Crescent and the Pen Hanifa Deen, 2006-10-30 This is a book about a writer Islamic fundamentalism mythmaking and international literary politics It is the story of Taslima Nasreen a former medical doctor and protest writer who shot to international fame in 1993 at the age of thirty four after she was accused of blasphemy by religious fanatics in Bangladesh and her book Shame was banned In order to escape a warrant for her arrest the controversial writer went underground and as the official story has it fled to the West where she became a human rights celebrity a female version of Salman Rushdie Taslima Nasreen's name almost became a household word in 1994 when she was awarded the Sakharov Prize by the European Parliament and she was feted by presidents chancellors mayors and famous writers and intellectuals around Europe for two years She is still remembered and widely admired as a modern day feminist icon who fought the bearded fundamentalists in her own country and whose life was in danger This is the official story that most people are familiar with and the one that is widely believed by Taslima supporters around the world However as The Crescent and the Pen reveals in the style of a literary detective tale the true story behind the international campaign to save Taslima has never been told until now Following on the trail of Taslima Deen questions the reasoning behind the international crusade to save her in the process debunking much of the current thinking that has shaped Islam into the new global enemy She discovers that the story of what really happened to Taslima is a fascinating labyrinth where memory and myth have merged the tale having acquired a life of its own with a hundred different authors

Atheism and the Goddess Anway Mukhopadhyay, 2023-03-21 This book seeks to explore the complex modes of interface between religion atheism and the Goddess in multicultural contexts While atheism has often been seen as an interrogation of and a battle against God the gender dimension of this discourse has not been sufficiently negotiated Is the fight against God also a fight against the Goddess Or is there something common between the ideological thrust of the battle against God the Father in atheism and the interrogation of the Divine Father in theology Can the Goddess be seen as an entity radically different from the imperious transcendental that the atheists find embodied in God the Father Or can the Goddess be seen as transcendental as well as immanent and hence subjected to the same atheist denial of transcendence to which God is subjected in non theistic or anti theistic arguments With this volume Anway Mukhopadhyay embarks on a difficult project of epistemologically ideologically and even politically renegotiating and reorienting some of the fundamental issues involved in the discussions of and debates over atheism

Reshaping the Holy Elora Shehabuddin, 2008-07-28 Through extensive field research Elora Shehabuddin explores the profound implications of women's political and social mobilization for reshaping Islam Specifically she examines the lives of Muslim women in Bangladesh who have become increasingly mobilized by the activities of predominantly secular NGOs yet who desire to retain reclaim and reshape rather than reject their faith In their employment and in their interactions with the legal system the state NGOs and political and religious groups women are changing state practices views of women in the public sphere and the nature of lived Islam itself In contrast to most work on Islam and Muslims which has focused on the Middle East and has privileged the study of religious and legal texts this book redirects our attention to South Asia home to one of the largest Muslim populations in the world and emphasizes the actual experiences of Muslims Women and gender as well as Bangladesh s formally democratic context are central to this inquiry and analysis JPRS Report ,1994 Political Islam and Governance in Bangladesh Ali Riaz,C. Christine Fair,2010-10-04 This book provides a broad ranging analysis of the growth and impact of political Islam in Bangladesh and reactions to it Grounded in empirical data experts examine the changing character of Bangladeshi politics since 1971 with particular focus on the convergence of governance Islamism and militancy It is a timely incisive and original examination of the rise of political Islam and Islamic militancy in Bangladesh

Fifty Years of Bangladesh, 1971-2021 Taj Hashmi,2022-04-22 This book the first historical sociology of its kind concerning Bangladesh examines the country s what went wrong syndrome during the first fifty years of its existence 1971 2021 The work is an exception to the traditional studies on modern and contemporary Bangladesh The study is also a post history of united Pakistan Busting several myths it sheds light on many known and unknown facts about the history politics society and culture of the country Besides being a twice born country liberated twice from the British in 1947 and from West Pakistanis in 1971 it is also an artificial entity suffering from acute crises of culture development governance and identity Hashmi attributes the culture and identity crises to the demographic byproducts of bad governance In addition to being overpopulated Bangladesh is also resource poor and has one of the most unskilled populations largely lumpen elements and peasants According to Marx these people represent the unchanging remnants of the past The second round of independence empowered these lumpen classes who suffer from an identity crisis and never learn the art of governance The proliferation of pseudo history about liberation has further divided the polity between the two warring tribes who only glorify their respective idols Mujib and Zia Pre political and pre capitalist peasants lumpen elements lack of mutual trust and respect have further plagued Bangladesh turning it into one of the least governable corrupt and inefficient countries It is essential to replace the pre capitalist order of the country run by multiple lumpen classes with capitalist and inclusive institutions
