Urban Outcasts Urban Outcasts:

Urban Outcasts Loïc Wacquant, 2013-04-26 Breaking with the exoticizing cast of public discourse and conventional research Urban Outcasts takes the reader inside the black ghetto of Chicago and the deindustrializing banlieue of Paris to discover that urban marginality is not everywhere the same Drawing on a wealth of original field survey and historical data Loïc Wacquant shows that the involution of America's urban core after the 1960s is due not to the emergence of an underclass but to the joint withdrawal of market and state fostered by public policies of racial separation and urban abandonment In European cities by contrast the spread of districts of exclusion does not herald the formation of ghettos It stems from the decomposition of working class territories under the press of mass unemployment the casualization of work and the ethnic mixing of populations hitherto segregated spawning urban formations akin to anti ghettos Comparing the US Black Belt with the French Red Belt demonstrates that state structures and policies play a decisive role in the articulation of class race and place on both sides of the Atlantic It also reveals the crystallization of a new regime of marginality fuelled by the fragmentation of wage labour the retrenchment of the social state and the concentration of dispossessed categories in stigmatized areas bereft of a collective idiom of identity and claims making These defamed districts are not just the residual sinkholes of a bygone economic era but also the incubators of the precarious proletariat emerging under neoliberal capitalism Urban Outcasts sheds new light on the explosive mix of mounting misery stupendous affluence and festering street violence resurging in the big cities of the First World By specifying the different causal paths and experiential forms assumed by relegation in the American and the French metropolis this book offers indispensable tools for rethinking urban marginality and for reinvigorating the public debate over social inequality and citizenship at century's dawn Urban Outcasts Loïc J. D. Wacquant, 2008 Postcolonial Urban Outcasts Madhurima Chakraborty, Umme Al-wazedi, 2016-10-14 Extending current scholarship on South Asian Urban and Literary Studies this volume examines the role of the discontents of the South Asian city The collection investigates how South Asian literature and literature about South Asia attends to urban margins regardless of whether the definition of margin is spatial psychological gendered or sociopolitical That cities are a site of profound paradoxes is nowhere clearer than in South Asia where urban areas simultaneously represent both the frontiers of globalization as well as the deeply troubling social and political inequalities of the global south Additionally because South Asian cities are defined by the palimpsestic confluence of among other things colonial oppression anticolonial nationalism postcolonial governance and twenty first century transnational capital they are sites where the many faces of empowerment and disempowerment are elaborated The volume brings together essays that emphasize myriad critical approaches geospatial urban theoretical diasporic subaltern and others United in their critical empathy for urban outcasts the chapters respond to central questions such as What is the relationship between the politico economic narratives of globally emerging South Asian cities and the dispossessed How do South Asian cities stand in relationship to the nation and conversely how might South Asians in diaspora construct these cities within larger narratives of development globalization or as sources of authentic ethnic identities How is the very skeleton the space the territory of South Asian cities marked with and by exclusionary politics How do the aesthetic and formal choices undertaken by writers determine the potential for and limit to emancipation of urban outcasts from their oppressive circumstances Considering fiction nonfiction comics and genre fiction from India Pakistan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka literature from the twentieth and the twenty first century and works that are Anglophone and those that are in translation this book will be valuable to a range of disciplines Urban Outcasts. Towards a Sociology of Advanced Marginality, 2008 Urban Outcasts Loïc J. D. Wacquant, 1994 Urban Sociology Nels Anderson, Eduard Lindeman, 1928 Fay Gow's way of life typifies the people who inhabit the forest of masts Story shows him running his water taxi and follows him on an outing to Tiger Balm Garden Urbanization, Pentecostalism, and Urban Refugee Youth in Africa Marc Sommers, 2000 Gated Neighbourhoods and Privatisation of Urban Security in Ibadan Metropolis Oluseyi Fabiyi, 2004 One of the consequences of the failure of the state to protect life and property of its entire citizens especially in developing countries like Nigeria is the emergences of private alternatives to crime prevention and control This process of privatisation of security in Nigeria often involves recruitment of corporate and local security guards vigilantes night watchmen and the control of access into the neighbourhoods through gates and barriers The book examines the nature types procedures and administration of these private alternative to security in Ibadan metropolis It identifies renaissance of primary affiliation among diverse urban residents and the interplay of forces of exclusion and inclusion among residents of gates neighbourhoods in Ibadan metropolis It also evaluates the spatial pattern trends and dynamics of gating and the general concern for security in Ibadan metropolis Political Theory and Ideology in African Society, 1971
