challenge the concept of encounter through empirical cases taken from Africa Asia Australia Europe North America and South America These cases go beyond conventional accounts of urban conviviality to demonstrate how encounters destabilise rework and produce difference fold together complex temporalities materialise power and transform political relations In doing so the collection retains a critical eye on the forms of regulation containment and inequality that shape the taking place of urban encounter Encountering the City is a valuable resource for students and researchers alike Urban Research Monitor ,1998 Trespassers? Willow Lung-Amam,2017-05-16 Beyond the gilded gates of Google little has been written about the suburban communities of Silicon Valley Over the past several decades the region s booming tech economy spurred rapid population growth increased racial diversity and prompted an influx of immigration especially among highly skilled and educated migrants from China Taiwan and India At the same time the response to these newcomers among long time neighbors and city officials revealed complex attitudes in even the most well heeled and diverse communities Trespassers takes an intimate look at the everyday life and politics inside Silicon Valley against a backdrop of these dramatic demographic shifts At the broadest level it raises questions about the rights of diverse populations to their own piece of the suburban American Dream It follows one community over several decades as it transforms from a sleepy rural town to a global gateway and one of the nation s largest Asian American majority cities There it highlights the passionate efforts of Asian Americans to make Silicon Valley their home by investing in local schools neighborhoods and shopping centers It also provides a textured tale of the tensions that emerge over this suburb s changing environment With vivid storytelling Trespassers uncovers suburbia as an increasingly important place for immigrants and minorities to register their claims for equality and inclusion
