What Was Thinking Things Learned:

UNDERDOG THINKING: A Bold Idea, a Business Adventure and 101 Lessons Learned Along the Way Atul Vir, Underdog Thinking is real life business adventure story that follows the journey of an Indian Immigrant to the U S who was told he didn't know a damn thing about American business But as opportunity would have it a short time later he found himself an accidental entrepreneur with a front row ticket to the ins and outs of launching and growing a business He was flying high on his growing success until a fateful moment when everything changed As businesses rise and fall to the tune of supply and demand sometimes the harshest betrayals come out of nowhere when you least expect it as do the surprising sparks of hope When an unforeseen circumstance initiates a chain of events that leave him at a crossroads he must make the tough call to give in and give up or push through and win CEO business ethics thought leader speaker and author Atul Vir has lived that story And even in the darkest moments when failure seemed most imminent he drew on the work ethic instilled from his earliest days and his commitment to do right by his customers to bring his dream up from the ashes and back to life In his new book Underdog Thinking Vir inspires readers to face any challenge that comes their way with practical business lessons for every step of the journey gleaned from his experience as both an immigrant building a business and as CEO of Equator Appliances for more than 25 years The book dives into current themes dominating the business landscape including global business overcoming failure bootstrapping securing financing immigration and what innovation truly means While many people offer sage advice on these topics Vir's lessons are paired with a unique captivating story and more than two decades of entrepreneurial expertise in an industry dominated by much bigger players major multinational corporations
