In the background, a large, realistic sculpture of an elephant's head and trunk is positioned behind a black coffee table. The room features a grey sofa, a radiator, a window, and a bookshelf. The text "IS THERE AN ELEPHANT IN MY ROOM?" is overlaid in large, bold, pink letters with a yellow outline.

Creative Metaphor, Evaluation, and Emotion in Conversations about Work Jeannette Littlemore, Sarah Turner, Penelope Tuck, 2023-09-06 This book explores the roles played by creative and conventional metaphor in expressing positive and negative evaluation within a particular workplace drawing on interviews with 31 current and former employees of the British Civil Service Metaphor is often used to express evaluation but relatively few studies have investigated the ways in which metaphor is used to evaluate personal emotionally charged experiences The volume explores how metaphor serves a predominantly evaluative function with creatively used metaphors often more likely than conventional metaphors to perform an evaluative function particularly when the evaluation is negative or ambiguous The findings provide a deeper understanding of the relationship between evaluation creativity and metaphor Examples including military metaphors and family metaphors show how creativity often comes through subverting the norms of use of a particular metaphor category or altering the valence from its conventional use The study elucidates the myriad ways in which people push at the boundaries of linguistic creativity in their efforts to describe the qualitative nature of their experiences Demonstrating how metaphor can be a powerful tool for the nuanced expression of complex and ambiguous evaluation this book will appeal to researchers interested in better understanding metaphor creativity evaluation and workplace cultures

The Multicultural Imagination Michael Vannoy Adams,2019-07-16 The Multicultural Imagination is a challenging inquiry into the complex interrelationship between our ideas about race and color and the unconscious Michael Vannoy Adams takes a fresh look at the contributions of psychoanalysis to a question which affects every individual who tries to establish an effective personal identity in the context of their received racial identity Adams argues that race is just as important as sex or any other content of the unconscious drawing on clinical case material from contemporary patients for whom race or color is a vitally significant social and political concern that impacts on them personally He does not assume that racism or colorism will simply vanish if we psychoanalyse them but shows how a non defensive ego and a self image that is receptive to other images can move us towards a more productive discourse of cultural differences Wide ranging in its references and scope this is a book that provokes the reader analyst or not to confront personally those unconscious attitudes which stand in the way of authentic multicultural relationships Elephants on Roller Skates Peter Sheldrake, 2013-05-17

We have all learned to acknowledge the elephant in the room the unspoken issue that is affecting our ability to move forward However after getting the issue into the open time passes and we begin to stop paying close attention to the issue It begins to slip away from us while still affecting our views and our behaviour The elephant in the room has become an elephant on roller skates This book looks at some familiar issues that we seem to notice for a while and then stop subjecting to careful consideration they range from the free market telling the truth and liberty through to more personal issues concerned with mutual respect entitlement and our willingness to give way to the opinions of others There are many such escaped elephants out there This is both an introduction to some of these issues and an encouragement for you to become an elephant spotter Good luck The Murphy Stories Mark Costello, 1973 Roman The Journal of Philosophy, 1952 Covers topics in philosophy psychology and scientific methods Vols 31 include A Bibliography of philosophy 1933
