Library Programs Online Thomas A. Peters, 2009-10-27 Meet your library patrons where they increasingly live and work online This guide introduces you to the exciting possibilities online programs offer and shows you how to set up online programs in your library whether one time stand alone or half day full day or multi day workshops and conferences Public programs from lectures demonstrations and interviews to book discussions and story hours can be delivered in real time live primarily over the web utilizing a variety of interactive communication tools including voice over IP text chatting and co browsing Furthermore online programming can be used for district wide staff training The author explains how to integrate pre recorded components of a program into a live online public program shows how to extend the reach and appeal of online public programs with podcasting and audiorecordings and explains how to use voice over IP and video over IP to enhance online programs In addition to outlining the costs of starting and operating a public online program Peters also provides cost recovery methods and scenarios Online public programs can extend your library s reach into the service population grab the attention of some early adopters and opinion leaders in the community you serve and convey to patrons and other libraries that your library is moving boldly into the digital future Plus many people are more likely to attend an online library program than an in library public program And because online programs are easily recorded and redistributed on demand your library gets more bang for each buck it invests in its public programming outreach Distance education programs in higher education corporate and governmental training efforts and other sectors of society have become commonplace but this is the first guide to focus on how libraries public academic school and special and library related organizations associations consortia etc can and are developing exciting online programs for library users and librarians The Web Conferencing Book Sue Spielman, Liz Winfeld, 2003 Annotation Live Online Learning Sarah Cornelius, Carole A. Gordon, Jan Schyma, 2014-05-07 Equips new and experienced educators with the skills required to succeed in live online learning Based on years of experience and research the authors offer best practice guidelines and practical resources A life saver for anyone wishing to develop creative innovative teaching methods to provide great online experiences for their learners The Effectiveness of Web Conferencing Technology in Student-Teacher Conferencing in the Writing Classroom: A Study of First-Year Student Writers, 2004 In the past few years composition theorists have become increasingly interested in the role of computers in the first year writing classroom This explorative case study investigates the use of Web conferencing software as a medium for student teacher writing conferences Using qualitative methodology this researcher conducted out of class Web conferences with three first year writing students about their performance on the first major writing project of the spring 2006 semester The researcher was also the students English 101 instructor Following the Web conferences the researcher used in depth interviewing techniques to discuss the students experiences Data from the recorded Web conferences and transcripts of the post conference interviews were analyzed to determine answers to the following two research questions What benefits and challenges do students and teachers find with online Web conferencing and how do these benefits and challenges affect the cyber replication of a face to face conference The results of this study indicate that it is possible to replicate a face to face student teacher conference through Web conferencing technologies Some of the benefits of Web conferencing include but are not limited to the constant availability for students and instructors to have conferences outside of the traditional business hours that most university buildings are available and the ability to have an oral discussion in place of a text based discussion where it is often difficult for instructors to encapsulate their overall response Additionally this study investigates some of the challenges to Web conferencing such as the lack of a physical presence of the two participants and the inability to conduct global writing revisions due to the lack of screen space available on the computer monitor Finally this study has important implications for conferencing in the first year writing classroom and opens the door for future Web conferencing studies to
