Watching Life Unfold Beck Barsanti, 2015-05-30 With a love of nature a deep connection with Nantucket and a flair for capturing fleeting moments Beck Barsanti writes with the crackle of youth and the stillness of an old soul Whether it's the fear of a new school the comfort of darkness the past as seen in the shape of an old house the joy of spring the sad shock of an imagined future Beck's breadth of topics match his variety of poetic styles Before long this off-islander could swear he was smelling salt air and hearing the screech of hawk envying crows This young writer will engage all your senses and it's a great ride Peter Lerangis New York Times bestselling author of the Seven Wonders series LIFE, 1944-01-31 LIFE Magazine is the treasured photographic magazine that chronicled the 20th Century It now lives on at LIFE.com the largest most amazing collection of professional photography on the internet Users can browse search and view photos of today's people and events They have free access to share print and post images for personal use Index to Poetry and Recitations Edith Granger, 1918 The Nantucket Diary of Ned Rorem, 1973-1985 Ned Rorem, 2013-06-18 divDIV The acclaimed author of The Paris Diary Pulitzer Prize winning American composer Ned Rorem offers readers a mellow thoughtful and candid chronicle of his life work and contemporaries divDIV One of our most revered contemporary musical artists winner of the Pulitzer Prize and declared the world's best composer of art songs by Time magazine Ned Rorem writes that he is a composer who writes not a writer who composes Despite this claim Rorem's published diaries memoirs essay collections and other nonfiction works have all received resounding acclaim for their lyricism bold honesty and insightful social commentary divDIV divDIV His Nantucket Diary covering the years 1973 through 1985 reveals a more mature and graceful Ned Rorem a man who has experienced great loss and serious illness yet has lost none of his acute observational skills and keenly opinionated nature His wit remains bracing and his candor refreshing as he offers sharp critiques on the state of modern classical music and its creators His accounts of times shared with luminaries and legends musical and otherwise including Leonard Bernstein Edward Albee Virgil Thomson and Stephen Sondheim are consistently enthralling and delightful The outspoken hedonist of The Paris Diary may be older and more subdued now but his incisive observations and unique outlook on life both personal and creative remain an unforgettable reading experience div div Poetry Venture, 1969 An Index to Poetry and Recitations Edith Granger, 1918 AN INDEX TO POETRY AND RECITATIONS, 1918 Women and the Material Culture of Death Beth Fowkes Tobin, 2017-07-05 Examining the compelling and often poignant connection between women and the material culture of death this collection focuses on the objects women make the images they keep the practices they use or are responsible for and the places they inhabit and construct through ritual and custom Women's material practices ranging from wearing mourning jewelry to dressing the dead stitching memorial samplers to constructing skull boxes collecting funeral programs to collecting and studying diseased hearts making and collecting taxidermies and making sculptures honoring the death are explored in this collection as well as women's affective responses and sentimental labor that mark their expected and unexpected participation in the social practices surrounding death and the dead The largely invisible work involved in commemorating and constructing narratives and memorials about the dead from family members and friends to national figures calls attention to the role women as memory keepers for families local communities and the nation Women have tended to work collaboratively making collecting and sharing objects that conveyed sentiments about the deceased whether human or animal as well as the identity of mourners Death is about loss and many of the mourning practices that women have traditionally and are currently engaged in are about dealing with private grief and public loss as well as working to mitigate the more general anxiety that death engenders about the impermanence of life
