Liturgy with a Difference Stephen Burns, Bryan Cones, 2019-05-30 Christian churches in recent decades have taken some steps in their practices of liturgy and worship toward acknowledging the graced dignity of human variety But who is still excluded What pernicious norms still govern

below the surface and how might they be revealed How do texts gestures and space abet and enforce such norms How might Christian assemblies gather multiple expressions of human difference to propose through Christian liturgy patterns of graced interaction in the world around them Liturgy with a Difference gathers a broad range of international theologians and scholars to interrogate current practices of liturgy and worship in order to unmask ways in which dehumanizing majoritarianisms and presumed norms of gender culture ethnicity and body among others remain at work in congregations Together the chapters in this collection call for a liturgical practice that recognizes and rehearses the vivid richness of God's image found in the human community and glimpsed if only for a moment in liturgical celebration They point a way beyond mere inclusion toward a generous embrace of the many differences that make up the Christian community With contributions from Rachel Mann Teresa Berger Susannah Cornwall Miguel A DeLa Torre Edward Foley W Scott Haldeman Michael Jagessar Bruce T Morrill Kristine Suna Koro and Frank Senn Foreword by Ann Loades

This Assembly of Believers Bryan Cones, 2020-11-30 Among the symbols with which the liturgy deals none is more important than this assembly of believers This claim made in the 1970s forces the local church to consider those within its congregation and recognise the gifts and challenges of difference within the church community In This Assembly of Believers Bryan Cones seeks to take seriously the pastoral context of a congregation recognising the physical ability gender and sexuality of those who make up the congregation Starting each chapter with their lived experience Cones poses important questions of the liturgy in light of these experiences before realigning the liturgy to demonstrate the positive theological significance of the marginalised within the congregation

Discipleship and Society in the Early Churches Thomas O'Loughlin, 2022-01-01 Discipleship that being a Christian is about learning and discovering acting and responding choosing and collaborating is both a primordial Christian theme and a re-discovery of the mid twentieth century But how does one discover its meaning For some it means programmes like turning out a product ignoring the individuality of each's path Others emphasize the group forgetting that every community's richness is valuing its members diversity Is discipleship the way of the loner and community ignoring But social beings learn discipleship in communities Community is not simply the club of like minded individuals but should model a new way of being To uncover what discipleship means we must read the New Testament with the awareness that how we see the world of the early Jesus followers is radically different from the inherited theological underpinning of many churches Discipleship and Society in the Early Churches takes our historical awareness seriously and examines what biblical historical and archaeological research can tell us about discipleship today

Missional Discipleship After Christendom Andrew R. Hardy,Dan Yarnell,2018-03-14 It is not a changing culture reduced resources or a rescinding Christian memory that creates the greatest challenges for the church in the West It is the lack of a clear commitment to the intentional authentic and contextual expressions of missional disciple making which will shape current and future generations of followers of Jesus to express the values of the Kingdom today This book offers stimulating historical biblical and theological reflections on discipleship and considers some of the possibilities and opportunities afforded to us by our post Christian context Missional discipleship allows the missio Dei to shape us in our engagement our practices and sustain us in the lifelong journey of becoming and developing disciples that follow Jesus today
