The Violence Of Representation Routledge Revivals Literature And The History Of Violence:

The Violence of Representation (Routledge Revivals) Nancy Armstrong, Leonard Tennenhouse, 2014-06-17 First published in 1989 this collection of essays brings into focus the history of a specific form of violence that of representation The contributors identify representations of self and other that empower a particular class gender nation or race constructing a history of the west as the history of changing modes of subjugation The essays bring together a wide range of literary and historical work to show how writing became an increasingly important mode of domination during the modern period as ruling ideas became a form of violence in their own right This reissue will be of particular value to literature students with an interest in the concept of violence and the boundaries and capacity of discourse

Darfur Allegory Rogaia Mustafa Abusharaf, 2021-03-15 The Darfur conflict exploded in early 2003 when two rebel groups the Sudan Liberation Movement and the Justice and Equality Movement struck national military installations in Darfur to send a hard hitting message of resentment over the region's political and economic marginalization The conflict devastated the region's economy shredded its fragile social fabric and drove millions of people from their homes Darfur Allegory is a dispatch from the humanitarian crisis that explains the historical and ethnographic background to competing narratives that have informed international responses At the heart of the book is Sudanese anthropologist Rogaia Abusharaf's critique of the pseudoscientific notions of race and ethnicity that posit divisions between Arab northerners and African Darfuris Elaborated in colonial times and enshrined in policy afterwards such binary categories have been adopted by the media to explain the civil war in Darfur The narratives that circulate internationally are thus highly fraught and cover over to counterproductive effect forms of Darfurian activism that have emerged in the conflict's wake Darfur Allegory marries the analytical precision of a committed anthropologist with an insider's view of Sudanese politics at home and in the diaspora laying bare the power of words to heal or perpetuate civil conflict

Equality for Women = Prosperity for All Augusto Lopez-Claros, Bahiyyih Nakhjavani, 2018-10-30 A groundbreaking book about the direct relationship between a woman's rights and freedoms and the economic prosperity of her country The authors speak to hearts as well as minds Maud de Boer Buquicchio UN Special Rapporteur Not only timely but profoundly important a must read Jackie Jones Professor of Feminist Legal studies Gender discrimination is often seen from a human rights perspective it is a violation of women's basic human rights as embedded in the Universal Declaration the UN Charter and other such founding documents Moreover there is overwhelming evidence that restrictions and various forms of discrimination against women are also bad economics They undermine the talent pool available to the private sector they distort power relationships within the family and lead to inefficiencies in the use of resources They contribute to create an environment in which women de facto are second class citizens with fewer options than men lower quality jobs lower pay often the victims of various forms of violence literally from the cradle to the grave

They are also not fully politically empowered and have scant presence in the corridors of power whether as finance ministers central bank governors prime ministers or on the boards of leading corporations Why is gender inequality so pervasive Where does it come from Does it have cultural and religious roots And what are the sorts of policies and values that will deliver a world in which being born a boy or a girl is no longer a measure of the likelihood of developing one's human potential

The Celtic Revival in Shakespeare's Wake A. Putz, 2013-05-14 This book reconsiders the Celtic Revival by examining appropriations of Shakespeare using close readings of works by Arnold Dowden Yeats and Joyce to reveal the pernicious manner in which the discourse of Anglo Irish cultural politics informed the critical paradigms that mediated the reading of Shakespeare in Ireland for a generation

Conflict and Social Order in Tibet and Inner Asia Fernanda Pirie, Toni Huber, 2008-07-31 Revolution and social dislocation under the communist regimes of China and the Soviet Union followed by the upheavals of reform and modernisation have been experienced by Tibetan Mongolian and Siberian people forcibly integrated into these nation states as conflict violence and social disruption This volume bringing together case studies from throughout the region assesses the experiences and legacies of such events Highlighting the agency of those who shape and manipulate conflict and social order and their historical cultural and religious resources the contributors discuss evidence of social continuity as well as the recreation of social order Engaging with anthropological debates on conflict and social order this volume provides an original comparative perspective on both Tibet and Inner Asia

With the Face of the Enemy Katharina Motyl, 2024-11-20 With the Face of the Enemy focuses on the writings of Arab American authors between 2001 and 2011 Positioned as Arab Americans in the post 9

11 U S this underexamined group of writers projects unique insights into both the Western and Arab worlds Using the lens of postcolonial literary theory Katharina Motyl explores how the War on Terror turned Arab Americans into enemies within their own country Countering the master narrative of a clash of civilizations between the Islamic world and the West the fictional and poetic texts discussed in this book alternate between deconstructing neo Orientalist stereotypes and critiquing U S neocolonialism in the Greater Middle East on the one hand and critically examining Arab culture for instance its patriarchal outlook on the other Motyl pays special attention to texts written by Arab American women who have radically advocated for self determination in areas like sexuality and mode of dress thus rejecting the stereotype of Arab women as oppressed victims With the Face of the Enemy takes a serious look at how the aesthetics of Arab American literature negotiates the many psychosocial consequences the domestic War on Terror and the U S wars in Iraq and Afghanistan have had on the Arab American community

Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2003 Play Among Books Miro Roman,Alice_ch3n81,2021-12-06 How does coding change the way we think about architecture This question opens up an important research perspective In this book Miro Roman and his AI Alice_ch3n81 develop a playful scenario in which they propose coding as the new literacy of information They convey knowledge in the form of a project model that links the fields of architecture and information through two interwoven narrative strands in an infinite flow of real books Focusing on the intersection of information technology and architectural formulation the authors create an evolving intellectual reflection on digital architecture and computer science
