When All Else Fails Rethinking Our Pastoral Vocation In Times Of Stuck:

When All Else Fails Wayne L. Menking, 2013-09-05 The condition of stuck is a condition well known by pastoral caregivers and leaders In When All Else Fails Wayne Menking argues that the way out of stuckness is not through the acquisition of faddish techniques but through a deep rethinking of our pastoral vocation and what our pastoral work is to be about Pastoral care and leadership are not indistinguishable just as priestly work can never be separated from prophetic work They are always one and the same Pastoral care and leadership then are not about helping people relieve their anxiety through the offering of palliative comfort but rather helping people to engage the powers that have hold of their life so as to leave what is old for what is new In this engagement the caregiver will always encounter powers against which niceness and unconditional love will not work Using biblical images and narratives that depict God as a deeply empathic and compassionate God yet one who is never adaptively sympathetic Menking asserts that pastoral caregivers and leaders must shed their niceness and adaptivity so as to employ their God given power if they are to help people effectively leave what is old for what is new

The Integrity of the Body of Christ Arden Mahlberg, Craig L. Nesson, 2016-05-23 For religious communities to have integrity and credibility they must flourish as places of love and respect Every aspect of church life is defined and protected by essential boundaries boundaries around space time thought speech will emotion and behavior both for clergy and church members Lack of awareness and attention to boundary keeping diminishes the integrity of the church and harms its mission whereas insight and vigilance about best practices lend freedom and energy to the calling of the church to care for others and to reach out to the world In a flourishing Christian community a wide array of boundaries must be recognized celebrated and navigated from the boundaries that define and protect us as individual persons to role boundaries and the boundaries that define essential communal functions such as worship This book is no conventional account of boundaries It takes a comprehensive approach to the challenge of understanding and creating healthy boundaries It applies the lessons from the emerging field of behavioral ethics to the rich and rewarding complexity of boundaries in church life helping us to be more loving and responsible in how we think speak and act so that the church can be true to its identity and mission

The Leader's Journey Jim Herrington, Trisha Taylor, R. Robert Creech, 2020-01-21 This book helps pastors and church leaders understand the role their personal transformation as Jesus's disciples plays in effective congregational leadership It shifts the focus of leadership from techniques and charisma to spiritual transformation and developing emotional maturity so leaders can effectively lead congregations to embrace change End of chapter discussion questions are included The first edition sold more than 20 000 copies and has been regularly used as a textbook over the past fifteen years The second edition has been revised throughout and includes a greater emphasis on Bowen Family Systems Theory

From Survival to Vocation Wayne L. Menking, 2023-02-02 The powers of death are closer than we thought Their perils appear in the forms of increased gun violence racism economic disparity and global warming to name but a few Faced with these threats Christians in this self absorbed culture tend to use their faith as a kind of palliative comfort that protects them from the truths of what these powers are doing to us as a human community and the sufferings they are inflicting on others particularly the poor and the disenfranchised Moreover it is used to shield them from responding to the gospel s call to leave survival for vocation Using Luther s theology of the cross and the instruction he imparts in his Large Catechism this book asserts that in the face of the sufferings in which we are situated the gospel news of Jesus s resurrection is a call to stand in its hope and power to resist these devastations and the dehumanization exploitation and domination they inflict The hope of God s life giving creativity in the face of the powers of death is given witness when Christians leave survival modes of existence to be in their baptismal vocation of loving neighbors as themselves
