Sporting Cultures, 1650–1850 Daniel O'Quinn, Alexis Tadié, 2018-01-01 Sporting Cultures 1650 1850 is a collection of essays that charts important developments in the study of sport in the eighteenth century The Body in Early Modern Italy Julia L. Hairston, Walter Stephens, 2010-04 Human bodies have been represented and defined in various ways across different cultures and historical periods As an object of interpretation and site of social interaction the body has throughout history attracted more attention than perhaps any other element of human experience The essays in this volume explore the manifestations of the body in Italian society from the fourteenth through the seventeenth centuries Adopting a variety of interdisciplinary approaches these fresh and thought provoking essays offer original perspectives on corporeality as understood in the early modern literature art architecture science and politics of Italy An impressively diverse group of contributors comment on a broad range and variety of conceptualizations of the body creating a rich dialogue among scholars of early modern Italy Contributors Albert R Ascoli University of California Berkeley Douglas Biow The University of Texas at Austin Margaret Brose University of California Santa Cruz Anthony Colantuono University of Maryland College Park Elizabeth Horodowich New Mexico State University Sergius Koderá New Design University St P lten Austria Jeanette Kohl University of California Riverside D Medina Lasansky Cornell University Luca Marcozzi Roma Tre University Ronald L Martinez Brown University Katharine Park Harvard University Sandra Schmidt Free University of Berlin Bette Talvacchia University of Connecticut Edmond de Goncourt and the Novel Katherine Ashley, 2021-11-22 Edmond de Goncourt's four solo novels are not simply extensions of the Goncourt brothers joint project but attempts to deviate from the Naturalism with which their name had come to be associated By analysing paratexts the relationship between documentation and fiction as well as plot devices and themes this study links the evolution of Goncourt's fiction to wider literary debates surrounding Naturalism Decadence and the renewal of the novel in fin de siècle France In bringing Goncourt's writings to an English speaking public it will be of interest to students and scholars of the literary history of late nineteenth century France The Caxton Head Catalogue James Tregaskis (Firm), 1914 A Cultural History of Sport in the Renaissance Alessandro Arcangeli, 2022-08-31 A Cultural History of Sport in the Renaissance covers the period 1450 to 1650 Outwardly Renaissance sports resembled their medieval forebears but the incorporation of athletics into the educational curriculum signalled a change As part of the scientific revolution sport now became the object of intellectual analysis Numerous books were written on the medical benefits of sport and on the best way to joust fence train horses and ride play ball games swim practice archery wrestle or become an acrobat Sport became the visible sign of the mind's control over the physical body such control often becoming an end in itself with some sports shaped more by decorum than exercise The 6 volume set of the Cultural History of Sport presents the first comprehensive history from classical antiquity to today covering all forms and aspects of sport and its ever changing social cultural political and economic context and impact The themes covered in each volume are
