Migration, Diaspora and Information Technology in Global Societies Leopoldina Fortunati, Raul Pertierra, Jane Vincent, 2013-03-01 Migrants and diaspora communities are shaped by their use of information and communication technologies This book explores the multifaceted role played by new media in the re location of these groups of people assisting them in their efforts to defeat nostalgia construct new communities and keep connected with their communities of origin Furthermore the book analyses the different ways in which migrants contribute along with natives in co constructing contemporary societies a process in which the cultures of both groups are considered Drawing on contributions from a range of disciplines including sociology anthropology psychology and linguistics it offers a more profound understanding of one of the most significant phenomena of contemporary international societies the migration of nearly a billion people worldwide and the relationship between technology and society Diasporic Media beyond the Diaspora Sherry S. Yu, 2018-04-23 Media for diasporic communities have emerged in major cities such as Vancouver and Los Angeles and reflect a multicultural multiethnic and multilingual reality But do these media serve their respective communities exclusively or are they available and accessible to members of greater society at large Diasporic Media beyond the Diaspora explores structural and institutional challenges and opportunities for these media and suggests policy directions with the aim of fostering broader intercultural dialogue Using case studies of Korean media in Vancouver and Los Angeles Sherry Yu examines the potential of an intercultural media system for culturally ethnically and linguistically diverse societies This is the first book to explore the potential of diasporic communicative spaces as being open to people outside of specific diasporic communities and their further potential to establish an infrastructure that facilitates conversation and contributes to building an interculturally engaging and inclusive media system Fluctuating Transnationalism Astghik Chaloyan, 2017-06-28 This book concerns various modes of being transnational among a diasporic population Armenians in Germany by drawing parallels between the first and second generation migrants It puts forth the questions as to whether or not and which kind of transactional activity ties practices survive over generations and to what extent transnational engagements influence self identification and the sense of belonging It also examines how various modes of transnationalism in turn impact the sense of belonging The book fleshes out new perspectives and interpretations of transnationalism by revealing specific aspects of border spanning ties and by showing that connections to the country of origin do not necessarily need to be sustained or intensive in order to survive They can instead fluctuate depending on various factors but still have the right to be called transnational Adjusting the contrast Sarita Malik, Darrell M. Newton, 2017-08-17 This volume looks at a range of texts and practices that address race and its relationship with television The chapters explore television policy and the management of race how transnationalism can diminish racial diversity historical questions of representation the myth of a multicultural England and more They also provide analyses of programmes such as Doctor Who Shoot the Messenger Desi DNA Survivors and Top Boy all of which are considered in the context of the broadcast environments that helped to create them While efforts have been made to put diverse portrayals on screen there are still significant problems with the stories being told Mediating Cultural Diversity in a Globalised Public Space I. Rigoni, E. Saitta, 2012-11-13 Through enhancing reflection on the treatment of cultural diversity in contemporary Western societies this collection aims to move the debate beyond the opposition between ethnicity and citizenship and demonstrate ways to achieve equality in multicultural and globalised societies The Handbook of Global Media Research Ingrid Volkmer, 2015-07-07 The Handbook of Global Media Research Ingrid Volkmer has collected an admirably rich thought provoking and diverse collection of views to guide critical scholarship as our topic the media and media cultures methods which must now be comparative and the knowledge we produce are all transformed by globalization

Sonia Livingstone author of Media Regulation Governance and the Interests of Citizens and Consumers In this handbook leading academic and practitioner analysts give us valuable insight into globalized forms of communication their diversity the global local dialectic and the challenges of critical historical and comparative study of transnational media and communication Robin Mansell author of Imagining the Internet Communication Innovation and Governance With a stellar list of contributors and an engagement with the global that both traces and transcends its boundaries Ingrid Volkmer's volume is the cardinal chart of our media worlds Mark Deuze author of Media Life and Media Works This is a long overdue volume The distinguished contributors to The Handbook of Global Media Research have produced a challenging and authoritative guide to understanding the latest developments in global media Thomas R Lindlof University of Kentucky As new forms of media proliferate and communication becomes ever more global transnational media is increasingly capable of both enhancing political cultural and economic globalization and shaping worldviews and civic identity Research into the development of transnational media is therefore an essential element of understanding the changes created by advanced globalization The Handbook of Global Media Research explores and articulates the key themes and competing approaches of this dynamic and developing field Bringing together the ideas of more than 40 internationally respected authors from around the world it provides valuable and varied insights into a globalized media landscape setting the agenda for the future of transnational media and communications research

The SAGE International Encyclopedia of Mass Media and Society Debra L. Merskin, 2019-11-12 The SAGE International Encyclopedia of Mass Media and Society discusses media around the world in their varied forms newspapers magazines radio television film books music websites social media mobile media and describes the role of each in both mirroring and shaping society This encyclopedia provides a thorough overview of media within social and cultural contexts exploring the development of the mediated communication industry mediated communication regulations and societal interactions and effects This reference work will look at issues such as free expression and government regulation of media how people choose what media to watch listen to and read and how the influence of those who control media organizations may be changing as new media empower previously unheard voices The role of media in society will be explored from international multidisciplinary perspectives via approximately 700 articles drawing on research from communication and media studies sociology anthropology social psychology politics and business

Digital Transnationalism Wanning Sun, Haiqing Yu, 2023-02-06 This is the first book in English on Chinese language digital media in Australia The book comes at a time when the relationship between China and the West is at its most troubling since the end of the Cold War Combining rich ethnographic insights with dispassionate analysis this investigation into Australia's Chinese language digital and social media sheds new light on how migrants from the People's Republic of China negotiate two media cultural and political systems The book is a timely antidote to the polarized and often simplistic positions that dominate ongoing debates about the Chinese diaspora and diasporic media and injects much needed nuance into analyses of the changing face of Chinese transnationalism
