The Writings Of St Augustine Against The Donatists:

The Writings of St. Augustine Against the Donatists Augustine of Hippo, 2014-05-16 The Donatist schism in Africa began in 311 and flourished just one hundred years until the conference at Carthage in 411 after which its importance waned St Augustine began his victorious campaign against Donatism soon after he was ordained priest in 391 His popular psalm or Abecedarium against the Donatists was intended to make known to the people the arguments set forth by St Optatus with the same conciliatory end in view It shows that the sect was founded by traditors condemned by pope and council separated from the whole world a cause of division violence and bloodshed the true Church is the one Vine whose branches are over all the earth After St Augustine had become bishop in 395 he obtained conferences with some of the Donatist leaders though not with his rival at Hippo In 400 he wrote three books against the letter of Parmenianus refuting his calumnies and his arguments from Scripture More important were his seven books on baptism in which after developing the principle already laid down by St Optatus that the effect of the sacrament is independent of the holiness of the minister he shows in great detail that the authority of St Cyprian is more awkward than convenient for the Donatists The principal Donatist controversialist of the day was Petilianus Bishop of Constantine a successor of the traditor Silvanus St Augustine wrote two books in reply to a letter of his against the Church adding a third book to answer another letter in which he was himself attacked by Petilianus Before this last book he published his De Unitate ecclesiae about 403 To these works must be added some sermons and some letters which are real treatises

The Writings Against The Manichaeans And The Donatists St. Augustine of Hippo, This volume gives a fair sample of Augustin s controversial powers His nine years personal experience of the vanity of Manich ism made him thoroughly earnest and sympathetic in his efforts to disentangle other men from its snares and also equipped him with the knowledge requisite for this task No doubt the Pelagian controversy was more congenial to his mind His logical acuteness and knowledge of Scripture availed him more in combating men who fought with the same weapons than in dealing with a system which threw around its positions the mist of Gnostic speculation or veiled its doctrine under a grotesque mythology or based itself on a cosmogony too fantastic for a Western mind to tolerate 25 But however Augustin may have misconceived the strange forms in which this system was presented there is no doubt that he comprehended and demolished its fundamental principles 26 that he did so as a necessary part of his own personal search for the truth and that in doing so he gained possession vitally and permanently of ideas and principles which subsequently entered into all he thought and wrote In finding his way through the mazes of the obscure region into which Mani had led him he once for all ascertained the true relation subsisting between God and His creatures formed his opinion regarding the respective provinces of reason and faith and the connection of the Old and New Testaments and found the root of all evil in the created will

Nicene and Post-Nicene Fathers: First Series, Volume IV St. Augustine: The Writings Against the Manichaeans, and Against the Donatists Philip Schaff, 2007-05-01 The Council of Nicaea in 325 AD marked the beginning of a new era in Christianity For the first time doctrines were organized into a single creed The Nicene and Post Nicene Fathers did most of their writing during and after this important event in Church history Unlike the previous era of Christian writing the Nicene and Post Nicene era is dominated by a few very important and prolific writers In Volume IV of the 14 volume collected writings of the Nicenes and Post Nicenes first published between 1886 and 1889 readers will find Augustines writings defending the Catholic church against the Manichaeans and the Donatists Manichaeism was a religion developed in Persia by the prophet Mani According to this religion creation has two parts darkness and light Light is God and has ten attributes Opposing this and coeternal with it is darkness and its five attributes Saint Augustine was originally a Manichaean so his defense of Christianity against this religion comes from a deep understanding of its nature Donatists were a group of believers who refused to forgive those who had renounced their faith during a time of persecution which caused a schism in Christianity In opposing these men Augustine attempted to mend the rift Those with an interest in ancient religions will find Augustines writings on Manichaeism one of the most important historical records of that religions practices A
