You Cant Fix Everything A Husbands Perspective On Dealing With Breast Cancer:

You Can't Fix Everything John W. Boyd, Sharon F. Boyd, 2011-01 The author's wife was diagnosed with breast cancer. He wrote this book to help husbands understand and be a part of the treatment and recovery process. This is a chronicle of the journey he and his wife faced together.

Cancer Survivorship Coping Tools - We'll Get you Through This Barbara Tako, 2015-03-27 Hearing the words "You have cancer" can be devastating. Some cancer patients even say that the emotional pain and loss of certainty from hearing this are worse than the pains from the cancer surgeries, radiation, chemotherapy, and other treatments. This is the intimate journey of a melanoma and breast cancer survivor who honestly and sometimes even humorously shares her own story and offers supportive emotional tools to help people diagnosed with cancer and their loved ones and caregivers work through the emotional pain and upheaval of a cancer diagnosis. You will be supported in knowing what it feels like to hear you have cancer and be given a variety of helpful ideas to start feeling better, whether you are newly diagnosed, in treatment, or months or years after treatment. If you are a caregiver, friend, or family member who wants to help you, you will get a better understanding of the cancer experience as well as tools to help the person you care about.

My Life --- Such As It Is Bonnetta Carol Caraway, 2012-08-09 When I started writing this journal, I had no intentions anyone else would even see a page of this because it had the worst of my life, and I didn't want anyone I love to read it and lose respect in the person I push in public. I'm a very shy and very naive person. I am basically a loner. It is very hard for me to make friends, so I stay home a lot. Not too long ago, even in my old age, I found a very wonderful person that could see into my soul and pull me out. Diane and I have gotten to be the best of friends. Her name is Diane Wilson, and she is the most wonderful, loving, caring friend I know. She listens to all my troubles and gives me advice, even though she has more than her share of troubles. She talks, and I feel that I do have purpose in life. She is the sister I never had. She has so many problems, but she finds the time to be my best friend. I never liked this town because the roll the streets up in the evening, well, it does seem like it. There aren't any places to go, nothing to see. Not for the adults, not for the kids. But my sister pal texts me and asks if Paul has any coffee left, or we will go out. We call that our gal pal time. We just go to McD's and have a coke or a frappe, and I tell her my troubles, and she tells me her troubles. We would talk for ages and cry in our frepe. I would like to thank everyone for all the time they have spent making it possible for a shy, scared, great grandmother to share her life, such as it is.

Learning to Cry Louise Hyland, 2013-04-17 Learning to Cry will have you traipsing through the bush of South Africa, living the opulent Orange County, California lifestyle, and enjoying a pint in middle class England. The sudden loss of her father in the middle of Africa creates a stirring in the author to discover who she is, where she's from, and where she really belongs. The journey across three continents uncovers secrets, lessons about family, and finally unconditional love and acceptance. The journey, both devastating and empowering, provides her with the courage to make life-altering decisions in search of true happiness.

Women in Breast Cancer: 2022, volume II Margaret Gatti-Mays, Rachel Wuerstlein, Ariella Hanker, 2023-11-08 We are delighted to present the Frontiers in Oncology Women in Breast Cancer Volume II series of article collections At present less than 30% of researchers worldwide are women Long standing biases and gender stereotypes are discouraging girls and women away from science related fields and STEM research in particular Science and gender equality are however essential to ensure sustainable development as highlighted by UNESCO In order to change traditional mindsets gender equality must be promoted stereotypes defeated and girls and women should be encouraged to pursue STEM careers We Survived Breast Cancer Craig Simon,2020-09-01 The author s experience revealed that there was little resource for a husband in coping with the emotional and physical rollercoaster that came with his wife s cancer Writing this book the author provides information such as how to best support your wife deal with medical aspects handle his emotions navigate insurance and financial matters Several resources and a glossary of cancer related terms is included to help the husband and wife

Imagine Living Life Well with Perspective & Perseverance Maureen Whitaker,2024-09-03 Imagine Living Life Well with Perspective and Perseverance Real Life and Medieval Society with Discretion Being the Better Part of Valor Book Six of the Book Series Volume VII What Is Happening Now Alas my story line was not finished Anna and Michael had more things happening in their lives Anna delved into her metaphysical authorship to discover there were many documents which are still viable in the current times They continued to provide seminars and compiled a book since they felt it is the end of the line for seminars due to some Life Challenges One of the challenges was a medical condition Michael had so they went to Bremerton for Michael s surgery It took a time to recover They went to Hawaii for a vacation once Michael was up to it As time passed Anna found more spiritual documents Michael would read them and they discussed them Dave Langley MD declined and met his demise A time after they downsized their motorcoach and went on some trips Michael did some work for the US Air Force and was on a task force for medical protocols which was at Bremerton and later on they went to Washington DC for the final steps Michael had a situation happen when they flew back to Portland as he had to as a medical doctor assistant with a sudden need to be the only medical doctor on the plane and a few days later he landed in the hospital with another Life Challenge One really neat thing is a list of terms Anna developed and it is included Eventually things were going well and Anna and Michael resumed taking trips in their motorcoach This wrapped it up and Volume VII is the end of the story line

Clinical Perspectives on Elderly Sexuality Jennifer L. Hillman,2013-03-14 Throughout my clinical training and practice I have been surprised by the number of times that sexual issues have emerged as an unexpectedly central feature in my work with older adults I can vividly remember my own internal reaction on hearing one of my elderly female patients tell me that she was date raped a few years after the death of her elderly husband when she was 68 years old I can see in my mind s eye the blood splattered on the floor of an inpatient unit from an elderly man who smashed his arm through a window furious that his antidepressant medication made it impossible to climax through masturbation On a much less dramatic but equally important note I think about the elderly amputee who told me softly about his fears of resuming sexual activity with his wife of 25 years I also think about the elderly woman whose inability to take herself shopping to find fashionable comfortable clothes to fit over her hunched shoulders and large breasts helped precipitate a serious depression In sum I learned early on that elderly sexuality is not just about how many times a week someone makes love It is my hope that sharing these experiences and introducing the related theories research and interventions will assist other clinicians in dealing with these often challenging and clinically demanding situations Without my patients this text would not have been possible
