Treasure In Clay The Autobiography Of Fulton J Sheen:

Treasure in Clay Fulton J. Sheen, 1982-02-05 Treasure in Clay provides a lifetime's worth of wisdom from one of the most beloved and influential figures in twentieth century Catholicism. Completed shortly before his death in 1979, Treasure in Clay is the autobiography of Fulton J. Sheen, the preeminent teacher, preacher, and pastor of American Catholicism. Called the Great Communicator by Billy Graham and a prophet of the times by Pope Pius XII, Sheen was the voice of American Catholicism for nearly fifty years. In addition to his prolific writings, Sheen dominated the airwaves first in radio and later television with his signature program Life is Worth Living, drawing an average of 30 million viewers a week in the 1950s. Sheen had the ears of everyone, from presidents to the common men, women, and children in the pews, and his uplifting message of faith, hope, and love shaped generations of Catholics. Here, in Sheen's own words, are reflections from his childhood, his years in seminary, his academic career, his media stardom, his pastoral work, his extensive travels, and much more. Readers already familiar with Sheen, and as well as those coming to him for the first time, will find a fascinating glimpse into the Catholic world Sheen inhabited and will find inspiration in Sheen's heartfelt recollections. Treasure in Clay is a classic book and a lasting testament to a life that was worth living.

Treasure in clay Fulton John Sheen, 1982 The Preaching of Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen Timothy H. Sherwood, 2011-11-01 This rhetorical study seeks to understand how and why Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen's preaching was so persuasive to the people of his day. Though many associate Sheen with his five years on prime time television in the 1950s, it was the decades he spent preaching that wrought a religious tone to the Cold War and led the way in a national renewal of religion.

Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen Cheryl C.D. Hughes, 2024-12-20 Venerable Fulton J. Sheen was one of the greatest spiritual leaders and entertainers in America's tumultuous twentieth century. His television shows, for which he eventually won an Emmy Award, reached millions of viewers, and in the 1950s and 60s, Fulton Sheen was a household name. But his greatest gift was in finding lost sheep. Through his thought, wit, and compassion, many thousands of people likely entered the Church from all walks of life. Among them were jazz legend Ada Bricktop Smith, journalist Heywood Brown, Communist activist Louis Budenz, U.S. Congresswoman Clare Boothe Luce, spy Elizabeth Bentley, composer Fritz Kreisler, Communist Bella Dodd, and Hollywood starlet Virginia Mayo. This in-depth work by historian Cheryl C. D. Hughes lets readers inhabit the postwar America where Bishop Fulton Sheen thrived in order to reveal what made him such a magnetic figure in his own era. It peers into the complex lives of the celebrities and fallen stars who saw in the warm, brilliant bishop a sign of God's grace, and it offers a study in the inner dynamics of conversion. Sheen was far more than a speaker and a scholar; a priest and shepherd foremost, he firmly believed that the Church needed to be poor to serve the poor, personally donating all the money he ever earned, over 200 million, to mission services. He was also an active participant at the Second Vatican Council, where he befriended the young bishop of Kraków, Karol Wojtyła, who had learned English at least partially from listening to recordings of Sheen. Pope John Paul II would later embrace Archbishop Sheen, and say You have written and spoken well of the Lord Jesus You are a loyal son of the Church While Sheen influenced countless conversions he was always clear that it was the Holy Spirit not the man who makes the convert By examining this bishop s ministry in action we can catch a glimpse of how God works in the human heart and in a fallen world Masters of Preaching Ray E. Religion in the Public Square James M. Patterson,2019-06-28 Ven Fulton J Sheen Dr Martin Luther King Jr and Rev Jerry Falwell religious leaders who popularized theology through media campaigns designed to persuade the public In Religion in the Public Square James M Patterson considers religious leaders who popularized theology through media campaigns designed to persuade the public Ven Fulton J Sheen Dr Martin Luther King Jr and Rev Jerry Falwell differed profoundly on issues of theology and politics but they shared an approach to public ministry that aimed directly at changing how Americans understood the nature and purpose of their country From the 1930s through the 1950s Sheen was an early adopter of paperbacks radio and television to condemn totalitarian ideologies and to defend American Catholicism against Protestant accusations of divided loyalty During the 1950s and 1960s King staged demonstrations and boycotts that drew the mass media to him The attention provided him the platform to preach Christian love as a political foundation in direct opposition to white supremacy Falwell started his own church which he developed into a mass media empire He then leveraged it during the late 1970s through the 1980s to influence the Republican Party by exhorting his audience to not only ally with religious conservatives around issues of abortion and the traditional family but also to vote accordingly Sheen King and Falwell were so successful in popularizing their theological ideas that they won prestigious awards had access to presidents and witnessed the results of their labors However Patterson argues that Falwell s efforts broke with the longstanding refusal of religious public figures to participate directly in partisan affairs and thereby catalyzed the process of politicizing religion that undermined the Judeo Christian consensus that formed the foundation of American politics

Classic Catholic Converts Charles P. Connor,2009-09-03 Classic Catholic Converts presents the compelling stories of over 25 well known converts to Catholicism from the 19th and 20th centuries It tells of powerful testimonials to God's grace men and women from all walks of life in Europe and America whose search for the fullness of truth led them to the Catholic Church. It is the witness of brilliant intellectuals, social workers, scientists, authors, film producers, clergy, businessmen, artists, and others who under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit studied and prayed their way into the Church. Fr. Charles Connor writes insightful and wonderfully readable stories of a rich variety of converts who struggled greatly with many challenges as they embraced Catholicism, including rejection by loved ones, persecution from strangers, and misunderstanding by peers. But once they responded to God's call, they experienced great inner peace, contentment, and joy. Among the famous converts whose stories are told here include John Henry Newman, Edith Stein, Jacques Maritain, Dorothy Day, G. K. Chesterton, Elizabeth Seton, Karl Stern, Ronald Knox, and many more. A great gift at a moment of history when conversions to the Catholic Church are receiving renewed attention. Marvelously readable stories highlight the vivid diversity of the personalities and the unity of the truth that still brings restless souls into full communion with the Church of Jesus Christ. Rev. Richard John Neuhaus, Editor, First Things. This fine parade of men and women described with insight by Father Connor shows how long is the reach of the Holy Spirit and how varied are the personalities He has gathered to Himself. Rev. George W. Rutler, Author, A Crisis of Saints. The touching conversion stories that Fr. Connor so concisely presents convey the joys as well as the struggles that converts continue to experience on their journey into the Catholic Church. Marcus C. Grodi, President, The Coming Home Network. This book reminds cradle Catholics of the pearl of great price that is ours and should motivate many of us to a sharper sense of evangelization as the new Millennium begins. Rich information and valuable insights abound. Highly recommended. Most Reverend Edwin F. O'Brien, Archbishop for the Military Services. Fr. Charles Connor, a pastor of a parish in the diocese of Scranton, PA, is an expert in Church history. He is the host of several television series on EWTN, including Historic Catholic Converts.
