When the World Shook H. Rider Haggard,2015-07-09 Excerpt from When the World Shook Being an Account of the Great Adventure of Bastin Bickley and Arbuthnot I suppose that I Humphrey Arbuthnot should begin this history in which Destiny has caused me to play so prominent a part with some short account of myself and of my circumstances I was born forty years ago in this very Devonshire village in which I write but not in the same house Now I live in the Priory an ancient place and a fine one in its way with its panelled rooms its beautiful gardens where in this mild climate in addition to our own flourish so many plants which one would only expect to find in countries that lie nearer to the sun and its green undulating park studded with great timber trees The view too is perfect behind and around the rich Devonshire landscape with its hills and valleys and its scarped faces of red sandstone and at a distance in front the sea There are little towns quite near too that live for the most part on visitors but these are so hidden away by the contours of the ground that from the Priory one cannot see them Such is Fulcombe where I live though for obvious reasons I do not give it its real name Many years ago my father the Rev Humphrey Arbuthnot whose only child I am after whom also I am named Humphrey was the vicar of this place with which our family is said to have some rather vague hereditary connection About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works      When The World Shook Henry Rider Haggard,2019-07-26 This book is a result of an effort made by us towards making a contribution to the preservation and repair of original classic literature In an attempt to preserve improve and recreate the original content we have worked towards 1 Type setting Reformatting The complete work has been re designed via professional layout formatting and type setting tools to re create the same edition with rich typography graphics high quality images and table elements giving our readers the feel of holding a fresh and newly reprinted and or revised edition as opposed to other scanned printed Optical Character Recognition OCR reproductions

2 Correction of imperfections As the work was re created from the scratch therefore it was vetted to rectify certain conventional norms with regard to typographical mistakes hyphenations punctuations blurred images missing content pages and or other related subject matters upon our consideration Every attempt was made to rectify the imperfections related to omitted constructs in the original edition via other references However a few of such imperfections which could not be rectified due to intentional unintentional omission of content in the original edition were inherited and preserved from the original work to maintain the authenticity and construct relevant to the work We believe that this work holds historical cultural and or intellectual importance in the literary works community therefore despite the oddities we accounted the work for print as a part of our continuing effort towards preservation of literary work and our contribution towards the development of the society as a whole driven by our beliefs We are grateful to our readers for putting their faith in us and accepting our imperfections with regard to preservation of the historical content

Orientalism and Representations of Music in the Nineteenth-Century British Popular Arts Claire Mabilat, 2017-07-05 Representations of music were employed to create a wider Orient on the pages stages and walls of nineteenth century Britain This book explores issues of orientalism otherness gender and sexuality that arise in artistic British representations of non European musicians during this time by utilizing recent theories of orientalism and the subsidiary particularly aesthetic and literary theories both on which these theories were based and on which they have been influential The author uses this theoretical framework of orientalism as a form of othering in order to analyse primary source materials and in conjunction with musicological literary and art theories thus explores ways in which ideas of the Other were transformed over time and between different genres and artists

Part I The Musical Stage discusses elements of the libretti of popular musical stage works in this period and the occasionally contradictory ways in which racial Others was represented through text and music a particular focus is the depiction of Oriental women and ideas of sexuality Through examination of this collection of libretti the ways in which the writers of these works filter and romanticize the changing intellectual ideas of this era are explored

Part II Works of Fiction is a close study of the works of Sir Henry Rider Haggard using other examples of popular fiction by his contemporary writers as contextualizing material with the primary concern being to investigate how music is utilized in popular fiction to represent Other non Europeans and in the creation of orientalized gender constructions

Part III Visual Culture is an analysis of images of music and the Orient in examples of British high art illustration and photography investigating how the musical Other was visualized
