house the dominant culture Yet as the essays in Reconstructing Architecture demonstrate there exists a strong tradition of critical practice in the field one that attempts to alter existing social power relations Engaging the gap between modernism and postmodernism each chapter addresses an oppositional discourse that has developed within the field and then reconstructs it in terms of a new social project feminism social theory environmentalism cultural studies race and ethnic studies and critical theory The activists and scholars writing here provide a clarion call to architects and other producers of culture challenging them to renegotiate their political allegiances and to help reconstruct a viable democratic life in the face of inexorable forces driving economic growth destroying global ecology homogenizing culture and privatizing the public realm Reconstructing Architecture reformulates the role of architecture in society as well as its capacity to further a progressive social transformation Contributors Sherry Ahrentzen U of Wisconsin Milwaukee Bradford C Grant California Polytechnic State U San Luis Obispo Richard Ingersoll Rice U Margaret Soltan George Washington U Anthony Ward U of Auckland New Zealand Thomas A Dutton is an architect and professor of architecture at Miami University Ohio He is editor of Voices in Architectural Education 1991 and is associate editor of the Journal of Architectural Education Lian Hurst Mann is an architect and editor of Architecture California A founding member of the Labor Community Strategy Center in Los Angeles she is editor of its bilingual quarterly Ahora Now and a coauthor of Reconstructing Los Angeles from the Bottom Up 1993
