them He swung through the woods in a wide circle that would at last take him back to the camp It was growing late in the afternoon and most of the negroes were also straggling out of the woods Provided they finished their furrow they could leave when they pleased but from the top of a ridge Joe caught sight of a chipper still at work going at a fast trot from tree to tree His clothes were ragged and there were not many of them his arms were bare and his black face streamed with perspiration He carried a turpentine hack a tool very like a small pick with a keen gouging end and at each tree he ripped away with a skilful stroke another inch of the gummy bark at the top of the slash
