THEOLOGY after POSTMODERNITY

Divining the Void—A Lacanian Reading of Thomas Aquinas

Tina Beattie

Theology After Postmodernity Divining Void

Thomas G. Guarino

Theology After Postmodernity Divining Void:

Theology After Postmodernity Tina Beattie, 2013-10-03 Engaging the theology of Thomas Aquinas with the psychoanalytic theory of Jacques Lacan Tina Beattie shows how Thomism exerted a formative influence on Lacan and how a Lacanian approach can bring new insights to Thomas's theology Lacan makes possible a renewed Thomism which offers a rich theology of creation incarnation and redemption

A Theology of Failure Marika Rose, 2019-05-07 Everyone agrees that theology has failed but the question of how to understand and respond to this failure is complex and contested Against both the radical orthodox attempt to return to a time before the theology's failure and the deconstructive theological attempt to open theology up to the hope of a future beyond failure Rose proposes an account of Christian identity as constituted by not despite failure Understanding failure as central to theology opens up new possibilities for confronting Christianity's violent and kyriarchal history and abandoning the attempt to discover a pure Christ outside of the grotesque materiality of the church The Christian mystical tradition begins with Dionysius the Areopagite's uncomfortable but productive conjunction of Christian theology and Neoplatonism The tensions generated by this are central to Dionysius's legacy visible not only in subsequent theological thought but also in much twentieth century continental philosophy as it seeks to disentangle itself from its Christian ancestry A Theology of Failure shows how the work of Slavoj Žižek represents an attempt to repeat the original move of Christian mystical theology bringing together the themes of language desire and transcendence not with Neoplatonism but with a materialist account of the world Tracing these themes through the work of Dionysius and Derrida and through contemporary debates about the gift violence and revolution this book offers a critical theological engagement with Žižek's account of social and political transformation showing how Žižek's work makes possible a materialist reading of apophatic theology and Christian identity

Exploring Lost Dimensions in Christian Mysticism Louise Nelstrop, Simon D. Podmore, 2016-04-15 Mystical theology has developed through a range of meanings from the hidden dimensions of divine significance in the community's interpretation of its scriptures to the much later science of the soul's ascent into communion with God The thinkers and questions addressed in this book draws us into the heart of a complicated beautiful and often tantalisingly unfinished conversation continuing over centuries and often brushing allusively into parallel concerns in other religions Raising fundamental matters of epistemology representation metaphysics and divine reality contributors approach the mystical from postmodern feminist sociological and historical perspectives through thinkers such as Meister Eckhart Thomas Aquinas Catherine of Siena Ignatius of Loyola William James Evelyn Underhill Ernst Troeltsch Rudolf Otto Jacques Derrida Jean Luc Marion and Jean Louis Chrétien Medieval and early modern radical prophetic approaches are also explored This book includes new essays by Sarah Apetrei Tina Beattie Raphael Cadenhead Oliver Davies Philip Endean Brian FitzGerald Ann Loades George Pattison Simon D Podmore Joel D S Rasmussen and Johannes Zachhuber

Theologies of Retrieval Darren Sarisky, 2017-11-30 One of the most significant trends in academic theology today which emerges within Protestant

Roman Catholic and Orthodox points of view is the growing interest in theologies of retrieval. This mode of thinking puts a special stress upon subjecting classic theological texts to a close reading with a view toward using the resources that they provide to understand and address contemporary theological issues. This volume offers an understanding of what theologies of retrieval are, what their rationale is, and what their strengths and weaknesses are. The contributions provided by a distinguished team of theologians answer the important questions that existing work has raised, expand on suggestions that have not yet been fully developed, summarize ideas to highlight themes that are relevant to the topics of this volume, and air new critiques that will spur further debate.

Hall of Theological Courage | 1 Eureka Circe, 2025-09-30

Anyone who is religious or beginning to explore theology will find this multi-volume work a concise introduction to more than 100 pioneers in Theological Thought. What moves the conscience of theology? Who are the courageous voices that are reshaping our thinking about God, justice, and society? This book opens a spacious house with over 100 doors, each one leading into the life and work of a theological figure who not only thought about their faith but lived it, challenged it, expanded it, and carried it out into the world. The collected portraits combine theological depth with biographical intimacy. They show how faith changes, how thinking opens up, and how a transdisciplinary theology interwoven with philosophy, psychology, social psychology, sociology, and cultural studies paves new paths into the present paths of justice, solidarity, diversity, and spiritual sincerity. This is not a lexicon but a living space for thought. Not an encyclopedia but a land of exploration. A book that provides inspiration for all those who want to rediscover theology with an open heart and an inquiring mind, beyond familiar pulpit words and beyond narrow church boundaries, denominations, or disciplines. Created with excellent artificial intelligence, this work is a new chapter in theological education, insightful, accessible, inspiring. A book for all who believe that theology needs conscience, and that conscience needs thought.

Church and State Sen McGlinn, 2005. This is a political theology for the Baha'i Faith, but it is also a philosophy for living in our globalized post-modern society. The author investigates the Baha'i teachings concerning the separation of Church and State. Government, religion, commerce, art, education, and science are increasingly independent, have different social functions, relate differently to one another, and have different meanings for us today. This functional differentiation also drives the pluralism, relativism, and global scope of our post-modern society. In a society such as ours, in which religious ritual is the mirror of individual distinctiveness, not of collective identity, in which permanent pluralism means that no one religion can provide common norms and values, and in which the values of one sphere of life are not transferred to other spheres.

religion must find a new role in society The twentieth century has taught us that economic affairs cannot be governed by political ideologies that science must be free of doctrine that the dignity and autonomy of the individual must be respected and that church and state must be separated This is an exhaustive review of Baha i literature on the subject but the book also inquires into the scriptures of both Christianity and Islam to find that the separations of state from religion is a universal ideal Publisher s website

Postmodernity's Transcending Laurence Paul Hemming, 2005 Postmodernity s Transcending Devaluing God in one way undertakes a history of the concept of the aesthetic sublime in another it is an exploration of the limits of theological thinking where theology is understood either as a practice arising from faith or from thinking By examining concepts like soul experience analogy and truth the author issues a provocative challenge to much contemporary Christian theology to return to a more serious engagement with philosophy Hemming explores the confrontation with God and the gods to be found in Protagoras Plato Aristotle Aquinas Hegel Nietzsche Heidegger and Derrida often offering innovative readings of these thinkers sharply at odds with accounts to be found elsewhere Vattimo and Theology Thomas G. Guarino, 2009-09-01 Gianni Vattimo who has long been a prominent postmodern European philosopher has recently taken a more significant interest in religion His claim is that postmodern philosophy with its incisive critique of rationalist objectifying ways of thinking can help religion once again find a voice in a largely disinterested Europe and an often fundamentalist America To accomplish this Vattimo contends religion must attend to certain contemporary philosophical themes that he argues are ultimately consistent with biblical intentions To this end Vattimo employs his theoretical insights on themes such as the nature of modernity postmodernity the important of weak as opposed to strong thought the dissolution of metaphysics and the end of the authoritarian moralistic God

After the Death of God John D. Caputo, Gianni Vattimo, 2007 In these original essays and interviews leading hermeneutical philosophers and postmodern theorists John D. Caputo and Gianni Vattimo engage with each other s past and present work on the subject and reflect on our modern transition from secularism to post secularism Transcendence and Beyond John D. Caputo, Michael J. Scanlon, 2007 A benchmark volume at the intersection of philosophy and religion

The Mystery and the World Maria Clara Bingemer, 2016-05-10 During the past century an enormous effervescence of events changed the sociopolitical configuration of the world The interpretation of these facts helped further deepen the crisis in which modern thought already found itself and it generated the uncertain and unstable environment in which we live today the so called postmodernity late modernity or hypermodernity In this context one of the most profound impacts is most certainly the one on religion During the twentieth century religion proved not to be banished from the human horizon as the masters of suspicion intended Known as the godless century the twentieth century saw also a resuscitation of the search for the sense of life and spirituality With the crisis of modern reason humankind turned toward consumerism and provisional and light practices The last century represents not only the height of the postmodernization process but also the rescue of the transcendent and absolute even if it is an absolute without face and identity It is in this scenario that religious experiences apparently exiled by modern rationality begin to occur and multiply again Mystical experiences will be then the basis for highlighting recurrent characteristics with universal import But they will show a different configuration than before One will be able to find them not in so called sacred spaces but in very secular ones not so much within institutions but at the borders or even outside them not configured by a specific tradition but in an interface that makes more than one tradition meet and dialogue

Silence and the Word Oliver Davies, Denys Turner, 2002-08-15 Negative theology or apophysis the idea that God is best identified in terms of absence otherness difference has been influential in modern Christian thought resonating as it does with secular notions of negation developed in continental philosophy Apophysis also has a strong intellectual history dating back to the early Church Fathers Silence and the Word both studies the history of apophysis and examines its relationship with contemporary secular philosophy Leading Christian thinkers explore in their own way the extent to which the concept of the apophatic illumines some of the deepest doctrinal structures of Christian faith and of Christian self understanding both in terms of its historical and contemporary situatedness showing how a dimension of negativity has characterised not only traditional mysticism but most forms of Christian thought over the years The One in the Many Joseph A. Bracken, 2001 Classical notions of truth and objectivity have steadily eroded in the face of postmodernism Meeting this challenge head on Joseph Bracken here reconstructs the metaphysical tradition of the West on solid new foundations Drawing on the thought of Alfred North Whitehead Ervin Laszlo and Jürgen Habermas Bracken presents a new philosophical perspective that roots the relationship between God and the world in community Bracken first answers objections to the possibility of developing a new metaphysics in our postmodern age He then lays out the vertical and horizontal dimensions of his new metaphysical scheme a constructive perspective that results in a consciously communitarian understanding of the God world relationship The uniqueness of Bracken's position is its advocacy of a strictly social ontology in which the classical relationship of the One and the Many is reversed not the transcendence of the One over the Many but its emergence out of the Many in dynamic relationship
