Geography Adam Arnell, 2004 This revision guide for Key Stage 3 geography contains in depth course coverage and advice on how to get the best results in the national test It has progress check questions and exam practice questions

Huh: Curriculum conversations between subject and senior leaders John Tomsett, Mary Myatt, 2021-09-18 Schools need to have purchase on the curriculum why they teach the subjects beyond preparation for examinations what they are intending to achieve with the curriculum how well it is planned and enacted in classrooms and how they know whether it s doing what it s supposed to Fundamental to this understanding are the conversations between subject leaders and their line managers However there is sometimes a mismatch between the subject specialisms of senior leaders and those they line manage If I don t know the terrain and the importance of a particular subject how can I talk intelligently with colleagues who are specialists This book sets out to offer some tentative answers to these questions Each of the national curriculum subjects is discussed with a subject leader and provides an insight into what they view as the importance of the subject how they go about ensuring that knowledge understanding and skills are developed over time how they talk about the quality of the schemes in their departments and what they would welcome from senior leaders by way of support We have chosen this way of opening up the potentially difficult terrain of expertise on one side and relative lack of expertise on the other by providing these case studies They are suggested as prompts rather than the last word Informed debate is after all the fuel of curriculum development And why Huh Well Huh may be John s first response when he walks into a Year 8 German class but in fact we chose Huh as the title of our book as he is the Egyptian god of endlessness As Claire Hill so eloquently comments in her chapter Curriculum development is an ongoing process it s not going to be finished ever And we believe that Huh captures a healthy and expansive way of considering curriculum conversations Slavery, Memory and Identity Douglas Hamilton, Kate Hodgson, Joel Quirk, 2015-10-06 This is the first book to explore national representations of slavery in an international comparative perspective Contributions span a wide geographical range covering Europe North America West and South Africa the Indian Ocean and Asia Know it All, Find it Fast for Youth Librarians and Teachers Christine Donnelly, 2012 A brand new version of the best selling enquiry desk reference text Know it All Find it Fast specifically designed for those working with children and young people in schools public libraries and at home Including an invaluable overview of the education system and the school curriculum as well as a comprehensive listing of useful resources by topic this A Z covers school subjects from science and maths to reading and literacy and more general themes such as children s health wellbeing and hobbies Each topic is broken down into useful sections that will help to guide your response Typical questions outline common queries such as Have you got any information about volcanoes Considerations provides useful hints and tips i e Geography now encompasses not only physical and human geography but also environmental geography social geography geology and geopolitics Where to look lists relevant printed digital and online resources with useful

annotations explaining their scope and strengths Readership This is the must have quick reference tool arming librarians and teachers with the knowledge to deal with any queries thrown at them from children and young people as well as their parents and caregivers It will also be a handy reference for parents and anyone working with children and young people in other organizations such as homework clubs and youth workers

Debates in Geography Education David Lambert, Mark Jones, 2013 Debates in Geography Education encourages student and practising teachers to engage with and reflect on key issues concepts and debates in their specialist subject teaching It aims to enable geography teachers to reach their own informed judgements and argue their point of view with deeper theoretical knowledge and understanding Expert editors and contributors provide a balance of experience and perspectives and offer international historical and policy contexts evidence informed classroom debates and a glimpse of the subject s expanding horizons Debates considered include what constitutes knowledge in geography constructing the curriculum how do we link assessment to making progress in geography the contribution of fieldwork and outdoor experiences technology and media how we use Geographical Information how geography contributes to global learning sustainable development and geography education The comprehensive rigorous coverage of these key issues together with carefully annotated selected further reading reflective questions and a range of specific web based resources will help support shape your own research and writing Debates in Geography Education is a source of knowledge experience and debate that will be essential reading for all students studying at Masters level practising teachers who want to develop a better understanding of the issues that shape their practice and Education Studies students considering in depth subject teaching
