The Value Of Life The Value Of Life:

Meaning in Life Irving Singer,1992 The nearest thing to a rational discernment of meaning in life Irvin Singer suggests is the discernment of goals and values that we can find gratification and fulfillment in pursuing He offers wise counsel to that end along with rewarding glimpses into a wide range of literature Assigning Values to Life , The Meaning and Value of Life Rudolf Eucken,1913 The Meaning and Value of Life Rudolf Eucken,1913 The Value of Human Dignity. A Socio-cultural Approach to Value Crisis among Igbo People of Nigeria Chinedu Paul Ezenwa,2020-11-10 Where today is a specific original and stable basis for a Political order to be found What does the human dignity mean in the midst of the general crises of values In the face of the ambivalent achievements of modernity and enlightenment do the values of Christianity which until now have been regarded as the objective norm fail in its contact with the primal culture and the culture of the African communities Where in this classes are the weakening and strengthening and specific challenges of this African People This field of conflict must not only be described but above all to ask about new opportunities to get out of the crisis of the value of human dignity in the Igbo society of Southeastern Nigeria Ezenwas work seeks and aids understanding using the facility of examining the subject of dignity in Igbo culture to throw light that casts much farther than the subject matter begging for further inquiry into other complementary aspects of the culture In other to achieve this interdisciplinary research was needed Values of Love and Ethical Reflection Edmund Husserl,2024-12-20 This first volume of Husserlian Legacies Themes for the 21st Century focuses on hitherto underexamined dimensions of Husserl s philosophical thinking and in particular values and love Texts in this series draw from the variety of Husserl s rich original works they are selected and arranged with the support of the Husserl Archives Leuven The texts are made available in English and are primarily targeted to advanced undergraduates graduate students and scholars This volume helps the reader both to investigate the themes of value and love and to gauge their role in Husserl s reflections on related topics his analysis of philosophy the sciences as vocational tasks the emotions and the community of love as well as his personalistic reformulation of the categorical imperative The texts gathered edited and translated in this volume have far reaching implications ranging from axiology and individual and social ethics to the philosophy of emotions action theory and the philosophy of science Biotechnology and the Integrity of Life Mr Michael Hauskeller,2012-10-01 There are things that can be done and are done to life on earth whether it be human animal or plant life which even if they do not involve or produce any suffering are still considered morally wrong by a large proportion of the public Such things include changing the nature of living beings by means of genetic engineering in order to enhance their health or more likely with animals and plants their utility or impairing their ability to live autonomously or unduly instrumentalizing them Yet many scientists are puzzled about the unwillingness of the public to feel much enthusiasm about a technology that in their view promises great benefits to humans and does not seem to cause more harm to animals than other practices which most of us do not question at all In this book Michael

Hauskeller takes public fears seriously and offers the idea of biological integrity as a clarifying principle which can then be analyzed to show that seemingly irrational public concerns about genetic engineering are not so irrational after all and that a philosophically sound justification of those concerns can indeed be given

MEANING AND VALUE OF LIFE RUDOLF. EUCKEN, 2018

The Value and Meaning of Life Christopher Belshaw, 2020-10-28

In this book Christopher Belshaw draws on earlier work concerning death identity animals immortality and extinction and builds a large scale argument dealing with questions of both value and meaning Rejecting suggestions that life is sacred or intrinsically valuable he argues instead that its value varies and varies considerably both within and between different kinds of things So in some cases we might have reason to improve or save a life while in others that reason will be lacking What about starting lives The book's central section takes this as its focus and asks whether we ever have reason to start lives just for the sake of the one whose life it is Not only is it denied that there is any such reason but some sympathy is afforded to the anti natalist contention that there is always reason against The final chapters deal with meaning There is support here for the sober and familiar view that meaning derives from an enthusiasm for and some success with the pursuit of worthwhile projects Now suppose we are immortal Or suppose in contrast that we face imminent extinction Would either of these threaten meaning The claim is made that the force of such threats is often exaggerated

The Value and Meaning of Life is essential reading for students and researchers in philosophy ethics and religion and will be of interest to all those concerned with how to live and how to think about the lives of others

What is Life? Josef Seifert, 1997

This book makes four bold claims

- 1 life is an ultimate datum open to philosophical analysis and irreducible to physical reality hence all materialist reductionist explanations most current theories of life are false
- 2 All life presupposes soul entelechy without which a being would at best fake life
- 3 The concept of life is analogous and the most direct access to life in its irreducibility is gained through consciousness
- 4 All life possesses an objective and intrinsic value that needs to be respected human life possesses beyond this an inviolable dignity

Life and personal life are pure perfections it being absolutely better to possess personal life than not to possess it

Chapter 1 the metaphysical essence and the many meanings of life as well as its transcendental character

Chapter 2 the irreducibility of biological life its amazing empirical and philosophically intelligible essential features and the ways of knowing them Chapter 3 the immediate evidence and indubitable givenness of mental conscious life as well as questions of brain death and immortality Chapter 4 the inviolable objective dignity of personal life and its self transcendence a new theory of the fourfold source of human dignity and rights Chapter 5 in dialogue form methods and results of philosophy versus those of empirical life sciences The Psychology of Christian Life and Behaviour William Straton Bruce, 1923
