When Species Meet By Donna J Haraway Nov 26 2007:

When Species Meet Donna J. Haraway, 2013-11-30 In 2006 about 69 million U S households had pets giving homes to around 73.9 million dogs 90.5 million cats and 16.6 million birds and spending more than 38 billion dollars on companion animals As never before in history our pets are truly members of the family But the notion of companion species knotted from human beings animals and other organisms landscapes and technologies includes much more than companion animals In When Species Meet Donna J Haraway digs into this larger phenomenon to contemplate the interactions of humans with many kinds of critters especially with those called domestic At the heart of the book are her experiences in agility training with her dogs Cayenne and Roland but Haraway's vision here also encompasses wolves chickens cats baboons sheep microorganisms and whales wearing video cameras From designer pets to lab animals to trained therapy dogs she deftly explores philosophical cultural and biological aspects of animal human encounters In this deeply personal yet intellectually groundbreaking work Haraway develops the idea of companion species those who meet and break bread together but not without some indigestion A great deal is at stake in such meetings she writes and outcomes are not guaranteed There is no assured happy or unhappy ending socially ecologically or scientifically There is only the chance for getting on together with some grace Ultimately she finds that respect curiosity and knowledge spring from animal human associations and work powerfully against ideas about human exceptionalism

The Animal Game Daniel E. Bender, 2016-11-07 Tracing the global trade and trafficking in animals that supplied U S zoos Daniel Bender shows how Americans learned to view faraway places through the lens of exotic creatures on display He recounts the public's conflicted relationship with zoos decried as prisons by activists even as they remain popular centers of education and preservation

Interpreting Meat Teddy Duncan, Jr., 2024-12-27 Meat is the essential object dislodged in human animal relations in its commonplace everyday ubiquity and distanced violence it defies the innocuous or protective paternalistic stance that we ordinarily take towards animals Through looking at meat's status as a fundamental and visceral part of human animal relations particularly its commodification and consumption this book exhibits how animals fit into human discursive practices and how this discursive position determines our perspective of animals and subsequently our treatment of them Modernity is a distinct stage of meat production and accordingly the meat commodity must be examined in all its contemporary specificity as an economic linguistic philosophical psychoanalytic and material object Using theoretical prisms that have been largely overlooked in animal studies such as Marxian analysis and Lacanian psychoanalysis and rejecting popular approaches such as analogical thinking and effacement of human animal difference this book offers new insights into the meat commodity and new ways to orient ourselves towards animal life and death

Transhumanism Andrew Pilsch, 2017-08-15 Transhumanism posits that humanity is on the verge of rapid evolutionary change as a result of emerging technologies and increased global consciousness However this insight is dismissed as a naive and controversial reframing of posthumanist thought having also been vilified as the most dangerous idea in the world by Francis Fukuyama In this book Andrew Pilsch counters these critiques arguing instead that transhumanism's utopian rhetoric actively imagines radical new futures for the species and its habitat Pilsch situates contemporary transhumanism within the longer history of a rhetorical mode he calls evolutionary futurism that unifies diverse texts philosophies and theories of science and technology that anticipate a radical explosion in humanity's cognitive physical and cultural potentialities By conceptualizing transhumanism as a rhetoric as opposed to an obscure group of fringe figures he explores the intersection of three major paradigms shaping contemporary Western intellectual life cybernetics evolutionary biology and spiritualism In analyzing this collision his work traces the belief in a digital evolutionary and collective future through a broad range of texts written by theologians and mystics biologists and computer scientists political philosophers and economic thinkers conceptual artists and Golden Age science fiction writers Unearthing the long history of evolutionary futurism Pilsch concludes allows us to more clearly see the novel contributions that transhumanism offers for escaping our current geopolitical bind by inspiring radical utopian thought The Routledge Companion to Gender and Animals Chloë Taylor, 2024-05-31 The Routledge Companion to Gender and Animals is a diverse and intersectional collection which examines human and more than human animal relations as well as the interconnectedness of human and animal oppressions through various lenses Comprising fifty chapters the book explores a range of debates and scholarship within important contemporary topics such as companion animals hunting agriculture and animal activist strategies It also offers timely analyses of zoonotic disease pandemics mass extinction and the climate catastrophe using perspectives including feminist critical race anti colonial critical disability and masculinities studies The Routledge Companion to Gender and Animals is an essential reference for students in gender studies sexuality studies human animal studies cultural studies sociology and environmental studies Someone Else's Face in the Mirror Carla Bluhm, Nathan Clendenin, 2009-04-30 In 2005 surgeons in France removed part of the face from a cadaver and grafted it onto the head of a 38 year old woman grossly disfigured by a dog attack Three years later in December 2008 surgeons at the Cleveland Clinic announced they had performed the first U S face transplant Although modern culture is accustomed to pushing medicine and the human body beyond all limits the world's first partial face transplant and the seven that have followed have caused a stir that still reverberates globally This book begins with the story of Isabelle Dinoire the recipient of the first face transplant and chronicles her surgery and battles with tissue rejection Its scope widens with a look at how surgical teams including three U S transplant teams are in a global race to perform the first full face transplant and at how medical history has led up to this point with prior successful transplants ranging from body parts as simple as cornea to those as neurologically complicated as the heart a hand and a penis The most novel among these surgeries the face transplant conjures up particular and expansive psychological issues Authors Bluhm and Clendenin show how transplant recipients struggle with functional issues including a lifetime of anti rejection drugs a danger highlighted by the recent death of the second face transplant patient in China But just as challenging in the case of face transplant is the psychological effect on and potential threat to identity Who are you if suddenly your face or a significant portion of it is not what you were born with What is it like to look in the mirror and see a face that is not the one you have always had Dinoire lamented It will never be me That statement is an absolute simplification of the identity issues a face transplant can create explain the authors Bluhm and Clendenin show how across history and media humankind via medicine literature film and other media has dreamed of a day when face transplants would be possible With so many disfigurements occurring among the military in Iraq and experimental face transplants too expensive for implementation in the private sector it is likely that the U S military will take the reins and further face transplant techniques as quickly as possible to serve injured personnel Narrating the Sex Trade Tracie L. Wilson, 2025-09-30 Examining a range of sex trade accounts from state documents activist groups folk narratives and key figures in Polish Ukrainian and Yiddish literature this book applies new materialist perspectives to cultural history coloniality and imperialism in the study of Europe's eastern borderlands The text centers on late nineteenth and early twentieth century contexts with eastern Galicia and Lviv as its focal point However these narratives flow across time and space stretching back to the early modern period and continuing to the present across cities in the Americas in Asia and along the Mediterranean Sea The book addresses the convergence of sex trade stories with older narratives including links to early modern abduction accounts and antisemitic tropes It also examines the involvement of prominent activists whose personal lives contributed to modern research in psychology and sexuality such as Bertha Pappenheim Anna O and Karl M Baer Its groundbreaking approach unsettling notions of center and periphery is relevant to study of a myriad of geographic contexts worldwide and to both historical analysis and present day situations This volume is intended for undergraduates postgraduates specialists and general readers interested in east central Europe gender coloniality imperialism migration technology and modernity narrative and literary studies and new materialist approaches

Embodying Contagion Sandra Becker, Megen de Bruin-Molé, Sara Polak, 2021-03-15 Brings together new research that lays out the current state of contagion studies from the perspective of media studies monster studies and the medical humanities Offers fresh perspectives on contagion studies from disciplines such as the social sciences and the medical humanities introducing new methods of collaboration and avenues of research and demonstrating how these disciplines have already been working in parallel for several decades Covers a wide variety of international media and contexts including literature film television public policy and social networks Includes key recent case studies including public health documents and the popular Netflix series Santa Clarita Diet that have not yet been analysed anywhere else in the field Bucks the current trend of going back to plague literature and historical plagues in the search for meaning to address current and late 20th century epidemics diseases and monsters Animal Life and the Moving Image Michael Lawrence, Laura McMahon, 2019-07-25 From the proto cinematic sequencing of animal motion in the nineteenth century to the ubiquity of animal videos online the histories of animal life and the moving image are enigmatically interlocked Animal Life and the Moving Image is the first collection of essays to offer a sustained focus on the relations between screen cultures and non human animals The volume brings together some of the most important and influential writers working on the non human animal s significance for cultures and theories of the moving image It offers innovative analyses of the representation of animals across a wide range of documentary fiction mainstream and avant garde practices from early cinema to contemporary user generated media Individual chapters consider King Kong The Birds The Misfits The Cove Grizzly Man and Microcosmos the work of Sergei Eisenstein Robert Bresson Malcolm Le Grice Peter Greenaway Carolee Schneemann and Isabella Rossellini and YouTube stars Christian the lion and Maru the cat

Posthuman Pathogenesis Başak Ağın, Şafak Horzum, 2022-07-07 This multi vocal assemblage of literary and cultural responses to contagions provides insights into the companionship of posthumanities environmental humanities and medical humanities to shed light on how we deal with complex issues like communicable diseases in contemporary times Examining imaginary and real contagions ranging from Jeep and SHEVA to plague HIV AIDS and COVID 19 Posthuman Pathogenesis discusses the inextricable links between nature and culture matter and meaning making practices and the human and the nonhuman Dissecting pathogenic nonhuman bodies in their interactions with their human counterparts and the environment the authors of this volume raise their diverse voices with two primary aims to analyse how contagions trigger a drive to survival and chaotic liberating and captivating impulses and to focus on the viral interpolations in socio political and environmental systems as a meeting point of science technology and fiction blending social reality and myth Following the premises of the post qualitative turn and presenting a differentiated experience of contagion this rhizomatic compilation thus offers a non hierarchised array of essays composed of a multiplicity of genders geographies and generations
