What the Romans Did for the World Alison Hawes,2010-08 Imagine a world without roads toilets or even towns The Romans brought us many amazing inventions including takeout food shopping trips and toothpaste Discover how the past has shaped the way we live today Teacher s guide available School Library Journal ,2010 The Battles of King Arthur Tony Sullivan,2022-07-20 The ninth century Historia Brittonum is the first source that mentions Arthur and lists twelve battles including the famous Badon Hill Much ink has been spilt debating the identity and location of Arthur This book will demonstrate that some of the battles can indeed be located with some confidence Rather than fit a specific theory as to his identity the battles are placed in the fragmenting provincial political and military context of the late fifth and early sixth century Britain At a time of rapid changes in cultural identity and a significant increase in Germanic material culture and migration These battles might be expected to be found along borders and in zones of potential conflict Yet this is not what is discovered In addition the simplistic idea of Romano Britons holding back invading Anglo Saxons is found wanting Instead we discover a far more nuanced political and cultural situation One with increasing evidence of continuation of land use and the indigenous population The most Romanised and urbanised regions of the south and east are the very areas that experienced the arrival of Germanic settlement The conclusion gives the reader a new insight into what sort of man Arthur was and the nature of the battles he fought Constructing Early Christian Families Halvor Moxnes,2002-06-01 The family is a topical issue for studies of the Ancient world Family household and kinship have different connotations in antiquity from their modern ones This volume expands that discussion to investigate the early Christian family structures within the larger Graeco Roman context Particular emphasis is given to how family metaphors such as brotherhood function to describe relations in early Christian communities Asceticism and the rejection of sexuality are considered in the context of Christian constructions of the family Moxnes volume presents a comprehensive and timely addition to the study of familial and social structures in the Early Christian world which will certainly stimulate further debate The Zondervan 2023 Pastor's Annual T.
