Architectural Drawings as Investigating Devices Marianna Charitonidou, 2023-07-10 Architectural Drawings as Investigating Devices explores how the changing modes of representation in architecture and urbanism relate to the transformation of how the addressees of architecture and urbanism are conceived The book diagnoses the dominant epistemological debates in architecture and urbanism during the 20th and 21st centuries It traces their transformations paying special attention to Le Corbusier and Ludwig Mies van der Rohe's preference for perspective representation to the diagrams of Team 10 architects to the critiques of functionalism and the upgrade of the artefactual value of architectural drawings in Aldo Rossi John Hejduk Peter Eisenman and Oswald Mathias Ungers and finally to the reinvention of architectural programme through the event in Bernard Tschumi and the Office for Metropolitan Architecture OMA Particular emphasis is placed on the spirit of truth and clarity in modernist architecture the relationship between the individual and the community in post war era architecture the decodification of design process as syntactic analogy and the paradigm of autonomy in the 1970s and 1980s architecture the concern about the dynamic character of urban conditions and the potentialities hidden in architectural programme in the post autonomy era This book is based on extensive archival research in Canada the USA and Europe and will be of interest to architects artists researchers and students in architecture architectural history theory cultural theory philosophy and aesthetics

Metaphorical Practices in Architecture Sarah Borree, Stephanie Knuth, Moritz Röger, 2023-06-23 Metaphors are diversely and intricately embedded in architectural practice and discourse Precisely for this reason this volume argues and sets out to explore how they can be engaged to critically interrogate architecture's social cultural and political dimensions past and present and to productively challenge and intervene with established perspectives debates and practices Mapping out not just potentials but also addressing the challenges limitations and dangers inherent in using metaphors in architectural research and practice the volume prominently illustrates the ambiguity and contradictoriness inherent in both metaphors and the process of engaging and exploiting them Covering a broad range of historical and geographical cases and concerns the contributions illustrate effectively that metaphors can expand or narrow our engagement with architecture and consolidate or legitimise but also destabilise and challenge established social cultural disciplinary and political structures concepts and categories With its aim to explore metaphors as both subject and method to critically challenge and expand established practices perspectives and standards in architectural research and practice the volume will be of interest for scholars working across the architectural humanities including architectural history theory culture design and urbanism as well as for researchers concerned with architecture and the city from fields such as cultural visual and area studies as well as art history
