What Was Lost A Christian Journey Through Miscarriage:

What Was Lost Elise Erikson Barrett,2010-01-01 United Methodist pastor Elise Erikson Barrett draws on her own painful experiences as well as on interviews with others who have gone through the devastation of miscarriage in an effort to help women grieve and in time to think theologically about pregnancy loss Barrett also offers some much needed practical advice about breaking the news to others coping with insensitive comments and grieving what is often a private loss unmarked by the world

What Was Lost Elise Erikson Barrett,2010-09-02 United Methodist pastor Elise Erikson Barrett draws on her own painful experiences as well as on interviews with others who have gone through the devastation of miscarriage in an effort to help women grieve and in time to think theologically about pregnancy loss Barrett also offers some much needed practical advice about breaking the news to others coping with insensitive comments and grieving what is often a private loss unmarked by the world

The Quick-Reference Guide to Counseling Women Dr. Tim Clinton,Timothy E. Clinton,Dr. Diane Langberg,2011-09 Internationally recognized AACC President and leading women s counseling expert offer a practical comprehensive and biblical guide to counseling women

Reproductive Justice and the Catholic Church Emily Reimer-Barry,2024-06-10 Pregnancy loss is profoundly complex ambiguous and alienating but telling women who have procured abortions that they are murderers and sinners is not the best way forward Magisterial teachings on abortion are too often presented as moral absolutes when in fact moral absolutism distorts the rich wisdom of the Catholic intellectual tradition This book initiates a new conversation about women s experiences of miscarriage stillbirth and abortion arguing that we need not approach these difficult life experiences in a simplistic way Dr Reimer Barry argues that both the pro life and pro choice movements make important and valuable claims yet each approach on its own is flawed Drawing on the framework of reproductive justice together with Catholic social teaching Dr Reimer Barry suggests a new way forward for abortion discourse that takes seriously the full human dignity of women and the intrinsic though not absolute value of prenatal life She argues that instead of thinking of the Church as a moral teacher with leaders in Rome or Washington DC dictating to the consciences of the faithful a better way to address the complexity of difficult pregnancy discernments would be to think of the Church as a community of support in the midst of and after difficult discernments a community that seeks justice together and implements structural reforms while also providing spiritual care to those in need What women deserve is justice

Birthed Elizabeth Hagan,2016-12-06 When infertility painfully interrupted Elizabeth Hagan s plan to start a family the path of grace offered her another way Instead of giving birth to a child she birthed herself instead Along the way she learned you can t control how fast your dreams come true if they come true at all but you can find grace for embracing your life in the present tense grief and all Through her new book Birthed Elizabeth Hagan offers her story as a companion and guide for living through your own pain and loss For the one in eight couples who face infertility you will know you are not alone and a long season of grief does not have to destroy your marriage or your friendships with childbearing friends For those friends and family members of infertile couples there are no one size fits all answers to a fertility journey medically emotionally or spiritually and the worst thing you can say is nothing at all Adoption is never the complete solution to infertility and through it all pain can never be fixed only lived through So allow grace to help you begin to live today in the present moment

Carrying Them with Us David M. Engelstad, Catherine A. Malotky, 2019-02-01 Carrying Them with Us Living through Pregnancy and Infant Loss is a reflection on what pastors David Engelstad and Catherine Malotky have learned since the day in 1984 when their eight week old daughter Erin died of Sudden Infant Death Syndrome Drawing on their own loss they offer themselves as companions to parents who struggle to deal with the end of an eagerly anticipated pregnancy or the death of a joyfully welcomed baby Readers will find in Carrying Them with Us comfort and wisdom a spiritual perspective and practical guidance The authors also invite into this journey the caregivers family clergy and medical professionals and friends who accompany grieving parents The book is organized around five questions the authors have found central to many parents unfolding story 1 How can this have happened 2 Why do I feel like this 3 How do I keep going 4 What do I make of life after this And 5 Who am I becoming Engelstad and Malotky show readers a path from devastating sadness toward healing a way for grieving parents to keep going and one day to embrace new life

When Kids Ask Hard Questions Bromleigh McCleneghan, Karen Ware Jackson ,2019-10-08 The world is a confusing and painful place for children and adults How do you respond faithfully to your kids big questions Learn to craft faithful conversations and be better prepared to talk about the tough stuff with your kids More than 30 essays from a diverse group of young Christian parents pastors address today s toughest topics including gender race bullying mental illness death divorce money technology and generosity When Kids Ask Hard Questions invites you to take a deep breath create safe spaces for the hard conversations and speak the truth in love Each chapter includes a resource list for further exploration

Calm and Quiet My Soul Alyssa Lynn Bell, 2023-10-19 Self care and soul care are trending topics in Christian leadership circles because ministry leaders know they cannot care for their people unless they care for themselves Pastors who are mothers know this too and yet it can feel like just one more task to manage among the many they carry on their schedules and in their hearts The biblical truth is that spiritual rest is a gift from God not an achievement a refreshing reminder for women who hold the dual roles of mom and minister This book invites women leading in these spaces to remember that the God of the Old and New Testaments the one who pours out replenishment for weary hearts is a God who is Mother as well as Father and mothers them with tenderness and strength Starting here in the arms of a mothering God who whispers beloved changes the tone of spiritual care for her from a chore to an oasis of replenishment that grounds her in her identity in Christ as a daughter of Creator God

Blessed Endurance John R. Wimmer, 2018-01-01 Where is God when we are hurting or in despair How can we find hope even when we feel hopeless Pain struggle and despair are part of life and they test our character as God s people John Wimmer approaches these challenges to our faith realistically and thoughtfully He does not offer easy answers or platitudes like

Everything happens for a reason We can't always understand or control many things that happen to us but we can choose how we respond to our circumstances Wimmer encourages us to view times of difficulty as opportunities for spiritual and personal growth Rather than diminishing our faith pain and despair can lead us to greater trust in God To endure through such times is a blessing This inspiring book offers practical help for moving from pain and despair to hope Wimmer reminds us that with hope we also have faith not the false belief that our lives will be pain free but the assurance that God will be with us through our most challenging times and lead us to deeper levels of spiritual growth and wisdom Birth (Pastoring for Life: Theological Wisdom for Ministering Well) James C. Howell, 2020-04-21 This volume explores the connections between our own birth the experience of having children and the new birth of the Christian life Seasoned pastor James Howell offers theological perspectives on a variety of themes associated with birth such as who we are in light of having once lived in utero why people might have children infertility adoption baptism and how to make sense of it all in light of God coming to us first in Mary's womb and then as an infant The book includes paintings photos and drawings About the Series Pastors are called to help people navigate the profound mysteries of being human from birth to death and everything in between This series edited by leading pastoral theologian Jason Byassee provides pastors and pastors in training with rich theological reflection on the various seasons that make up a human life helping them minister with greater wisdom and joy The Preacher's Wife Kate Bowler, 2020-09-15 Although most evangelical traditions bar women from ordained ministry many women have carved out unofficial positions of power in their husbands' spiritual empires or their own ministries The biggest stars write bestselling books grab high ratings on Christian television and even preach Bowler offers a sympathetic and revealing portrait of megachurch women celebrities showing how they must balance the demands of celebrity culture and conservative male dominated faiths And black celebrity preachers' wives carry a special burden of respectability A compelling account of women's search for spiritual authority in the age of celebrity adapted from jacket We Shall Be Changed The Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society of The Protestant Episcopal Church, 2020-11-17 How will we regather the church after pandemic The Covid 19 pandemic is an inflection point for the church everywhere and certainly for the Episcopal Church The sudden flowering of creativity connection and collaboration is an expression of the Holy Spirit's relentless presence within the church yet ongoing distancing creates difficulties to be overcome on the other side of the present crisis How will we change habits of isolation and regather the church How will we manage the impact on church finances How is God calling us to embrace the energy and creativity of this moment and the longing people have felt for a return to community What challenges will we face regathering the people of God particularly in already weakened communities We Shall Be Changed is a gathering of brief essays from thought leaders around the church on pressing topics that the church needs to be considering now in preparation for the end of this pandemic The book is designed to spur conversation within parishes fellowship groups and clergy gatherings about how to embrace the gifts this time has given while anticipating and addressing the very real challenges the church will confront in its wake No Easy Choice Ellen Painter Dollar,2012-01-31 In No Easy Choice Ellen Painter Dollar tells her gut wrenching story of living with osteogenesis imperfecta OI a disabling genetic bone disorder that was passed down to her first child and deciding whether to conceive a second child who would not have OI using assisted reproduction Her story brings to light the ethical dilemmas surrounding advanced reproductive technologies What do procedures such as in vitro fertilization IVF and preimplantation genetic diagnosis PGD say about how we define human worth If we avoid such procedures are we permitting the suffering of our children How do we identify a good life in a consumer society that values appearance success health and perfection Dollar considers multiple sides of the debate refusing to accept the matter as simply black and white Her book will help parents who want to understand and make good decisions about assisted reproduction as well as those who support and counsel them including pastors and medical professionals

Her Preaching Body Amy Peed McCullough,2018-05-16 The preacher's body is a tool for proclamation a vehicle by which a sermon comes to life Female preachers engaged in a task not long their own know well the added attention directed to their physicality They can experience ordinary decisions about attire accessories hairstyles and movement as complex and occasionally precarious choices around how to bring flesh to their sermons They can also experience the extraordinary power of their bodies when materiality weighs in on the message McCullough explores the every Sunday bodily decisions of contemporary female preachers with an eye to uncovering the meanings about body preaching and God alive underneath Ultimately she argues for a renewed understanding of embodiment in which one's living body inescapably intertwined with her preaching becomes the avenue for greater knowledge about how to preach and deeper insight into the faith professed

The Christian's Journey Through Grief Carol Peters-Tanksley,2019 The apostle Paul said Christians do not grieve in the same way as those who do not have hope 1 Thess 4:13 But that doesn't mean we don't or shouldn't grieve In The Christian's Journey Through Grief Dr Carol Peters Tanksley explores the difference in the Christian's grieving process showing what a healthy grieving process looks like and The Essential Guide to Healthcare Professional Wellness

Kristopher Michael Schroeder,2023-08-31 Healthcare professionals throughout the world heed a calling that compels them to devote their lives to the treatment of their patients While this work is generally rewarding these professionals frequently fall victim to stressors and happiness barriers that impact their ability to function at work the longevity of their career and the quality of their relationships outside of the hospital Burnout diminished career fulfillment substance abuse and suicide data for healthcare professionals demonstrate that the risks to this population are incredibly real Unfortunately there is nothing to suggest that any of these stressors are improving as pandemics access disparities changes in healthcare system structure and patient complexity further escalate work related challenges Thankfully there are sources of help readily available to each of us All healthcare professionals have encountered a colleague mentor or expert who has already navigated or has a perspective on how to thrive in the setting of hardship This book will organize the voices of these leaders in a way that provides readers with a source for advice and inspiration Sections of chapters are dedicated to work life balance family finances faith resiliency and recovery For those healthcare workers actively caring for patients and struggling with their career this book will serve as a source of solace and inspiration that should help to reinvigorate and extend a successful career

Grieving Together Laura Kelly Fanucci,Franco David Fanucci,2018-10-04 The Lord is close to the brokenhearted saves those whose spirit is crushed Ps 34 19 You might feel in the days and weeks after a miscarriage like the Lord is anything but close Laura and Franco Fanucci understand After struggling with infertility they miscarried their third child in the first trimester Later their twin daughters were born prematurely and lived only a few days Laura and Franco are here to tell you that while your miscarriage is a deeply personal loss you are not alone Grieving Together is written by a couple specifically for couples understanding that both spouses have experienced a loss and grieve differently Drawing from Catholic tradition and teaching Laura and Franco gently guide you through The physical and emotional experiences of miscarriage including help in making the hardest decisions How couples respond to grief and how to support each other Turning to family friends and the Church finding help and support from loved ones and your Church community The future after miscarriage where to go from here as a couple Grieving Together is the book the Fanuccis had wished for after their miscarriage Practical resources include Scripture prayers and official Catholic rites It also speaks to the unique concerns of fathers and includes many real life stories from couples in many different circumstances We are fellow travelers on the road parents who have suffered significant losses yet have grown in our marriage because of the gifts of our children s lives Laura and Franco Fanucci Click here to register for the related webcast
