Theology And Marxism In Eagleton And Žižek A Conspiracy Of Hope:

Theology and Marxism in Eagleton and Žižek O. Sigurdson, 2012-05-07 Taking its cue from the renewed interest in theology among Marxist and politically radical philosophers or thinkers this study inquires into the reasons for this interest in theology focusing on the British literary theorist Terry Eagleton and the Slovenian philosopher and psychoanalyst Slavoj Žižek as two contemporary prominent Marxist thinkers Žižek Reading Bonhoeffer Bojan Koltaj, 2019-08-23 This book critically examines Bonhoeffer's social theology in Sanctorum Communio from the perspective of Žižek's theological materialism. Specifically it refers to Žižek's struggling universality of abandonment and its ethic of indifference in consideration of Bonhoeffer's transcendental personalist community of saints and its ethic of universal love. As such it represents an attempt to reflect on the content, act and implication of theological thought without presuppositions and an argument for the necessity of such an approach, a radical approach that is true to theology's critical character of challenging narratives and revealing exceptions in search of truth.

The Psychotheology of Sin and Salvation Paul V. Axton, 2015-10-22 Through the employment of the work of Slavoj Žižek and his engagement with the Apostle Paul, Axton argues that Paul in Romans 6:8 understands sin as a lie grounding the subject outside of Christ and salvation is an exposure and displacement of this lie. The theological significance of Žižek along with Sigmund Freud and Jacques Lacan is his demonstration of the pervasive and systemic nature of this lie and its description as he finds it in Romans 7. The specific overlap of the two disciplines of psychology and theology is found in the psychoanalytic understanding that the human Subject or the psyche is structured in three registers: the symbolic, the imaginary and the real. These three registers function like a lie analogous to the Pauline categories of law, ego and the body of death which constitute Paul's dynamic of sin's deception. Axton argues that if sin is understood as a lie grounding the Subject, the exposure of the lie or the dispelling of any notion of mystery connected to sin is integral to salvation and the reconstructing of the Subject in Christ. While the lie of sin is mediated by the law, new life in the Spirit is not through the law but is a principle unto itself which though it accounts for the law is beyond the law.

Religious Resistance to Neoliberalism Keri Day, 2016-04-29 Religious Resistance to Neoliberalism offers compelling and intersectional religious critiques of neoliberalism. Neoliberalism is the normative rationality of contemporary global capitalism that orders people to live by the generalized principle of competition in all social spheres of life. Keri Day asserts that neoliberalism and its moral orientations consequently breed radical distrust, lovelessness, disconnection and alienation within society. She argues that engaging black feminist and womanist religious perspectives with Jewish and Christian discourses offers more robust critiques of a neoliberal economy. Employing womanist and black feminist religious perspectives, this book provides six theoretical, theologically constructive arguments to challenge the moral fragmentation associated with global markets. It strives to envision a pragmatic politics of hope.

The Reception of Paul the Apostle in the Works of Slavoj Žižek Ole Jakob Løland, 2018-06-20 This is the first book devoted entirely to exploring Žižek's peculiar kind of Paulinism. It seeks to provide a full map of the Marxist philosopher's interpretations of Paul and critically engage with it. As one of several radical leftists of European critical thought, Iek embraces the legacy of an ancient apostle in fascinating ways. This work considers Iek's philosophical and political readings of Paul through the lens of reception history and argues that through this recent philosophical turn to Paul, notions of the historical and philosophical are reproduced and negotiated anew. Marxism, Christianity, and Islam Julian Roche, 2024-02-20

Roger Garaudy was for many years at the centre of the French Communist Party but was eventually expelled for his liberal views. In the Seventies he strove to bring Marxism and Christianity together to include all humanity in a project to set all people free. What emerges from Garaudy's project is a very modern Marxism with its emphasis on the individual, its ecological politics and in its insistence on religion as central to human emancipation. Although Garaudy himself became frustrated by the failure of Marxism and converted to Islam eventually resulting in his work being discredited in the West, it is certainly possible that Garaudy's project represents a good, perhaps even the best starting point for Marxism in today's world. The Dialogical Spirit II Amos Yong, 2024-09-05

The Dialogical Spirit II is a second collection of essays that demonstrates the dialectical contours of Amos Yong's critical pentecostal theology. It is a montage of constructive engagements with various thinkers and ideas in the promotion of theological plurality for the third millennium. With essays on Hegelian dialectics, Buddhist-Christian dialogue, pneumatic missiology, etc., voice is generated for the renewal of relationality and the revival of imagination. Free from the imposition of traditional boundaries, Yong makes his way across differing landscapes of truth in a global environment, gleaning from the activities of reflection and understanding therein. Providing snapshots of Yong's theological development over decades of work, The Dialogical Spirit II further evidences the vitality of pentecostal theology to emerging conversations in constructive and comparative venues. Slavoj Žižek and Christianity Sotiris Mitralaxis, Dionysios Skliris, 2018-07-18

Slavoj Iek's critical engagement with Christian theology goes much further than his seminal The Fragile Absolute 2000 or his The Puppet and the Dwarf 2003 or even his discussion with noted theologian John Milbank in The Monstrosity of Christ 2009. His reading of Christianity utilising his signature elements of Lacanian psychoanalysis and Hegelian philosophy with modern philosophical currents can be seen as a genuinely original contribution to the philosophy of religion. This book focuses on these aspects of Iek's thought with either philosophy and cultural theory or Christian theology serving as starting points of enquiry. Written by a panel of international contributors, each chapter teases out various strands of Iek's thought concerning Christianity and religion and brings them into a wider conversation about the nature of faith. These essays show that far from being an outright rejection of Christian thought and intellectual heritage, Iek's work could be seen as a perverse affirmation thereof. Thus, what he has to say should be of direct interest to Christian theology itself. Touching on thinkers such as Badiou, Lacan, Chesterton and Schelling, this collection is a dynamic reading and re-reading of Iek's relationship to Christianity. As such, scholars of theology, the philosophy of religion, and Iek more generally will all find this book to be of great interest. Trouble In Paradise Slavoj

Zizek, 2015-12-01 In Trouble in Paradise Slavoj Žižek one of our most famous most combative philosophers explains how by drawing on the ideas of communism we can find a way out of the crisis of capitalism There is obviously trouble in the global capitalist paradise But why do we find it so difficult to imagine a way out of the crisis we're in It is as if the trouble feeds on itself the march of capitalism has become inexorable the only game in town Setting out to diagnose the condition of global capitalism the ideological constraints we are faced with in our daily lives and the bleak future promised by this system Slavoj Žižek explores the possibilities and the traps of new emancipatory struggles Drawing insights from phenomena as diverse as Gangnam Style to Marx The Dark Knight to Thatcher Trouble in Paradise is an incisive dissection of the world we inhabit and the new order to come The most dangerous philosopher in the West Adam Kirsch New Republic The most formidably brilliant exponent of psychoanalysis indeed of cultural theory in general to have emerged in many decades Terry Eagleton Žižek leaves no social or cultural phenomenon untheorized and is master of the counterintuitive observation New Yorker
