Linguistics, Literature and Culture Shakila Abdul Manan, Hajar Abdul Rahim, 2012-12-05 This book documents the changing realities in the fields of linguistics literature and culture in Asia resulting from globalization modernisation and rapid technological development It consists of sixteen essays by academics and researchers around the world reflecting on the interface between the global and the local and its impact on the local and regional languages literatures and cultures of Asia This scenario which exemplifies language contact in action is captured by the book mainly to demonstrate that linguistic negotiations appropriations and indeed changes are not one way As such their implications on language use language choice language policy and planning literacy and pedagogy identity subjectivity and culture need to be closely examined The uniqueness of this book lies in its attempt to showcase original research in a variety of multicultural settings Its multi and cross disciplinary approach will appeal to a wide spectrum of readers from diverse backgrounds This book will serve as a useful reference that is both scholarly and informative for researchers as well as academics in the fields of linguistics literature and culture

Transmutations of Desire Qiancheng Li, 2020-11-15 In the West love occupies center stage in the modern age whether in art intellectual life or the economic life We may observe a similar development in China on its own impetus which has resulted in this characteristic of modernity this feature of modern life has been securely and unambiguously established not the least facilitated by the thriving of literature about qing whether in traditional or modern forms Qiancheng Li concentrates on the nuances of a similar trend manifested in the Chinese context The emphasis is on critical readings of the texts that have shaped this trend including important Ming and Qing dynasty works of drama Buddhist texts and other religious philosophical works in all their subtlety and evocative power The power of qing or strong emotion is a major theme in late imperial Chinese literature some writers asserting that it can transcend even life itself Qiancheng Li surveys a number of seventeenth century philosophical religious and literary texts to elucidate the metaphysical aspects of emotional attachment and of sexual desire in particular Through his broad and penetrating reading Li demonstrates incontrovertibly how to seventeenth century writers qing and religion were inextricably linked To those writers qing could bring enlightenment and certainly Li s study enlightens its readers to new levels of complexity in major literary works of that period Transmutations of Desire sets a major new milestone in the study of traditional Chinese culture Robert E Hegel Washington University in St Louis New American Short Stories ,1989

Faelorehn: A Young Adult Dark Fae Romance Novel Jenna Elizabeth Johnson,2012-04-21 Haunted by eerie visions Guarded by a captivating warrior Hunted by a vengeful goddess And that s just the start of Meghan s troubles with the fae Meghan Elam has been strange her entire life Her eyes have this odd habit of changing color and she sees and hears things no one else can On the eve of her seventeenth birthday the visions and voices in her head grow worse making her believe she s lost her mind That is until the captivating Cade MacRoich arrives with an explanation of his own Cade brings Meghan news of Eile an enchanted Celtic realm brimming with ancient magic a world where whispering spirits exist in the very earth and a place where Meghan just might find the answers she has always sought Celtic lore blends beautifully with the modern world in this young adult paranormal romance series starter The Geographies of African American Short Fiction Kenton

Rambsy,2022-03-25 Perhaps the brevity of short fiction accounts for the relatively scant attention devoted to it by scholars who have historically concentrated on longer prose narratives The Geographies of African American Short Fiction seeks to fill this gap by analyzing the ways African American short story writers plotted a diverse range of characters across multiple locations small towns a famous metropolis city sidewalks a rural wooded area apartment buildings a pond a general store a prison and more In the process these writers highlighted the extents to which places and spaces shaped or situated racial representations Presenting African American short story writers as cultural cartographers author Kenton Rambsy documents the variety of geographical references within their short stories to show how these authors make cultural spaces integral to their artwork and inscribe their stories with layered and resonant social histories The history of these short stories also documents the circulation of compositions across dozens of literary collections for nearly a century Anthology editors solidified the significance of a core group of short story authors including James Baldwin Toni Cade Bambara Charles Chesnutt Ralph Ellison Zora Neale Hurston and Richard Wright Using quantitative information and an extensive literary dataset The Geographies of African American Short Fiction explores how editorial practices shaped the canon of African American short fiction 2010 Novel & Short Story Writer's Market Alice Pope,2009-07-23 BEST RESOURCE

AVAILABLE FOR GETTING YOUR FICTION PUBLISHED For three decades fiction writers have turned to Novel tips from editors and authors on how to get published exercises to improve your craft and more Features devoted to genre writing including romance mystery and speculative fiction And new this year access to all Novel Short Story Writer s Market listings in a searchable online database Fugitive Time Matthew Omelsky,2023-11-03 In Fugitive Time Matthew Omelsky theorizes the embodied experience of time in twentieth and twenty first century black artforms from across the world Through the lens of time he charts the sensations and coursing thoughts that accompany desires for freedom as they appear in the work of artists as varied as Toni Morrison Yvonne Vera Aim C saire and Issa Samb Fugitive time names a distinct utopian desire directed at the anticipated moment when the body and mind have been unburdened of the violence that has consumed black life globally for centuries bringing with it a new form of being Omelsky shows how fugitive time is not about attaining this transcendent release but is instead about sustaining the idea of it as an ecstatic social gathering From the desire for ethereal queer worlds in the Black Audio Film Collective's Twilight City to Sun Ra's transformation of nineteenth century scientific racism into an insurgent fugitive aesthetic Omelsky shows how fugitive time evolves and how it remains a dominant form of imagining freedom in global black cultural expression The Erotic Bird Maurice Natanson, 2021-09-14

How does literature illuminate the way we live Maurice Natanson a prominent champion of phenomenology draws upon this method's unique power to show how fiction can highlight aspects of experience that are normally left unexamined By exploring the structure of the everyday world Natanson reveals the uncanny that lies at the core of the ordinary Phenomenology which involves the questioning of that which we usually take for granted is for Natanson the essence of philosophy Drawing upon his philosophical predecessors Edmund Husserl Alfred Schutz and Jean Paul Sartre Natanson paves his own way with stories and examples that themselves bear witness to how phenomenology occurs in literature In considering such works as Samuel Beckett's Waiting for Godot Thomas Mann's The Magic Mountain and Franz Kafka's The Metamorphosis Natanson shows how literature opens us to the domain of possibility and how metaphor offers philosophical power when we think about freedom and change This book written by one of the twentieth century's leading phenomenologists will interest students in philosophy and in literature They will value the work particularly for its clarification of concepts and terms that frequently emerge in the contemporary intellectual climate A Reader's Guide to Nabokov's "Lolita" Julian W. Connolly, 2009 Vladimir Nabokov's Lolita is one of the most fascinating and controversial novels of the twentieth century This book seeks to guide readers through the intricacies of Nabokov's work and to help them achieve a better understanding of his rich artistic design Chapters include an analysis of the novel a discussion of its precursors in Nabokov's work and in world literature an essay on the character of Dolly Haze Humbert's Lolita and a commentary on the critical and cultural afterlife of the novel The volume concludes with an annotated bibliography of selected critical reading The guide should prove illuminating both for first time readers of Lolita and for experienced readers of Nabokov's text Book Jacket
