Local economies and pandemics: Marius Venter,Chané de Bruyn,2023-12-14 The outbreak of the global COVID 19 pandemic has presented unprecedented challenges to both developed and less developed local economies The aim of the book is to uncover the best practises in responding to a pandemic from global perspectives as well as from a trans disciplinary point of view Scholars from various spheres in arts culture education health environment business and the public sector present their perspectives on the impacts responses and consequences for local economies and communities As a fundamental part of LED the arts culture education health environment business and the public sector domains were some of the hardest hit by the pandemic The pandemic has certainly exposed the weaknesses of current development policies and calls for new innovative measures in developing resilient local regions This book will form an essential part of the development series of CENLED as it offers insight into how a global pandemic COVID 19 impacted LED in the global North and Global South and the different responses from different spheres Scaffolding work-integrated learning excursions Adri Du Toit, Neal Petersen, Iman C. Chahine, 2025-02-28 In South Africa work integrated learning WIL excursions are crucial in preparing university students for the world of work As higher education institutions HEIs evolve to promote equity and inclusivity these excursions are continuously refined to enhance student learning outcomes This scholarly book explores how WIL excursions support self directed learning SDL and foster skills essential for the 21st century such as active learning intercultural sensitivity and epistemological access A key focus is on the 2023 WIL excursions at North West University NWU which align with South Africa's National Development Plan 2030 and the University Capacity Development Grant's UCDG goal of equipping graduates to address contemporary societal challenges The book examines first year excursions across three faculties Education Health Sciences and Law using both virtual and in person experiences to develop intercultural citizenship communication and a sense of belonging Through research based insights the chapters highlight how these excursions were designed and implemented to help students recognise personal biases deepen cultural awareness and take responsibility for their own learning Additionally the book underscores how students were encouraged to identify their learning needs and access resources that promote ongoing self directed growth By linking WIL to SDL the book provides novel perspectives on fostering inclusivity and preparing students for their academic journeys professional careers and contributions to a more socially just world Azibuye emasisweni Zethu Cakata, Nompumelelo Z. Radebe, Mogobe B. Ramose, 2023-06-28 African knowledge is yet to fully contribute to spaces of learning because of the disciplinary boundaries founded on Western separatist logic From an African epistemology knowledge is interconnected because of the cosmological understanding that the universe is one entity Bringing African knowledge into the academy requires a concerted effort to bring it of its own accord There have been commendable efforts by scholars in South Africa to bring African knowledge to higher education in ways that do not alter or re shape this knowledge to suit the dominant Euro American script This book aims to showcase such efforts This book makes interconnections of themes across disciplines The content produced in this book will ensure that literature will anchor the noble efforts to build African universities that deliberately centre African ways of knowing This book will be among the few publications that focus on Africanisation and decolonisation of knowledges as praxis We anticipate that this book will be recommended in various disciplines of social sciences in South African universities The Great Gatsby meets Alain Badiou Ursula Vooght, 2023-12-21 The subject of this book is a consideration of the usefulness of the concept of fidelity put forward by the philosopher Alain Badiou in the discussion of film adaptation Fidelity or faithfulness is primarily a consideration that emerges in relation to so called canonical texts in adaptation Fitzgerald's The Great Gatsby occupies a position of global recognisability and within the United States cultural mythology that has triggered strong reactions to the four Hollywood adaptations The various adaptations allow for the differing approaches to the adaptation of this novel to be meaningfully explored The film adaptations paratextual elements will be discussed in order to show how these acted as limiting lenses The strategies of the films for handling elements of Fitzgerald's prose and themes will be compared across the adaptations This will culminate in an assertion of the worth of a larger application of a Badiouian fidelity within the field
