The Confidence Effect Grace Killelea, 2016-01-06 In the twenty first century workplace women are encouraged to step up lean in take charge go for it yet how much has actually changed regarding the makeup of leadership when it comes to adding women's voices. While it's easy to still blame a corporate culture that favors men, seasoned executive Grace Killelea identifies another culprit: a surprising disparity in confidence with men typically prone to overestimate their abilities and women too often selling themselves short. For real change to take place within the workforce when it comes to adding more women's voices within leadership, we must get beyond knowing that we simply have the ability as women to speak out, take risks, and fill leadership positions; we must become more confident that we can do those things with excellence. The Confidence Effect moves beyond research statistics and cheerleading and focuses on what's really important: how women can become more confident, one step at a time. While developing the four Rs of Success—relationships, reputation, results, and resilience—women will learn how best to build circles of influence, seize opportunities they normally avoid, leverage and promote their skills, cultivate executive presence, bounce back from setbacks, and more. You've been encouraged to get in the game your entire life, yet you remain on the sidelines. Why? Become more confident in who you are and what you can do, and claim the success you deserve. Women Change the World Michelle Patterson, 2014-06-10

Women Change the World is a collection of world-changing women from actresses, recording artists, and writers to businesswomen and other high-profile female professionals on women's unique contributions to society. Women Change the World will be released in conjunction with the California Women's Conference, which offers its attendees inspiration, resources, and connections to take the next steps in their businesses, personal development, or philanthropic endeavors. 2012's conference speakers included Marcia Cross, Donna Karen, Gloria Allred, and many others. Women Change the World aims not only to show how women can be the heart of success but also to inspire other women to go out and change the world themselves. Creating and Maintaining a Home in Science Education Research Mary M. Atwater, Brittany A. Garvin, 2025-10-23

This first volume presents narratives from science education researchers of African ancestry reflecting on the significance of a professional home. Through personal and scholarly perspectives, Black researchers share experiences of seeking, establishing, or finding belonging in science education across diverse settings. Authors from various institutions offer insights into traditionally White universities and a distinct home in Africa. By showcasing counter-narratives and strategies, this book supports the next generation of science education researchers and teacher educators. Drawing from interdisciplinary traditions—historical, philosophical, psychological, and sociological—it provides a nuanced understanding of research identity and community within the field. Summary of Sophia Nelson's The Woman Code Everest Media, 2022-05-23T22:59:00Z Please note: This is a companion version, not the original book. Sample Book Insights: 1. You must define yourself for yourself. You must love and like you, or no one else will. You must know your value and claim what you deserve. Women are taught almost from birth that they are to be nurturers, supporters, and peacekeepers, but not winners. 2. Your life Code is formed from the time you are a small girl It is shaped by the influence of your parents and your nuclear family And after the family it is shaped by your community by the friendships you form and by the faith or spiritual value system or lack thereof your parents impart to you 3 The most important factor that determines your happiness success and joy in life is how well you value yourself You must be defined first and foremost by your Creator and yourself If you let others define you and tell you your value your journey in life will be difficult and unfulfilling 4 The author spoke with Janet who is a successful civil engineer and Donna who is an oncologist Donna s parents were both physicians and her sister and brother both became physicians Donna s friends adore her and she is always the life of the party Meanwhile Janet grew up hearing that she was not valued and that she would never be enough
