of today's New Age religion Treasure of Heaven Marie Corelli, 2020-07-12 We are delighted to publish this classic book as part of our extensive classic literature collection. This book is a reproduction of an important historical work. Unlike some other reproductions of classic texts, we have not used OCR (Optical Character Recognition) as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos. Also, in books where there are images such as portraits, maps, sketches, etc., we have endeavoured to keep the quality of these images so they represent accurately the original artefact. Although occasionally there may be certain imperfections with these old texts, we feel they deserve to be made available for future generations to enjoy. We use state-of-the-art technology to digitally reconstruct the work, preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy. In rare cases, an imperfection in the original, such as a blemish or missing page, may be replicated in our edition. We do, however, repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully; any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works.

On the following evening the cold and frowning aspect of the mansion in Carlton House Terrace underwent a sudden transformation. Lights gleamed from every window, the strip of garden which extended from the rear of the building to the Mall was covered in by red and white awning, and the balcony where the millionaire master of the dwelling had some few hours previously sat talking with his distinguished legal friend Sir Francis Vesey was turned into a kind of lady's bower, softly carpeted, adorned with palms and hothouse roses, and supplied with cushioned chairs for the voluptuous ease of such persons of opposite sexes as might find their way to this suggestive flirtation corner.
