Chairs Frederic Gordon Roe, 1953 Killer Stuff and Tons of Money Maureen Stanton, 2011-06-09 One dealer's journey from the populist mayhem of flea markets to the rarefied realm of auctions reveals the rich often outrageous subculture of antiques and collectibles Millions of Americans are drawn to antiques and flea market culture whether as participants or as viewers of the perennially popular Antiques Roadshow or the recent hit American Pickers This world has the air of a lottery a 20 purchase might net you four five or six figures Master dealer Curt Avery the unlikely star of Killer Stuff and Tons of Money plays that lottery every day and he wins it more than most Occasionally he gets lucky but more often he draws on a deep knowledge of America's past and the odd fascinating and beautiful objects that have survived it Week in week out Avery trawls the flea and antiques circuit buying selling and advising other dealers in his many areas of expertise from furniture to glass to stoneware and more On the surface he's an improbable candidate for an antiques dealer He wrestled in high school and still retains the pugilistic build he is gruff funny and profane he favors shorts and sneakers even in November and he is remarkably generous toward both competitors and customers who want a break But as he struggles for a spot in a high end Boston show he must step up his game and perhaps more challenging fit in with a white shoe crowd Through his ascent we see the flea osphere for what it truly is less a lottery than a contact sport with few rules and many pitfalls This rich and sometimes hilarious subculture rewards peculiar interests and outright obsessions one dealer specializes in shrunken heads another wants all the postal memorabilia he can get So Avery must be a guerrilla historian and use his hard earned knowledge of America's past to live by and off his wits Only the smartest survive in one of America's most ruthless meritocracies Killer Stuff and Tons of Money is many things an insider's look at a subculture replete with arcane traditions and high drama an inspiring account of a self made man making his way in a cutthroat field a treasure trove of tips for those who seek out old things themselves and a thoroughly fresh vibrant view of history as blood sport Magazine Antiques, 1929 Old House Interiors, 1996 National architectural magazine now in its fifteenth year covering period inspired design 1700 1950 Commissioned photographs show real homes inspired by the past but livable Historical and interpretive rooms are included new construction additions and new kitchens and baths take their place along with restoration work A feature on furniture appears in every issue Product coverage is extensive Experts offer advice for homeowners and designers on finishing decorating and furnishing period homes of every era A garden feature essays archival material events and exhibitions and book reviews round out the editorial Many readers claim the beautiful advertising all of it design related no lifestyle ads is as important to them as the articles Antiques, 1926 Best Home Businesses for People 50+ Paul Edwards, Sarah Edwards, 2004-10-07 For the fastest growing segment of our population here is a comprehensive guide to starting and running a home based business in midlife and retirement A baby boomer turns fifty every seven seconds creating what will soon be the largest and most influential senior generation in history These dynamic seniors have both a desire and a need to continue their working lives past the age when their parents retired Boomers have been the primary
