Patrick White and God Michael Giffin, 2017-05-11 The novels of Australia's Nobel Laureate Patrick White 1912 1990 are a persistent commentary on Nietzsche's proclamation of God's death As White knew the proclamation was not about God's existence but about classical views of God it presented him with the impossible task of using language to describe what language cannot describe This has always been one of the more misunderstood aspects of his literary vision Because the announcement is often interpreted in antithetical ways atheistic theistic secular religious humanistic and fatalistic critics should gain a better understanding of what White was trying to achieve by comparing him with his post war contemporaries from England Scotland and Canada Iris Murdoch William Golding Muriel Spark and Robertson Davies After and because of the war these authors all commented on the consequences of God's death Along with White they worked with a shared pattern of tropes to explore the light and dark aspects of western consciousness and the civilization it has produced Where did the pattern come from Was it metaphysical or metapsychological These questions are complex as the pattern came from many sources simultaneously and synergistically

but this book tackles these questions by describing that pattern Robertson Davies Nicholas Maes,2009-03-23 Born in Thamesville Ontario a student at Queen s University in Kingston in the 1930s and editor and later publisher of the Peterborough Examiner from the 1940s to the mid 1960s playwright essayist critic professor and novelist Robertson Davies 1913 1995 was one of Canada s pre eminent literary voices for more than a half century Davies with his generous beard and donnish manner was the very epitome of the man of letters a term he abhorred Best known for his Deptford Trilogy of novels Fifth Business The Manticore World of Wonders he also wrote two other trilogies Salterton and Cornish and was at work on the third volume of another trilogy Toronto when he died With a life as rich in character and colour as that found in his fiction and essays Davies had a great fondness for magic and myth both of which are found in abundance in his work along with a prodigious streak of wry humour E.T.A. Hoffmann's Musical Aesthetics Abigail Chantler,2017-07-05 Whilst E T A Hoffmann 1776 1822 is most widely known as the author of fantastic tales he was also prolific as a music critic productive as a composer and active as a conductor This book examines Hoffmann s aesthetic thought within the broader context of the history of ideas of the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries and explores the relationship between his musical aesthetics and compositional practice The first three chapters consider his ideas about creativity and aesthetic appreciation in relation to the thought of other German romantic theorists discussing the central tenets of his musical aesthetic the idea of a religion of art of the composer as a genius and the listener as a passive genius In particular the relationship between the multifaceted thought of Hoffmann and Friedrich Schleiermacher is explored providing some insight into the way in which diverse intellectual traditions converged in early nineteenth century Germany In the second half of the book Hoffmann s dialectical view of music history and his conception of romantic opera are discussed in relation to his activities as a composer with reference to his instrumental music and his two mature large scale operas Aurora and Undine The author also addresses broader issues pertaining to the ideological and historical significance of Hoffmann s musical and literary oeuvre Literary Trips Victoria Brooks,2000 24 more tales representing the very best in travel writing plus thoroughly researched guidebook information Canadian Literary Bundle Nicholas Maes,Heather Kirk,Anne Cimon,André Vanasse,2013-12-13 Presenting four titles in the Quest Biography series that profiles prominent figures in Canada s history In these books we explore Canada s literary heritage Canadian letters have a prominent place in world literature and its renown can be traced to authors such as these Profiled are pioneer chronicler of the wilderness Susanna Moodie renowned novelist Robertson Davies Quebec fiction writer Gabrielle Roy and early twentieth century bestseller Mazo de la Roche Includes Susanna Moodie Mazo de la Roche Gabrielle Roy Robertson Davies Quest Biography 35-Book Bundle Judith Fitzgerald,Michelle Labrèche-Larouche,Kate Braid,T.F.
