Architecture and Identity Peter Herrle,Erik Wegerhoff,2008 This book brings together complex fields of knowledge and globally splintered discourses on a subject that is experienced not only by scholars but in the everyday lives of people around the world There is a common complaint about the loss of identity which to a substantial degree is being associated with the built environment in cities and specifically with their architecture Architecture and Identity takes a global multidisciplinary look on how identities in contemporary architecture are constructed The general hypothesis underlying this book is that in a globalized world identity in architecture cannot be easily derived from distinct indigenous patterns The book presents forty contributions from various disciplines aiming to destroy the myth of an inheritable or otherwise prefabricated identity Some authors dismantle constructs of identity that have long been considered as solid and unbreakable while others meticulously unravel the construction process of identities in

Architecture as Civil Commitment: Lucio Costa's Modernist Project for Brazil Gaia Piccarolo,2019-11-04 Architecture as Civil Commitment analyses the many ways in which Lucio Costa shaped the discourse of Brazilian modern architecture tracing the roots developments and counter marches of a singular form of engagement that programmatically chose to act by cultural means rather than by political ones Split into five chapters the book addresses specific case studies of Costa's professional activity pointing towards his multiple roles in the Brazilian federal government and focusing on passages of his work that are much less known outside of Brazil such as his role inside Estado Novo bureaucracy his leadership at SPHAN and his participation in UNESCO's headquarters project all the way to the design of Brasilia Digging deep into the original documents the book crafts a powerful historical reconstruction that gives the international readership a detailed picture of one of the most fascinating architects of the 20th century in all his contradictory geniality It is an ideal read for those interested in Brazilian modernism students and scholars of architectural and urban planning history socio cultural and political history and visual arts

Iberia and the Americas John Michael Francis, 2005-11-21 This comprehensive encyclopedia covers the reciprocal effects that the politics foreign policy and culture of Spain Portugal and the American nations have had on one another since the time of Columbus From the discovery of Newfoundland and Labrador by Portuguese explorer Gaspar Corte Real in 1501 to the phenomenal Hollywood careers of Spanish movie stars such as Antonio Banderas and Penelope Cruz Iberia and the Americas traces 500 years of Iberian influence on the Americas and vice versa Featuring six introductory essays and a chronology of key events this three volume encyclopedia examines more than five centuries of transatlantic encounters Students of a wide range of disciplines as well as the lay reader will appreciate this exhaustive survey which traces Spanish and Portuguese influence throughout the Americas and highlights how Iberian cultures have in turn been enriched by the diverse cultures of the Americas

Sustainable Lina Annette Condello, Steffen Lehmann, 2016-08-30 This essential book unravels the link between regional cultures adaptive reuse of existing buildings and sustainability It concentrates on the social dimensions relating to Brazilian architect Lina Bo Bardi's late adaptive reuse projects and works from the 1960s to the early 1990s interpreting her themes technical sources and design strategies of the creation of luxury as sustainability The edited book charts how Lina Bo Bardi invented her own version of sustainability introduced this concept through her landscape and adaptive reuse designs and through ideas about cross cultures in Brazil The book offers a critical reflection exploration and demonstration of the importance of adaptive reuse in the landscape and related themes for researchers and provides researchers and students new material on sustainability for further study In the context of the plurality of revisions of Lina Bo Bardi's work this book brings about a refreshed interpretation of her integrative approach to adaptive reuse of buildings and landscapes as a significant contribution to the sustainability debate It offers new insights into the construction of discourses about sustainability from the perspective of one of the key architects in the period to operate in the interface between modernity and tradition Dr Fabiano Lemes de Oliveira Senior Lecturer University of Portsmouth UK Adaptability is one of the most important words in sustainable architecture today From this perspective this book looks at the work of a master of Brazilian modernism with lessons to be learnt on how to qualify indoor and outdoor spaces in social environmental and architectural terms Adaptive strategies as those seen throughout the work of Bo Bardi are key instrument tools concept to sustainable buildings and cities Professor Joana Carla Soares Goncalves FAU University of Sao Paulo Brazil The year 2015 marked the centenary of Lina Bo Bardi This book is looking at Bardi s work through the perspective of adaptive reuse Bringing together specialists on sustainability with specialists of Lina s work the book generates an interesting new layer of discussion on the work of an architect that was never shy of controversy Associate Professor Fernando Luiz Lara University of Texas at Austin USA This collection of essays makes a very important and engaging contribution to suggest that to take Lina as an inspiration is to deal with her contradictions and to evaluate the stakes of what she struggled with in a 21st century world What the authors gathered here and have laid out is a very timely invitation to discern Lessons from Lina in relationship to today s pressing issues of architecture and environment sustainability recycling and developing an ethical design position in a world of diminishing resources and escalating challenges Prof Barry Bergdoll Columbia University and MoMA New York USA The book features a Foreword by Barry Bergdoll Winner of the Curtin University Humanities Research Award 2017 for Best Book of the Year Oct 2017 Here the judges appraisal An elegantly conceptualised and carefully crafted volume that represents the work of the twentieth century Brazilian architect Lina Bo Bardi through the lens of urgent contemporary questions of sustainability adaptive re use and ethical design The book brings together a multidisciplinary and international collection of authors and addresses a global readership It is beautifully presented and intelligently edited Jury Book Award 2017 Winner of the Curtin University Humanities Research Award 2017 for Best Chapter of the Year Sept 2017 Annette Condello Chapter 3 Salvaging the Site s Luxuriance Lina Bo Bardi Landscape Architect Here the judges appraisal A richly textured investigation of Lina Bo Bardi a complex fascinating and important Italian born Brazilian architect designer and co founder of the magazine Habitat This chapter is a thoughtful and respectful but also critical piece combining thorough research with deft analysis and carefully selected images and the publication has been highly recommended by leading academics and curators Jury Book Award 2017 Modern Architecture in Latin America Luis E. Carranza, Fernando Luiz Lara, 2015-01-05 Modern Architecture in Latin America Art Technology and Utopia is an introductory text on the issues polemics and works that represent the complex processes of political economic and cultural modernization in the twentieth century The number and types of projects varied greatly from country to country but as a whole the region produced a significant body of architecture that has never before been presented in a single volume in any language Modern Architecture in Latin America is the first comprehensive history of this important production Designed as a survey and focused on key examples paradigms arranged chronologically from 1903 to 2003 this volume covers a myriad of countries historical social and political conditions and projects developments that range from small houses to urban plans to architectural movements The book is structured so that it can be read in a variety of ways as a historically developed narrative of modern architecture in Latin America as a country specific chronology or as a treatment of traditions centered on issues of art technology or utopia This structure allows readers to see the development of multiple and parallel branches historical strands of architecture and at times their interconnections across countries The authors provide a critical evaluation of the movements presented in relationship to their overall goals and architectural transformations
