The World And The Parish Volume 1 Willa Cathers Articles And Reviews 1893 19:

The World and the Parish Willa Cather, 1970-01-01 One of the few really helpful words I ever heard from an older writer Willa Cather declared in 1922 I had from Sarah Orne Jewett when she said to me Of course one day you will write about your own country In the meantime get all you can One must know the world so well before one can know the parish Although Cather s first novel about her own country O Pioneers did not appear until 1913 the process of knowing the world and of mastering her craft so far as it can be traced in her published writing already had been going on for some twenty years The World and the Parish Willa Cather s Articles and Reviews 1893 1902 is the fourth in a series collecting the work of these years of experiment and discovery More specifically it offers a representative collection of Cather s nonfiction writing for newspapers and periodicals during her first decade as a professional writer Selected from 520 articles and columns the text is divided into three parts corresponding to major developments in Cather s career the period from 1893 to 1896 when she first began to write regularly for Lincoln newspapers the years in Pittsburgh when she was working for the Home Monthly and the Leader and sending her famous Passing Show column back to Nebraska and the period from the spring of 1900 to 1903 when she freelanced in Pittsburgh and Washington taught in a Pittsburgh high school and made her first trip abroad The text has been edited with three main objectives 1 to enable the reader to trace Cather s development as a writer 2 to group the material so that the reader interested in a particular subject the theatre or music or literature for example can readily locate pertinent selections and 3 to provide a context sufficient to relate these pieces to Willa Cather s life and to the times and to suggest some of their connections with the body of her work Chronologies have been included for each of the three parts and the Bibliography is the most complete yet available for the for the nonfiction writing up to 1903 Not the least remarkable feature of this collection is the range and variety of forms and subject matter reviews of books plays operas concerts art exhibits lectures feature stories interviews straight reportage columns of miscellaneous comment and travel letters Seemingly with no apparent effort Willa Cather could adjust her sights to any assignment and any audience And if it is astonishing that she could write so much about so many matters at so many levels it is perhaps even more astonishing that so much of it was so good Undeniably however the chief interest to the general reader and the peculiar value to the scholar of these journalistic writings reside in their manifold and crucial connections with Cather s later work and in the unparalleled insights they afford into the process by which a gifted writer becomes a great artist Cather Studies, Volume 13 Cather Studies, 2021-07 Cather Studies Volume 13 explores the myriad ways that Willa Cather s writing career was shaped during the crucial years in Pittsburgh and the artistic professional and personal connections she made there Literature and Music, 2016-08-09 This collection of essays centers on musical elements that authors have employed in their work thus joining heard sounds to a visual perception of their stories The spectrum of authors represented is a wide one from Pound to Durrell from Steinbeck to Cather from Beckett to Gaines but even more unusual is the variety of musical type represented

Classical music the quartet the fugue the symphony Jazz the jazz riff and jazz improv and the spiritual all appear along with folk song and so called random noise Such diversity suggests that there are few limits when readers consider how great writers utilize musical styles and techniques Indeed each author seems to realize that it is not the type of music that s he chooses to employ that is important Rather it is the realization that such musical elements as harmony dissonance tonal repetition and beat are just as important in prose composition as they are in poetry and song The essayists have selected some works that may be considered obscure and some that are modern classics Each one however has captured one of the varied ways in which words and music complement and enhance each other

Fictions of Western American

Domesticity Amanda J. Zink, 2018-06-01 This work provides a compelling explanation of something that has bedeviled a number of feminist scholars Why did popular authors like Edna Ferber continue to write conventional fiction while living lives that were far from conventional Amanda J Zink argues that white writers like Ferber and Willa Cather avoided the subject of their own domestic labor by writing about the performance of domestic labor by others showing that American print culture both in novels and through advertisements moved away from portraying women as angels in the house and instead sought to persuade other women to be angels in their houses Zink further explores lesser known works such as Mexican American cookbooks and essays in Indian boarding school magazines to show how women writers dialoging domesticity exemplify the cross cultural encounters between colonial domesticity and sovereign domesticity By situating these interpretations of literature within their historical contexts Zink shows how these writers championed and challenged the ideology of domesticity

Cather Studies, Volume 10 Anne L Kaufman, Richard H. Millington, 2015-08 Willa Cather and the Nineteenth Century explores with textual specificity and historical alertness the question of how the cultures of the nineteenth century the cultures that shaped Willa Cather s childhood animated her education supplied her artistic models generated her inordinate ambitions and gave embodiment to many of her deeply held values are addressed in her fiction In two related sets of essays seven contributors track within Cather s life or writing the particular cultural formations emotions and conflicts of value she absorbed from the atmosphere of her distinct historical moment their ten colleagues offer a compelling set of case studies that articulate the manifold ways that Cather learned from built upon or resisted models provided by particular nineteenth century writers works or artistic genres Taken together with its Cather Studies predecessor Willa Cather and Modern Cultures this volume reveals Cather as explorer and interpreter sufferer and master of the transition from a Victorian to a Modernist America

Conflicting Stories Elizabeth Ammons, 1992-10-01 The early 1890s through the late 1920s saw an explosion in serious long fiction by women in the United States Considering a wide range of authors African American Asian American white American and Native American this book looks at the work of seventeen writers from that period Frances Ellen Harper Charlotte Perkins Gilman Sarah Orne Jewett Alice Dunbar Nelson Kate Chopin Pauline Hopkins Gertrude Stein Mary Austin Sui Sin Far Willa Cather Humishuma Jessie Fauset Edith Wharton

Ellen Glasgow Anzia Yezierska Edith Summers Kelley and Nella Larsen The discussion focuses on the differences in their work and the similarities that unite them particularly their determination to experiment with narrative form as they explored and voiced issues of power for women Analyzing the historical context that both enabled and limited American women writers at the turn of the century Ammons provides detailed readings of many texts and offers extensive commentary on the interaction between race and gender This book joins the deepening discussion of modern women writers creation of themselves as artists and raises fundamental questions about the shape of American literary history as it has been constructed in the academy

Browning Upon Arabia Hédi A. Jaouad, 2018-06-27 Browning Upon Arabia charts Robert Browning's early and enduring engagement with the East particularly the Arab East This book highlights the complexities of Browning's poetry revealing Browning's resistance to triumphalist and imperialist forms of Orientalism generated by many nineteenth century British and European literary and scholarly portrayals of the East Hédi A. Jaouad argues that Browning extensively researched the literature history philosophy and culture of the East to produce poetry that is sensitive to its Eastern resources and devoted to confirming the interrelation of Northern and Eastern knowledge in pursuit of a new form of transcendental humanism

A Godly Hero Michael Kazin, 2007-03-13 ONE OF THE BEST BOOKS OF THE YEAR THE WASHINGTON POST CHICAGO TRIBUNE LOS ANGELES TIMES ST LOUIS POST DISPATCH Politician evangelist and reformer William Jennings Bryan was the most popular public speaker of his time In this acclaimed biography the first major reconsideration of Bryan's life in forty years award winning historian Michael Kazin illuminates his astonishing career and the richly diverse and volatile landscape of religion and politics in which he rose to fame Kazin vividly re-creates Bryan's tremendous appeal showing how he won a passionate following among both rural and urban Americans who saw in him not only the practical vision of a reform politician but also the righteousness of a pastor Bryan did more than anyone to transform the Democratic Party from a bulwark of laissez faire to the citadel of liberalism we identify with Franklin D Roosevelt In 1896 1900 and 1908 Bryan was nominated for president and though he fell short each time his legacy a subject of great debate after his death remains monumental This nuanced and brilliantly crafted portrait restores Bryan to an esteemed place in American history

Becoming Modern M. Catherine Downs, 1999 It is one thing to report a news story and another to use the same material in one's art and Cather did intend that her literary works become art and that they achieve lasting fame This volume details how Cather came to transform the office routine of memos and deadlines linotypes and the business trip into the artistry of her early stories poems biographies and novels

BOOK JACKET Birthing a Nation Susan J. Rosowski, 1999-01-01 Birthing a Nation is about national identity and the American West If it is a truism that facing west was the American male version of invoking the Muse what happened if you were female Most past interpretations of western American literature have echoed Frederick Jackson Turner's frontier hypothesis emphasizing the conflict of wilderness and civilization the hero of rugged individualism the act of returning to origins and reemerging as the reborn American Adam In this reading of western American women writers who responded to the challenge to give birth to a nation Susan J Rosowski proposes an alternative more hopeful affirmation of our cultural history and perhaps our cultural destiny Rosowski begins by tracing the birth metaphor through three and a half centuries of American letters She reexamines the premises underlying the telling of the literary West and posits a female model of creativity at the genesis of American literature She follows four authors on a multigenerational journey beginning with Margaret Fuller in 1843 moving on a generation later to Willa Cather advancing to Jean Stafford and ending with Marilynne Robinson In her reading of these writers who most directly and deeply believed in literature as a serious and noble form of art and who wrote to influence how the country perceived itself Rosowski contributes to the ongoing process of remapping the literary landscape
