Theo Drama Theological Dramatic Theory Vol 5 Theo Drama Theological Dramatic Theory Vol 5:

Theo-drama Balthasar,1998 Triune Well-Being Jacqueline Service,2024-07-08 That God is the perfection of all blessed abundance and the source and context for creation s well being tends merely to be assumed in theology Yet how does God enact all blessedness and actualize God s own abundantly enriched life And how might such a reality be relevant to human well being Addressing these questions in Triune Well Being The Kenotic Enrichment of the Eternal Trinity Jacqueline Service traces the dynamics of Divine well being through Scripture Christian metaphysics and a synthesis of Orthodox Bulgakov Catholic Von Balthasar and Protestant Pannenberg Trinitarian theologies to argue that God s all blessed life the glory of well being is symbiotic with triune self giving kenosis a concept identified as kenotic enrichment or enriching kenosis Such a trinitarian exploration not only offers a fresh perspective on the contested topic of kenosis but goes to the heart of a doctrine of God that implicates the possibility of the well being of all life “Grace Abounds More”: Balthasar’s

Eschatological Universalism in Dialogue Joshua R. Brotherton,2023-12-04 The problem of eternal damnation is one that should trouble all believers and impels many to seek answers to fundamental questions outside of the Church For this reason theologians with a missionary heart of the last century or more from across the ecclesial spectrum have sought to refashion the gospel in our own estranged image In dialogue with one of the leading figures of this movement Joshua Brotherton tackles the question of the plausibility that all will be saved Sympathetic to their cause this volume seeks to revise the way in which they envision the reconciliation of divine love and moral evil Tending the Fire That Burns at the Center of the World David F. White,2022-07-29 Tending the Fire That Burns at the Center of the World engages the central question of Christian formation that is what kind of knowing is most likely to awaken and sustain Christian faith This book seeks to reclaim aesthetics beauty and creativity as the church s most native theological way of knowing and being which participates with God s own glory and creativity This book traces the prominence of aesthetics up until the dawn of the Enlightenment including recent theologians who reclaim aesthetics for theology and formation The book elaborates the aims and techniques of aesthetic approaches to teaching and learning in the church Finally this book cautions against overly determined rationalisms and moralisms that do not retain a sense of wonder delight and openness in the church s teaching liturgy and proclamation In this view the church does not simply regurgitate familiar texts political tropes or flattened doctrines but breaks into the world as Christ s body a parable a song a flash mob interrupting business as usual giving new expression to acts of care repentance forgiveness joy and communion awake to the beauty of God s gifts and inviting our worship

Ressourcement after Vatican II Matthew Levering,2019-10-31 Beginning with a personal recollection of the achievements of Fr Joseph Fessio S J by David L Schinder this work includes twelve essays by theologians who acknowledge a debt to Father Fessio and Ignatius Press These twelve essays treat topics such as the Church as the mystical body the liturgy Christian apologetics in post modern culture public theology analogy Scriptural interpretation marriage and the Trinity theological dramatics Pope Benedict XVI's sources Tradition and development of doctrine Among the major 20th century figures treated in these essays are Hans Urs von Balthasar Louis Bouyer Henri de Lubac Joseph Ratzinger and Josef Pieper The contributors hope that the topics of the essays represent a large swath of the interests of Father Fessio from his early scholarly work on the Church his commitment to liturgical renewal and Catholic catechesis through his devotion to Ignatian spirituality and his appreciation for Thomistic philosophy and his lifelong engagement with the theology of von Balthasar and Ratzinger

Eschatology John C. McDowell, Scott A. Kirkland, 2018-09-18 This short textbook the latest volume in the Guides to Theology series surveys key themes and aspects of Christian hope by tracing eschatological ideas as they have developed from Scripture throughout the history of theology John McDowell and Scott Kirkland present a series of lenses on understanding eschatological statements or the content of Christian hope They have structured their book thematically into five chapters four exploring apocalyptic existential political and christological themes followed by an extensive annotated bibliography Within each chapter McDowell and Kirkland take a history of ideas approach locating the various perspectives in their historical contexts Concise and accessible this book is ideal for introductory undergraduate courses in eschatology

Theology and Literature after Postmodernity Zoë Lehmann Imfeld, Peter Hampson, Alison Milbank, 2015-03-12 This volume deploys theology in a reconstructive approach to contemporary literary criticism to validate and exemplify theological readings of literary texts as a creative exercise It engages in a dialogue with interdisciplinary approaches to literature in which theology is alert and responsive to the challenges following postmodernism and postmodern literary criticism It demonstrates the scope and explanatory power of theological readings across various texts and literary genres Theology and Literature after Postmodernity explores a reconstructive approach to reading and literary study in the university setting with contributions from interdisciplinary scholars worldwide

Ethnic Diversity, National Unity Theodoros A. Teklu, 2021-01-29 Although asserting one's ethnic identity is not morally wrong the manner in which one ethnic group construes or relates to the ethnic other's can obliterate the bond of togetherness and create the insecurity of life Ethiopia which is home to anthropologically diverse ethno-linguistic groups exhibits a proclivity to ethnic based hostilities and conflicts As a result of such hostilities Ethiopia has suffered recurrent small and large scale deaths and in the last half decade only millions have been internally displaced and live in dire conditions In dialogue with perspectives from a wide range of disciplines such as history law sociology philosophy theology and political thought this multi-authored book aims at generating Christian moral resources for peaceful multiethnic togetherness This interdisciplinary engagement is meant to buttress the task of interpreting ethnic diversity and national unity within both contemporary and historical Ethiopia and articulating a Christian moral response to the crisis of togetherness ensuing from the malpractices of affirming ethnic identity and enacting national unity

Death as Transformation Dr Henry L. Novello, 2013-06-28 A key tenet of Christian faith is that the crucifixion of Jesus Christ is a unique death by which the powers of death in the world have been conquered so that Christian life in the Spirit is marked by the promise and hope of new life already anticipated in the community of baptized believers. Notwithstanding this basic tenet regarding the Christian life as a participation in the redemptive death of Jesus Christ, theology in the past as well as much contemporary theology tends to assign no salvific significance to the event of our own death, focusing instead on death in negative terms as the wages of sin. This work is a significant retort to theological neglect both Catholic and Protestant of the positive and transformative aspect of our death when conceived as a dying into the redemptive death of Jesus Christ. The development of Henry L. Novello's proposed theology of death takes place in conversation with the pre-eminent contemporary contributors to this field of theological inquiry. By offering comprehensive critiques of Karl Rahner, Hans Urs von Balthasar, Karl Barth, Eberhard Jüngel, and Jürgen Moltmann, Novello painstakingly pieces together a positive construal of death as salvific and transformative. What is especially distinctive about Novello's work is that he develops the idea of death as a sharing in the admirable exchange of natures in the person of Jesus Christ, from which emerges his theory of resurrection at death for all. The reach of the work is extended by exploring some pastoral and liturgical implications of a theology of death conceived as the privileged moment for the actualization of God's grace in Jesus Christ and thus being created anew in the power of the Spirit.
