Passages Elizabeth Kovach, Jens Kugele, Ansgar Nünning, 2022-11-07 The study of literature and culture is marked by various distinct understandings of passages both as phenomena and critical concepts These include the anthropological notion of rites of passage the shopping arcades Passagen theorized by Walter Benjamin the Middle Passage of the Atlantic slave trade present day forms of migration and resettlement and understandings of translation and adaptation Whether structural semiotic spatial geographic temporal existential societal or institutional passages refer to processes of status change They enable entrances and exits arrivals and departures while they also foster moments of liminality and suspension They connect and thereby engender difference Passages is an exploration of passages as contexts and processes within which liminal experiences and encounters are situated It aims to foster a concept based interdisciplinary dialogue on how to approach and theorize such a term Based on the premise that concepts travel through times contexts and discursive settings a conceptual approach to passages provides the authors of this volume with the analytical tools to re focus their research questions and create a meaningful exchange across disciplinary national and linguistic boundaries Contributions from senior scholars and early career researchers whose work focuses on areas such as cultural memory performativity space media cultural translation ecocriticism gender and race utilize specific understandings of passages and liminality reflecting on their value and limits for their research

Play Among Books Miro Roman, Alice _ch3n81, 2021-12-06 How does coding change the way we think about architecture This question opens up an important research perspective In this book Miro Roman and his AI Alice_ch3n81 develop a playful scenario in which they propose coding as the new literacy of information They convey knowledge in the form of a project model that links the fields of architecture and information through two interwoven narrative strands in an infinite flow of real books Focusing on the intersection of information technology and architectural formulation the authors create an evolving intellectual reflection on digital architecture and computer science

The United States and the Nazi Holocaust Barry Trachtenberg, 2018-02-08 The United States and the Nazi Holocaust is an invaluable synthesis of United States policies and attitudes towards the Nazi persecution of European Jewry from 1933 to the modern day The book weaves together a vast body of scholarship to bring students of the Holocaust a balanced overview of this complex and often controversial topic It demonstrates that the United States response to Nazism the refugee crisis it provoked the Holocaust and its aftermath were and remain to this day intricately linked to the shifting racial economic and social status of American Jewry Using a broad chronological framework Barry Trachtenberg guides us through the major themes and events of this period He discusses the complicated history of the Roosevelt administration's response to the worsening situation of European Jewry in the context of the ambiguous racial status of Jews in Depression and World War II era America He examines the post war decades in America and discusses how the Holocaust like American Jewry itself moved from the margins to the center of American awareness This book considers the reception of Holocaust survivors post war trials film memoirs memorials and the growing field of Holocaust Studies The reactions of the United States government the general public and the Jewish communities of America are all accounted for in this detailed survey

Living with Buildings Iain Sinclair, 2018-09-20 A remarkable book surprisingly gripping and often very moving at once disorientating and illuminating Robert Macfarlane We shape ourselves and are shaped in return by the walls that contain us Buildings affect how we sleep work socialise and even breathe They can isolate and endanger us but they can also heal us We project our hopes and fears onto buildings while they absorb our histories In Living With Buildings Iain Sinclair embarks on a series of expeditions through London Marseille Mexico and the Outer Hebrides A father and his daughter who has a rare syndrome visit the estate where they once lived Developers clink champagne glasses as residents are decanted from their homes A box sculpted from whalebone thought to contain healing properties is returned to its origins with unexpected consequences Part investigation part travelogue Living With Buildings brings the spaces we inhabit to life as never before
