War Four Christian Views:

War--4 Christian Views Robert G. Clouse,1981 Robert Clouse presents four different viewpoints on war Herman Hoyt on biblical nonresistance Myron Augsburger on Christian pacifism Arthur Holmes on just war and Harold O J Brown on preventive war War, Peace, and Violence: Four Christian Views Paul Copan,2022-09-13 In a world of war terrorism and constant threats to global stability how should Christians honor Jesus Christ Four experts in Christian ethics political philosophy and international affairs present four different views of just war nonviolence Christian realism and church history orienting readers to today s key positions War edited by Robert G. Clouse ; with contributions by Herman A. Hoyt ... [et al.], War, Peace, and Christianity J. Daryl Charles,Timothy J. Demy,2010 This informed Christian response to more than one hundred common questions regarding the ethics of war demonstrates the viability of just war reasoning in responding to contemporary geopolitical challenges 10 Issues That Divide Christians Alex McFarland,2014-02-13 Is agreeing to disagree good enough for God s family Christians don t necessarily agree with each other when it comes to questions of religious pluralism homosexuality the role of government abortion and war Too often we manage these disagreements by ignoring them Yet we are called to engage the world for the sake of Christ How can we be effective if we avoid society s most pressing questions In 10 Issues That Divide Christians Alex McFarland challenges Christ followers to drill down to the biblical core of ten current issues such as social justice evil and suffering pornography and environmentalism among others and echoes the biblical invitation Come let us reason together Only by engaging the Scriptures deeply thinking clearly and speaking truthfully can we in God s family address our differences and discover the peace that comes with unity of purpose With the Bible as our guidebook and the Spirit as our guide we can respond to today s urgent questions with the mind of Christ War in the Bible and Terrorism in the Twenty-first Century Richard S. Hess,E. A. Martens,2008 In February 2004 Denver Seminary s annual Biblical Studies conference addressed the question of modern war and the teachings of biblical ethics regarding it A year earlier the invasion of Iraq had taken place The questions created by the outbreak of war prompted an urgency in the consideration of the topic Association for Christian Conferences Teaching and Service ACCTS provided ethicists and practitioners from within the military of both the U S and Great Britain Hess and Martens also solicited papers from leading theologians and advocates representing pacifist and just war views They have succeeded in bringing together a group of Christians representing a wide range of perspectives to debate and discuss their heritage and biblical roots with regard to questions of war and its ethical dilemmas from publisher description New Dictionary of Christian Ethics & Pastoral Theology David J. Atkinson,David F. Field,Arthur F. Holmes,Oliver O'Donovan,2013-11-21 Encompassing a wide range of topics from the timely health care and business ethics to the traditional atonement suffering and the kingdom of God this work features an easy to use reference system and eighteen articles that introduce readers to key themes in moral pastoral and practical theology Edited by David J Atkinson and David F

Field with consulting editors Arthur Holmes and Oliver O Donovan Pacifism and Pentecostals in South Africa Marius Nel, 2018-06-27 Most of the early twentieth century Pentecostal denominations were peace churches that encouraged a stance of conscientious objection However since the Second World War Pentecostals have largely abandoned their pacifist viewpoint as they have taken on a more literal Biblical hermeneutic from their interaction with Evangelical denominations This book traces the history of nonviolence in Pentecostalism and suggests that a new hermeneutic of the Bible is needed by today's Pentecostals in order for them to rediscover their pacifist roots and effect positive social change The book focuses on how Pentecostalism has manifested in South Africa during the twentieth century Much of the available academic literature on hermeneutics and exegesis in the field of Pentecostal Studies is of an American or British European origin This book redresses this imbalance by exploring how the Bible has been used amongst African Pentecostals to teach on the apparent paradox of a simultaneously wrathful and loving God It then goes on to suggest that how the Bible is read directly affects how Pentecostals view their role as potential reformers of society So it must be engaged seriously and thoughtfully By bringing Pentecostalism's function in South African society to the fore this book adds a fresh perspective on the issue of pacifism in world Christianity As such it will be of great use to scholars of Pentecostal Studies Theology and Religion and Violence as well as those working in African Studies Patriotism and the Cross Glenn M. E. Duerr, 2020-12-16 Every follower of Christ has a coterminous sense of citizenship s he is at the same time a citizen of a country or countries on earth but also has a heavenly allegiance through faith in Jesus Christ How then should Christians live in light of these tensions What does the Bible teach about issues of nationality nationalism and patriotism Designed around seven chapters this book investigates the issue of national identity for the follower of Christ Specifically this book delves into more than the binary of whether a Christian can be patriotic or not Or whether a Christian can be nationalistic or not What should a Christian do in light of differing political conditions around them because in this situation Christians still need to share the gospel and make disciples of all nations As a result answers are proffered by the author based on Old and New Testament examples on national identity free trade and supranational groupings secessionist agitation and independence referendums as well as transnational linkages that connect followers of Christ around the globe This book ends with sixteen conclusions on how Christians should live in the modern world with respect to nationalism and patriotism Haunts of Violence in the Church Howard Goeringer, 2005 A critique of the just war doctrine first espoused by Saint Augustine and a recounting of the history of violence in the Christian Church The author argues that war and violence are both perversions of the true teachings of Jesus Christ
