Enterprise Inter- and Intra-Organizational Integration Kurt Kosanke, Roland Jochem, James G. Nell, Angel Ortiz Bas, 2013-06-05 The international initiative on Enterprise Inter and Intra Organisational Integration EI3 IC had the objective to increase both international consensus IC and public awareness on enterprise integration In these proceedings we intend to present the current status in inter and intra organisational integration for electronic commerce and thereby to further increase awareness and consensus within academia and industry about enterprise inter and intra organisational integration The conference proceedings contain the papers presented at the ICEIMT conference in Valencia Spain selected papers presented at the different workshops and three papers on the initiative itself overview history and results The proceedings follow the conference structure with each section Parts 2 to 5 starting with the workgroup reports followed by a particular view on the section theme and additional papers either presented at the conference or during the related workshop Section editorials discuss the different contributions As stated in the paper by Nell and Goranson in section 1 the results from all workshops indicate the important role of business processes in the area of e commerce and virtual enterprises Sharing relevant knowledge between co operating partners and making it available for decision support at all levels of management and across organisational boundaries will significantly enhance the trust between the partners on the different levels of partner operations strategy policy operation and transaction Clearly business process modelling can significantly enhance establishment operation and decomposition of the required collaboration

Advanced Information Systems Engineering Klaus R. Dittrich, Andreas Geppert, Moira C. Norrie, 2003-05-15 Since the late 1980s the CAiSE conferences have provided a forum for the presentation and exchange of research results and practical experiences within the field of Information Systems Engineering CAiSE 2001 was the 13th conference in this series and was held from 4th to 8th June 2001 in the resort of Interlaken located near the three famous Swiss mountains the Eiger Mönch and Jungfrau The first two days consisted of pre conference workshops and tutorials The workshop themes included requirements engineering evaluation of modeling methods data integration over the Web agent oriented information systems and the design and management of data warehouses Continuing the tradition of recent CAiSE conferences there was also a doctoral consortium The pre conference tutorials were on the themes of e business models and XML application development The main conference program included three invited speakers two tutorials and a panel discussion in addition to presentations of the papers in these proceedings We also included a special practice and experience session to give presenters an opportunity to report on and discuss experiences and investigations on the use of methods and technologies in practice We extend our thanks to the members of the program committee and all other referees without whom such conferences would not be possible The program committee whose members came from 20 different countries selected 27 high quality research papers and 3 experience reports from a total of 97 submissions The topics of these papers span the wide range of topics relevant to information systems engineering from requirements and design through to implementation and operation of complex and dynamic systems An Index to Poetry and Recitations Edith Granger, 1918 Reports of Cases Argued and Determined in the Supreme Judicial Court of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts Massachusetts. Supreme Judicial Court, 1839 Breaking the Bonds of Fate John Bellamy Foster, 2025-11-14 The immanent dialectic of the ancient Greek materialist philosopher Epicurus 341 270 BCE helped inspire the nineteenth century ideas of Karl Marx forming the subject of his doctoral dissertation Marx's detailed study of Epicurus led him to develop his own materialist dialectic in distinction to the idealist philosophy of G W F Hegel Until now however there has been no full scholarly treatment of the relation of Epicurus to Marx paying equal attention to both thinkers and examining the long term impact of Epicureanism on Marxist thought Breaking the Bonds of Fate Epicurus and Marx fills this gap Taking into consideration today's revolution in the understanding of Epicurus resulting from the recovery of fragments of his major work On Nature in the carbonized papyri that survived the burying in volcanic ash of the Roman town Herculaneum when Mt Vesuvius erupted in 79 CE it demonstrates that this new interpretation corresponds closely to Marx's nineteenth century treatment of Epicurus The result is to fundamentally transform our contemporary understanding of both Epicurus and Marx The last though logically the first book to be written in a trilogy that also includes John Bellamy Foster's Marx's Ecology Materialism and Nature 2000 and his The Return of Nature Socialism and Ecology 2020 Breaking the Bonds of Fate Epicurus and Marx provides a detailed historical and textual analysis grounding the argument of all three works Not only does this clarify Marx's relation to materialism and ecology but also his analysis of freedom and necessity Both Epicurus philosophy and that of Marx are given new meaning in our time highlighting questions of substantive equality dialectical naturalism and sustainable community
