Short Stories of the Civil Rights Movement Margaret Earley Whitt, 2006 During the civil rights era masses of people marched in the streets boycotted stores and registered to vote Others challenged racism in ways more solitary but no less life changing These twenty three stories give a voice to the nameless ordinary citizens without whom the movement would have failed From bloody melees at public lunch counters to anxious musings at the family dinner table the diverse experiences depicted in this anthology make the civil rights movement as real and immediate as the best histories and memoirs Each story focuses on a particular sometimes private moment in the historic struggle for social justice in America Events have a permanent effect on characters like the white girl in Spring Is Now who must sort through her feelings about the only black boy in her school or the black preacher in The Convert who tells a friend This thing of being a man The Supreme Court can t make you a man The

NAACP can't do it God Almighty can do a lot but even He can't do it Ain't nobody can do it but you If a character survives and some do not the event can become a turning point a vision for a better world The sections into which the stories are grouped parallel the news headlines of the day School Desegregation 1954 on Sit ins 1960 on Marches and Demonstrations 1963 on and Acts of Violence In the last section Retrospective characters look back on their personal involvement with the movement Twenty writers eleven black and nine white are represented in the collection Ten stories were written during the 1960s That the others were written long after the movement's heyday suggests the potency of that time as a continuing source of creative inspiration

Soul Prosperity Rhonda Lea Sinclair-Cochran, 2022-12-29 We can be happy in the Lord if we don't have everything right or even together We can celebrate our accomplishments of walking in love however small they may seem knowing God's grace is making up the difference Scripture teaches God's mercies are new every morning This book will bring day to day insight into the mercy of God the faithfulness of God and the blessing of God through practical applications It will challenge you to take the first step toward forgiveness or make the call to encourage someone God has put on your heart It will inspire you to do the right thing when you don't feel like being the bigger or even better person These daily devotions will strengthen your character and your walk with the Lord as you learn godly principles from His word one day at a time Every day is a new day to choose to do things God's way verses our own He promises when we do He will come along side us and enable us to be wiser healthier and more successful Who doesn't want to get in on that kind of life This book is not for someone who has no troubles issues or concerns It's for the person with broken relationships It's for those with exhausted bank accounts It's for the ones who haven't gotten everything together just yet but they really want to This book is for the person who is grateful to the Lord for enough light to make it through one test or temptation a day and feel like an overcomer If you want to experience God's presence more in your daily walk this book is for you If you want to catch God blessing you more often and if you want to be the kind of person that blesses God right back then read on
