Transforming The European Economy:

Transforming the European Economy Martin Neil Bailly, Jacob Funk Kirkegaard, 2004-09-10 Europe grew rapidly for many years but now faced with greater challenges several of the large economies in Europe have either failed to generate enough jobs or have failed to achieve the highest levels of productivity or both This study explores why Europe's growth slowed what contribution information technology makes to growth and what policies could facilitate economic transformation It emphasizes a system with strong work incentives and a high level of competitive intensity Europe doesn't need to eliminate its protections for individuals the authors conclude but both social programs and policies toward business must be reoriented so that they encourage economic change

The Eurozone Crisis and the Transformation of EU Governance Maria João Rodrigues, Eleni Xiarchogiannopoulou, 2016-03-16 Research on European governance is central to understanding both the process of European integration and its external influence as a laboratory for multilateralism This volume focuses on the impact of the recent Eurozone crisis and its far reaching implications for European governance both inside and outside the EU borders Ideal for classroom use this volume covers I European modes of governance concepts recent trends and international implications with chapters by Lefkofridi Schmitter Cini Borris and Radaelli II The transformation of European economic governance with contributions by Fabbrini Stoffer Collignon Eising Rasch and Rozbicka III The transformation of European social policy governance with Goetschy Hemerijck de la Porte and Heins IV The international implications of the transformation of EU governance highlighted by Rodrigues Xiarchogiannopoulou and M gge

Europeanisation and the Transformation of EU Security Policy Petros Violakis, 2018-05-15 The aim of this study is to examine the extent to which the end of the Cold War led to Europeanisation in the Common Security and Defence Policy CSDP The analysis takes into consideration previous studies on Europeanisation and its impact on the transformation of national security and defence and attempts to account for the development of Europeanisation and related mechanisms These mechanisms which have been described as framing mechanisms and negative integration incorporate all the major relevant factors identified here i.e. a common Strategic Culture new security identity domestic political decision making industrial base and defence spending decline that contributed to the realisation of the CSDP The relevance of these factors for CSDP Europeanisation is examined through an historical and empirical analysis and the relationship between the CSDP and North Atlantic Treaty Organization NATO is also explored This approach facilitates analysis of the debate concerning the emergence of the CSDP and throws light on the political shift that led European Union EU leaders to support the CSDP Another aspect of this study is the empirical examination of the dynamics and limitations of the European defence sector The changes which took place in this sector facilitated the emergence of the CSDP and are therefore analysed in the light of globalisation issues economies of scale economic crises military autonomy new security strategy and Research and Development R D impact This book will be of interest to students of European security EU politics defence studies and International Relations

Cooperation and Digital Transformation Chux Daniels, Benedikt Erforth, Chloe Teevan, 2022-11-22 Africa Europe Cooperation and Digital Transformation explores the opportunities and challenges for cooperation between Africa and Europe in the digital sphere Digitalisation and digital technologies are not only essential for building competitive and dynamic economies they transform societies pose immense challenges for policymakers and increasingly play a pivotal role in global power relations Digital transformations have had catalytic effects on African and European governance economies and societies and will continue to do so The COVID 19 pandemic has already accelerated the penetration of digital tools all over the globe and is likely to be perceived as a critical juncture in how and to what purpose the world accepts and uses new and emerging technologies This book offers a holistic analysis of how Africa and Europe can manage and harness digital transformation as partners in a globalised world The authors shed light on issues ranging from economic growth youth employment and gender to regulatory frameworks business environments entrepreneurship and interest driven power politics They add much needed perspectives to the debates that shape the two continents digital transformation and innovation environments This book will interest practitioners working in the areas of innovation digital technologies and digital entrepreneurship as well as students and scholars of international relations It will also be relevant for policymakers regulators decision makers and leaders in Africa and Europe The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

Transforming Europe Maria Green Cowles, James Caporaso, Thomas Risse, 2018-08-06 Does the European Union change the domestic politics and institutions of its member states Many studies of EU decisionmaking in Brussels pay little attention to the potential domestic impact of European integration Transforming Europe traces the effects of Europeanization on the EU member states The various chapters based on cutting edge research examine the impact of the EU on national court systems territorial politics societal networks public discourse identity and citizenship norms The European Union the authors find does indeed make a difference even in Germany France and the United Kingdom In many cases EU rules and regulations incompatible with domestic institutions have created pressure for national governments to adapt This volume examines the conditions under which this adaptational pressure has led to institutional change in the member states

Transforming European Employment Policy Ralf Rogowski, Robert Salais, Noel Whiteside, 2011 Since the mid 1990s the focus of European employment and social policy has shifted from protection to promotion This book provides a timely analysis of this new form of governance and the new forms of policy delivery and audit which accompany it The limitations of the current approach became particularly apparent during the financial crisis of 2008 and it has now reached a turning point The book offers a new coherent European reform agenda that views easing transitions in employment and promoting the development of individual and collective capabilities as cornerstones The contributing authors focus on vocational training life course policies reflexive labour law and social insurance from theoretical empirical and practical perspectives Transforming European Employment Policy will be of great benefit to policymakers as well as those researching or studying European law labour law industrial relations political science social policy or international business The Structural Transformation of European Private Law Leone Niglia, 2023-06-15 This book proposes a new analysis of the transformation of Europe through integration exactly 30 years after the beginning of transformation scholarship It consists of a reconstruction of the development and present condition of European integration in relation to private ordering Looking at the interface between on the one hand the EU constitutional order and on the other hand private ordering the book recounts three major structural transformations over the last six decades Delving into the private law areas most exposed to the current modernisation wave consumer law internal market lex mercatoria digitisation artificial intelligence data protection standardised contracts finance and political economy and labour the book critically explores a reconfiguration of Europe's constitutional structures relative to and that results from what to some appears to be an almost irresistible rise of private ordering through a transformed hermeneutics balancing This is a magisterial survey of European law European private law and comparative law seen through a pathbreaking comparative methodology labelled juridical comparative hermeneutics within civil law systems and across the civil common law divide which offers innovative analytical tools that afford a deep understanding of the evolution of the disciplines Proceedings of the XVI International symposium Symorg 2018 Nevenka Žarkić-Joksimović, Sanja Marinković, 2018-06-12 Industrial Transformation in Europe Eckhard J Dittrich, Gert Schmidt, Richard Whitley, 1995 This volume is essential reading for all those interested in emergent developments in Europe At a time when the forces of globalization are demanding industrial and organizational transformations throughout industrialized and industrializing nations the book also makes a notable contribution through its unique analysis of the complexities diversities and socio political embeddedness of such major change Focusing particularly on central and eastern Europe the contributors examine the economic management activities of state agencies in the move from command to market economies and the attempted creation of viable firms for such economies They look at the changing roles of different interest groups and the various forms EIB Investment Report 2019/2020 European Investment Bank, 2019-11-26 The Investment Report issued annually by the European Investment Bank provides a comprehensive overview and analysis of investment and the financing of investment in the European Union It combines the exploration of investment trends with in depth analysis focusing especially on the drivers and barriers to investment activity The report leverages on a unique set of databases and survey data including EIBIS an annual survey of 13 500 firms in Europe which focuses on their assessment of investment and investment finance conditions and which allows analysis with firm balance sheet information The report provides critical inputs to policy debates on the need for public action on investment and on the types of intervention that can have the greatest impact
