Grieving Pregnancy Maureen L. Walsh, 2024-12-13 In Grieving Pregnancy Memorializing Loss in Japanese Buddhism and American Catholicism Maureen L. Walsh compares how the two religious traditions respond ritually and discursively to miscarriage stillbirth and abortion experiences marked by grief for the women involved The experience of pregnancy loss has always been a part of women's lives yet only recently has it garnered attention from religious leaders and scholars commensurate with its prevalence This book examines pregnancy loss as a theological problem for both Buddhism and Catholicism and analyzes the rites and memorials that have developed to address it such as Japanese Buddhist mizuko kuy water children rites and emergent American Catholic memorial practices focused on pregnancy loss These parallel practices have emerged within distinct religious landscapes a fact reflected in their forms and purposes and when considered together they raise questions of keen interest to theological and religious studies about the goals of religious practice and the imagination of human life at its earliest stages

Confrontation Vincent M. Azevedo, 2012-10 Whatever age group you belong to Confrontation will provide the insight you need to prevent conflicts and confrontation in your life Confrontation will make you laugh may make you cry but it will always entertain and inform you You'll explore the world through the eyes of a newborn and continue until you've seen the world through the eyes of a senior citizen For those seeking a book on violence or bloodshed Confrontation is not right for you If you're looking for a life of peaceful existence then Confrontation will guide you through life so you can have an understanding of those around you thus preventing conflict and confrontation

The Qualified Self Lee Humphreys, 2018-04-20 How sharing the mundane details of daily life did not start with Facebook Twitter and YouTube but with pocket diaries photo albums and baby books Social critiques argue that social media have made us narcissistic that Facebook Twitter Instagram and YouTube are all vehicles for self-promotion In The Qualified Self Lee Humphreys offers a different view She shows that sharing the mundane details of our lives what we ate for lunch where we went on vacation who dropped in for a visit didn't begin with mobile devices and social media People have used media to catalog and share their lives for several centuries Pocket diaries photo albums and baby books are the predigital precursors of today's digital and mobile platforms for posting text and images The ability to take selfies has not turned us into needy narcissists it's part of a longer story about how people account for everyday life Humphreys refers to diaries in which eighteenth-century daily life is documented with the brevity and precision of a tweet and cites a nineteenth-century travel diary in which a young woman complains that her breakfast didn't agree with her Diaries Humphreys explains were often written to be shared with family and friends Pocket diaries were as mobile as smartphones allowing the diarist to record life in real time Humphreys calls this chronicling in both digital and nondigital
