Yohanan Elihai:

The Nun in the Synagogue Emma O'Donnell Polyakov, 2020-09-11 The Nun in the Synagogue documents the religious and cultural phenomenon of Judeocentric Catholicism that arose in the wake of the Holocaust fueled by survivors who converted to Catholicism and immigrated to Israel as well as by Catholics determined to address the anti Judaism inherent in the Church Through an ethnographic study of selected nuns and monks Emma O'Donnell Polyakov explores how this Judeocentric Catholic phenomenon began and continues to take shape in Israel This book is a case study in Catholic perceptions of Jews Judaism and the state of Israel during a time of rapidly changing theological and cultural contexts In it Polyakov listens to and analyzes the stories of individuals living on the border between Christian and Jewish identity including Jewish converts to Catholicism who continue to harbor a strong sense of Jewish identity and philosemitic Catholics who attend synagogue services every Shabbat Polyakov traces the societal theological and personal influences that have given rise to this phenomenon and presents a balanced analysis that addresses the hermeneutical problems of interpreting Jews through Christian frameworks Ultimately she argues that despite its problems this movement signals a pluralistic evolution of Catholic understandings of Judaism and may prove to be a harbinger of future directions in Jewish Christian relations Highly original and methodologically sophisticated The Nun in the Synagogue is a captivating exploration of biographical narratives and reflections on faith conversion Holocaust trauma Zionism and religious identity that lays the groundwork for future research in the field

A Liminal Church Maria Chiara Rioli, 2020-08-25 The history of the Palestine War does not only concern military history It also involves social humanitarian and religious history as in the case of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Jerusalem A Liminal Church offers a complex narrative of the Latin patriarchal diocese commonly portrayed as monolithically aligned with anti Zionist and anti Muslim positions during the long year of 1948 Making use of largely unpublished archives in the Middle East Europe and the United States including the recently released Pius XII papers Maria Chiara Rioli depicts a church engaged in multiple and sometimes contradictory pastoral initiatives amid harsh battles relief missions for Palestinian refugees theological reflections on Jewish converts to Catholicism political relations with the Israeli and Jordanian authorities and liturgical responses to a fluid and uncertain scenario The pieces of this history include the Jerusalem grand mufti's appeal to Pius XII to support the Arab cause the Catholic liturgies for peace and international mobilization during the Palestine War and Suez crisis refugees petitioning the patriarch for aid and Jewish converts establishing Christian kibbutzim New archival collections and records reveal hidden aspects of the lives of women children and other silenced actors faith communities and religious institutions during and after 1948 connecting narratives that have been marginalized by a dominant historiography more focused on military campaigns or confessional conflicts A Liminal Church weaves diocesan history with global history In the momentous decade from 1946 to 1956 the study of the transnational Jerusalem Latin diocese as split between Israel Jordan Egypt and Cyprus with ties to diaspora and religious international networks and comprising clergy from all over the world attests to the possibilities of contrapuntal narratives reintroducing complexity to a deeply and painfully polarized debate exposing false assumptions and situating changes and ruptures in a long term perspective Mystic in the New World: Marie de l'Incarnation (1599-1672) Anya Mali,2021-11-01

As one of the first female missionaries to the New World and the author of a classic mystical autobiography Marie de l'Incarnation has long been seen as an exemplary type reflecting the mood and aims of the Catholic Reformation In contrast to studies which portray her against the backdrop of religious trends in Catholic Reformation France this book argues that the New France wilderness was the crucial context for the formation of her spiritual identity Marie de l'Incarnation brought her traditional notions to bear on her encounter with the Amerindians but was soon compelled to adjust her views on the natives and the nature of religious experience A close textual analysis of her writings makes it clear that her mysticism was informed by the images of her tradition but also gave new meaning to old concepts Beyond its relevance for those interested in this mystic the book addresses the broader issue of shifting attitudes and boundaries in early modern religious life and demonstrates the need for more variegated typologies of mystical experience in studies on spiritual literature Hebrew in the Church Pinchas E. Lapide,1984-12 This is a print on demand book and is therefore non returnable This book represents the only comprehensive attempt made thus far to survey all the efforts among Christians and Jews from New Testament times onward to translate the New Testament and the Christian liturgy into Hebrew Whether the translators were intended to convert the Jews or to equip them with information necessary for the discussion of religion with Christians they served to promote conversation and overcome divisions The author s intimate knowledge of not only Biblical but also Michnaic and Modern Hebrew has enabled him to appreciate the various efforts at translation with acute sensitivity Thus the book is virtually a catalog of successes and failures in mutual understanding More than the mere data of history Hebrew in the Church is a penetrating contribution to the entire history of Jewish Christian relations It sheds fresh light on history itself and it suggests important implications for anyone concerned with the exegesis of the New Testament This unprecedented volume should receive the serious attention not only of specialists but of all who work for a new understanding between Christians and Jews Restoring the Gospels' Jewish Voice Watson, Murray,2023 Although Chouraqui and his work are well known and celebrated in many parts of the world especially in Israel and in the francophone world he is almost completely unknown in the anglophone world This book represents an attempt to introduce his important work and inspiring legacy to an English speaking audience and to explore how it can enrich Jewish Christian dialogue today As a bilingual translator and Biblical scholar I am able to make Chouraqui s work accessible to English speakers who are unfamiliar with him who may be intrigued by him but unable to directly access much of the material written by and about him in French Arabic

Instruction in Israel Allon Uhlmann,2017-07-10 In Arabic Instruction in Israel Allon J Uhlmann confronts two conundrums namely the persistently poor level of Arabic proficiency among Jewish Arabic students and teachers and the traumatic alienation of Arab students by university Arabic grammar instruction These are not aberrations but rather direct albeit unintended systemic consequences of the field of Arabic instruction where Jewish students encounter Arabic as a dead hostile language Jewish hegemony devalues native Arabic proficiency and Arab students are locked into a fractured educational trajectory encountering two alienating and mutually unintelligible grammars of Arabic at school and at university By tracing systemic variabilities in cognition and learning Uhlmann exposes hitherto misrecognised dynamics that hinder Arabic instruction in Israel thereby offering new avenues for possible change Arabic between State and Nation Camelia Suleiman, 2022-11-17 In order to better understand the political conditions of the Arabic language in Israel a comparison with the political conditions of Arabic in the Levant as well as the Diaspora is necessary Comparison consists of macro factors such as nation state building and at the micro level the daily public usage of Arabic While the relationship between language and nationhood is well documented study of the unique socio political situation of the use of Arabic in the Jewish state and in particular language usage in East Jerusalem has hitherto not been addressed The removal of Arabic as an official language in Israel in 2018 has major implications for Israeli/Palestinian accommodation Research for the book relied on ethnographic fieldwork as well as sociolinguistic literature Investigation is wide ranging distinguishing the different public presences of language the state of literacy publishing education and formal and informal interviews with students teachers and journalists Linguists often consider the Levant to belong to one dialect group but post 1918 people in the Levant have had to deal with separate political realities and language differences reflect their unique political and social circumstances The history of European colonialism is but one influencing factor Diaspora comparison engages with the US city of Dearborn Michigan home to the largest Arab American community in one locality How does this community find meaning in both being American and a threat to national security This dilemma is mirrored in the life of Palestinians in Israel Security and securitisation are relational concepts Rampton and Charalambous 2019 and language plays a large part in personal sense of belonging Analytical tools such as the concept of seamline Eyal 2006 and indexicality Silverstein 1979 assist in coming to terms with the metapragmatic meanings of language This important book reaches far beyond linguistic difference it goes to the heart of political social and economic despair faced by multiple communities
