Verbal Index to All the Passages in the Dramatic Works of the Poet Mary Cowden- Clarke,1845 When the Church Woke William B. Lawrence,2022-10-21 The most divisive and damaging aspect of the church in America is the combination of racism and white supremacy that has been woven into the fabric of the church to the degree that one cannot discuss the church in America apart from this sin Nowhere is this clearer than in American Methodism including The United Methodist Church That denomination which has been divided for decades over issues regarding human sexuality and homosexuality is a product of a long history of racism and white supremacy While initiatives have been taken to address these matters there has not been any effort to help the church focus on being anti racist in its practices or public witness at every level including local church levels This is a book that identifies this sin and offers an innovative look at the mission of the church based on biblical witnesses to new life with the resurrection It offers proposals for reparations and renewal that will come when the church woke Yale Alumni Weekly ,1907 The Stratified Leadership Model of the First-Century Christian Church

Barton S. Garratt Edsall,2025-07-29 This research work aims to present a solution to the problem of withering Christian congregations present in modern Christian churches by way of expounding the doctrine that Jesus or his apostles promoted as displayed in the four canonical Gospels the Acts of the Apostles or the New Testament epistles This study presents factual information showing that the doctrine and arrangement of leaders that developed within the first century church may have been overlooked and lost by the wayside of history in favor of established traditions Paul declared his purpose for visiting the church believers in Rome was not to collect money or build houses of worship but so that their lives might manifest spiritual fruit Following that example improving the spiritual quality of their people s lives should be the primary goal of all Christian ministers The majority of this work will conduct a careful exegesis of selected passages from the New Testament which focus on the leadership model utilized by the first century church This study presents in detail the stratified leadership model of the early times in such a fashion that any modern church might replicate its design The Theological Works of Herbert Thorndike: The church's right to tithes, as found in Scripture ; The church's power of excommunication, as found

Matsoukas,2009-04-07 Orthodox Christianity at the Crossroad A Great Council of the Church When and Why The purpose of publishing the papers presented at the Twentieth Annual Meeting of Orthodox Christian Laity is to improve lay and clergy literacy on the conference topic of The Need for a Great and Holy Council The papers are presented with the hope that the information will motivate the faithful to participate in the conciliar decision making process that moves the Church forward on the issue of developing the council or another appropriate meeting The forces factors and history that inhibit calling a council are presented in these papers The hope of what can be accomplished when brothers work in synergy with each other and the Holy Spirit is also evident The renewal of Orthodox Christianity and the renewal of its witness in the contemporary world of global religious pluralism depend on such a meeting The calling of a council free of worldly political power turf ego and ethnic considerations will renew the Living Tradition of Orthodoxy which is its Apostolic calling The world is looking for this Living Tradition which cannot be well expressed by a fragmented Orthodox Church A council is a step toward renewing the Church and making it whole in order to teach this Living Tradition It is interesting to noteas this collection of papers points outthat the children of Orthodox Christians living in America have come together as Americans in order to remain Orthodox through campus ministry programs that they are developing The young adults are leading the way to Orthodox unity Is it not time for the Church elders the hierarchs the clergy and the faithful to look at the example of unity that the youth are providing and move ahead to do what is necessary to renew the Church through this conciliar council ABOUT THE EDITOR George E Matsoukas Executive Director of Orthodox Christian Laity since 2000 recently published A Church in Captivity The Greek Orthodox Church of America He co authored and edited Project for Orthodox Renewal and continues to publish articles in various journals newspapers and local history publications He is an active member of his church and community Mission of OCL Orthodox Christian Laity OCL is a national voluntary movement dedicated to syndiaconia co ministry of clergy and laity who are concerned with the spiritual renewal accountability and transparency in Church governance OCL encourages the laity to exercise its legitimate responsibilities as part of the conciliar governance process OCL advocates the establishment of an administratively and canonically UNIFIED SELF GOVERNING Orthodox Church in North America which is in keeping with the theology and tradition in fulfilling its Apostolic mission Purification of Memory Ambrose Mong,2015-06-25 Although its various bodies boast a combined total of at least 300 million members the Eastern Orthodox Church is widely perceived among members of other denominations to be an exotic branch of the faith often shrouded in mysticism and misunderstandingthat has been exacerbated by the longstanding Eastern Western split In Purification of Memory Ambrose Mong casts light on the true nature of Orthodox theology illuminating the thinking of eight distinguished modern Orthodox theologians who have made important contributions on topics as ecclesiology ecumenism Christology and Mariology Approaching the work of John Meyendorff Nicholas Afanasiev John Zizioulas Georges Florovsky Sergius Bulgakov Vladimir Lossky Nicolas Berdyaev and Jaroslav Pelikan from an ecumenical standpoint Mong deftly draws comparisons with the theology of their Roman Catholic counterparts to reveal points on which the two traditions have much more in common than either side will always admit The author interweaves these comparisons with a fascinating exposition of the history of the schism between the Eastern and Western Churches to demonstrate decisively that in spite of the bitter mistrust dividing them they share a common heritage which could and should serve as a basis for reunification Before old wounds can mend however a healing process of forgetting characterized by Pope John Paul II as a purification of memory must take place to clear the path towards a long awaited return to unity

Continent ,1914 Colossians David J. Landegent,2017-06-06 Some people cant see the forest for the treesthey get so bogged down in details that they lose sight of what its all about Others cant see the trees for the forestthey miss the wondrous details all around them So why not look instead at both the forest and the trees This commentary on Pauls letter to the Colossians guides you in doing just that Even though we will be exploring ancient biblical cultures and learning plenty about the Greek language no prior academic training is needed Technical terms have been set aside Instead with everyday language we will discover the big picture and revel in the fine details of this stunning letter amazed by how God is still speaking these same words today to contemporary personal and social challenges We will not then be tourists rapidly zipping through Colossians as if on a monotonous interstate highway Instead we will be hiking our way through this letter step by step phrase by phrase finding joy in Gods truth and growing in our faith Come and join the journey
